Voters Get Pick Of Novato Parks

Novato's "package of parks," to be voted on Jan. 23, was divided into two measures last night by city councilmen to enable voters to choose either measure or both. The council's vote was unanimous.

One measure, probably to be called A, will encompass: Pioneer Memorial, Novato Creek, Marion School, Olive School, San Marin, Lions, Pleasant Valley, Lynwood School and Arroyo Avichi parks.

The second measure, B, will encompass: acquisition and development of a 20-acre McClay Park and a swimming pool.

Cost of the first measure is $1,208,094; the second, $881,500. Added to this would be $125,000 for fees, tests, consultant costs, this figure to be proportioned for each measure. Grand total for both measures is $2,249,594 — or just within the proposed $2,250,000 bond issue.

Action was taken at midnight following the council's second joint meeting with the parks and recreation commission to decide parks and their priorities.

City Councilman William J. Adams, who said the total bond "package" may be "biting off more than we can chew," proposed the split. It was made clear that voters may vote on either measure or both.

Parks and recreation commissioners were polled informally by Mayor J. Wayne Womack which resulted in the majority saying the bond issue should represent, basically, the previously proposed total package.

Womack pointed out that, should the $2,250,000 park bond issue and a second issue, the $5,750,000 street bond issue also on the ballot, be passed, 40 cents would need to be added to the tax rate. This would finance the 30-year bond redemption period.

City Mr. J. Julien Baget proposed an alternative park bond issue of about $1 million to include 34 areas of parks instead of the proposed 74 acres.

He suggested eliminating Phase II of Pioneer Memorial and cutting out Lions, Pleasant Valley and McClay Parks as

FAIRFAX ENGINEER SUDDENLY RESIGNS

Nelson Claims 'Opportunities,' Not Job Merger Discussion, Prompted His Move

Fairfax City Engineer Richard J. Nelson last night announced his resignation, effective Sept. 29, thus rendering academic the city's longstanding controversy over whether or not to combine his job with that of city administrator.

The announcement came shortly before midnight at the close of the Fairfax City Council meeting.

In a letter to the council, Nelson said that he regrets leaving, but that he believes "great city progress has been accomplished during the past three years."

Nelson said the sole reason for his leaving is "better opportunities elsewhere." He declined to be specific, saying only that he cannot stay on in light of new developments.

He said his decision is in no way a result of the recent move by the council to "study meaningful ways" to cut city costs, including combining departments and jobs.

"I do not feel my security was threatened by this action," he said. "I have always felt I had the support of the council."

Nelson also said he does not believe recent letters sent to the council, condemning city policies and calling for his and City Administrator David J. Sumbardo's resignation, reflect the opinion of the majority.

An open letter, read last night to the council, from Max Friedman, developer of the Fair-Anselm Shopping Center and owner of the Marin Town and Country Club, sharply criticized the city administration for its "pipe dream" of building city halls and spending "25 per cent

Wants Quick Victory

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan called today for a sharp escalation of the Vietnam war "to win the was as quickly as possible."

The Republican governor — a possible contender for the GOP presidential nomination — also told a news conference "I am just not interested" in being the vice presidential candidate on a Republican ticket headed by New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

WAR QUESTIONS

Reagan was questioned sharply about the war at his last Capitol news conference before beginning on Sept. 28 a series of speeches outside California in which he is expected to discuss Vietnam and domestic issues.

He said the United States had stepped up its war effort too gradually, without winning.

A reporter asked if he favored a "sharp escalation."

"Yes," replied Reagan, "to win the war as quickly as possible."

ALL-OUT DRIVE

He said the United States should use its "full technology" to win the war, and repeated his belief that the "enemy should still be frightened that we might use" atomic weapons.

But he said he was not advocating the use of nuclear weapons in Vietnam and added he did not believe they were needed to win the war.

Asked about Michiagan Republican Gov. George Romney's statement that he was "brainwashed" by administration officials in Vietnam, Reagan said "perhaps he expressed a concern that all Americans have about foreign policy."

DISAGREEMENT

But he disagreed sharply with some of the other war statements of Romney, another potential Republican presidential nominee — particularly statements that the United States had made a mistake in getting involved.

Once again, he differed sharply with President Johnson's conduct of the war.

In calling for sharp escalation, Reagan said he would let the "military decide" what methods to use.

The first term governor will lead California's delegation to the Republican national convention in Miami, Fla. next year as a favorite son candidate, but he has said he is not an actual candidate.

A reporter asked if he'd be interested in a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket — the object of increasing political speculation.

"I'm just not interested in that proposition at all," said Reagan.

"At either end of the ticket?" he was asked.

"That's right," Reagan replied.

Negative Painter Report Revealed

An investigator for the Fair Employment Practices Commission testified today that a lead man (foreman) on the Golden Gate Bridge told him he filed adverse work reports on two fired Negro painters which were not his own personal opinion.

Testifying at an FEPC hearing on discrimination charges brought by the two painters, investigator Delmar Williams said that lead man Ralph Disharoon told him he filed the negative reports on the request of Paint Superintendent Hale Sharrett.

"He (Disharoon) told me they were not his own personal opinion," Williams said.

The hearing, in its second day today, is on discrimination charges filed by Jimmie Lee Wilkins, 33, of Oakland, and James B. Haugabook, 30, Palo Alto.

George Bahrs, attorney for the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, challenged the work evaluation reports made by Disharoon, and another lead man, Clyde Laidlau. Bahrs said that Laidlau "scored everybody with perfect scores and we intend to show that they have little or no value."

Attorney Francis J. McTernan, representing Painters Union Local 4 and the complainants, objected that Bahrs was attempting to "impeach" the bridge's own work report system.

"You set up a system to 'catch' your painters, and it is improper to come in here and impeach your own foreman," McTernan said.

"Nevertheless, that is exactly what we intend to do," replied Bahrs.

Wilkins had no previous experience as a painter and ad-

Police Accuse Seminarian Of Balking Search

Robert E. Davisson, a student at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo was arrested by San Francisco police last night when he allegedly prevented officers from searching a church for a juvenile gang.

Davisson was booked for investigation of conspiracy to aid and abet individuals suspected of committing a felony.

He was released this morning from San Francisco City Prison on his own recognicance

TRAIL OF BLOOD

San Francisco police officers reported a half dozen juveniles had threatened householders in the area of Olivet Presbyterian Church, at 19th and Missouri streets. Police said the youths had kicked in a glass door of St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church on Missouri Street. A trail of blood, evidently from one of the youths who cut himself on the door, led to Olivet Church, police said.

Davisson answered the door, officers said, and demanded identification and a search warrant when police asked permission to enter the church. When they tried to explain, Davisson physically resisted, according to police.

QUARRY FLEES

When police finally pushed Davisson aside 15 minutes later, there was no trace of the gang.

Davisson, 22, from Van Nuys, Los Angeles County, has been working at his own expense with youth groups at Hunter's Point, seminary officials said. He is in his second of three years of study at the seminary, after graduation from Lewis and Clark College, Portland, Ore.

Bombers Try To Seal Off Reds' Main Port

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. bombers staged their most massive raid of the war against Haiphong in an attempt to seal North Vietnam's largest port and block the movement of the mountains of war supplies stacked on the docks, American spokesmen said today. They said Navy jets struck a record eight-tenths of a mile from the city's center.

The 7th Fleet pilots attacked a railroad yard, warehouse complex and two bridges all inside Haiphong, North Vietnam's second largest city, in yesterday's raiding, the spokesmen said.

Communist defenders trying to save their main import funnel, fired Surface to Air Missiles (SAMS) that missed the Navy jets and exploded near three freighters in the harbor.

U.S. spokesmen said the pilots did not attack the sprawling dock area itself, one of the most tempting targets banned to American bombers by orders from Washington.

But the Navy pilots divebombed the storehouses, the rail lines and the bridges that move the supplies imported into Haiphong, which handles the majority of war goods flowing by sea into North Vietnam.

U.S. officials frankly labeled the massive air assault an attempt to "seal off" Haiphong.

In other action Amercia's largest bombers today smashed at a Communist buildup threatening U.S. Marine forts on South Vietnam's northern border.

U.S. Air Force B52 Stratofortresses rained hundreds of tons of bombs in two raids against units of 35,000 North Vietnamese troops poised for invasion in or near the North-South Vietnam border Demilitarized Zone(DMZ).

The B52s followed up pinpoint dive bombing by smaller U.S. jets after a vain attempt by about 3,000 North Vietnamese troops to seize the Marine fort of Con Thien. The battle area lay in the zone U.S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has ordered a defensive barrier constructed.

Viet Cong ground fire downed a helicopter ambulance and a troop-carrying helicopter was shattered when it landed on a guerrilla land mine, U.S. officials said. They said two Americans were killed and 22 wounded.

U.S. strike planes reported killing at least 68 guerrillas in South Vietnam yesterday.

Teacher Pickets, Negroes In Clash

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK — The nation's largest public school system remained crippled today as striking teachers paced sidewalks instead of classrooms. Officials organized makeshift classes, some staffed by parents, for the city's one million pupils.

Albert Shanker, head of the striking teachers union, vowed the work stoppage would continue "until our demands are met." When the fall term opened yesterday, more than 40,000 teachers defied a court order and boycotted classrooms.

Nearly 400,000 youngsters also stayed away.

In East Harlem this morning, angry Negro parents clashed with picketing teachers. Police said about 20 East Harlem residents charged an all-white picket line and "tried to get them to rip off their signs."

It was the first report of violence in the New York City school dispute. One man was arrested, but no one injured, police added.

The regular teachers who did show up for work were joined by parents and other volunteers, and Mayor John V. Lindsay appealed to college students to "come in and help teach."

One of the volunteers was H. Rap Brown, the Black Power advocate, who showed up at an intermediate school in East Harlem and said he would teach a class.

No negotiations were scheduled in the stalemate.

Shanker, president of the 49,000-member AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers, is due in State Supreme Court today to show cause why a temporary injunction forbidding the walkout should not be made permanent.

The action was expected to lead to a test of the new state law forbidding strikes by public employe unions. The union said last night it would make a legal counterattack and seek to force the city to close all the schools until the dispute is settled.

In all, 740 of the city's 900 schools were picketed. The strike drew the support of AFL-

Aluminum Plant Blast Fatal To 4, Injures 40

MUSCLE SHOALS, Ala. (UPI)—An explosion burst a 1,000-foot-long metal casting building "like a tin can" late last night, killing four workers and injuring at least 40 others at the huge Reynolds Metals aluminum plant.

The mighty blast blew out a 200-foot concrete section of the "cast house" wall, snapping and twisting steel beams and shaking the ground beneath the surrounding towns of Muscle Shoals, Tuscumbia, Sheffield and Florence.

Three of the workers died on the spot, burned beyond recognition or torn apart by the explosion. The fourth died in a hospital early today. One of six persons hospitalized was on the critical list.

The explosion came at 11:27 p.m., during the midnight shift change when only 75 to 80 persons were in the building. About 40 suffered superficial injuries and were treated at first aid stations.

Ironworks foreman Herman Sockwell said he was in the parking lot beside the building when the roof of the building "went up like a tin can," followed by a burst of flame that leaped 400 feet in the air.

The blast and the roar of flame, Sockwell said, was followed by a "sickening silence."

"I ran to the building but I couldn't see much for the dust," Sockwell said. "It was horrible."

Many workers wandered around the sprawling grounds in shock.

Bob Holloway, a Reynolds official, said the tragedy resulted when a natural gas furnace exploded in the building, where molten aluminum is cast into ingots prior to being rolled into sheets. The reason why the furnace exploded was still undetermined, Holloway said.

The plant employs about 5,000 persons.

The dead workers were identified as Charles Creekmore, 53, Florence; Charles Emburg, 30, Sheffield; Marvin Bullard, Muscle Shoals, and John Daily, Florence, who died in a hospital early today.

Fire trucks rushed to the plant from the four towns within a six mile radius.

Pay Warning On Medi-Cal

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan warned physicians, dentists and pharmacists and other medical men today against giving contested Medi-Cal services to the poor—even though a judge has permanently halted his cutbacks in the program of medical assistance.

Reagan said they have been warned "they won't be paid" if the administration's appeal of the decision by Sacramento Superior Court Judge Irving Perluss is sustained by a higher court.

Perluss Friday ruled the $210 million in cutbacks are illegal, and he issued a permanent injunction against them.

San Francisco Tax Rate Set At $8.80

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Board of Supervisors adopted a tax rate yesterday of $8.80 per $100 of asssessed valuation.

The rate is $1.81 less than last year but still will mean additional tax collections because of greater assessed valuations.

Stray Missile Bombards Mexico

WHITE SANDS MISSILE RANGE, N. M. (UPI)—An unarmed Army Pershing missile fired from a training site in Utah overshot White Sands test range today and landed near a small village in Mexico.

U. S. officials said the missile's second stage and nonexplosive nose cone landed 10 miles west of El Cuero, Mexico, a village directly south of Van Horn, Tex.

White Sands officials said the U. S. government asked the Mexican government for permission to send an unarmed helicopter to look for the missile.

Discussion, No Agreement On West Marin's Density

Marin County supervisors and planning commissioners discussed West Marin density and transportation problems in general for an hour and a half this morning and broke up as divided as ever.

But planning Commissioner Margaret Azevedo said she did gather from the conversation that the supervisors who voted for more density in West Marin are willing to go for some cluster type concentration instead of spreading density uniformly throughout West Marin. (See also planning commission story, page 8.)

"If density is to increase, how would you spread it?" asked Mrs. Azevedo at the outset.

"I don't think the board of supervisors wants to steer the planning commission on how it should be spread," replied Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen. "They left it open so that you will have freedom of thinking."

Supervisor Peter H. Behr, who, along with Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, voted against increasing density, warned against destruction of the rural atmosphere in West Marin.

Supervisor John F. McInnis said the area is large enough to allow some flexibility in development. He said density concentrations are possible and specifics can be worked out by planning as in every other area of the county. McInnis said the

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Greek King Disavows Junta

WASHINGTON (AP) — King Constantine of Greece, meeting with President Johnson and key congressional leaders, has apparently disassociated himself from the actions of the military junta now leading his country.

Constantine

"What is your government going to do about —," one senator began to ask at a private session with members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

"It's not my government," the king shot back, according to senators present.

The senators said they were impressed with the young monarch's plea for time and patience while he tries to revive constitutional democracy in Greece.

During an informal visit with the President, the king apparently was unaware of a small group of Greek Americans across the street from the White House, demonstrating against the Greek military regime.

Arsenal Case Bail Reinstated

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — William E. Thoresen III, a millionaire weapons fancier charged with illegal possession of a 70-ton arsenal, was readmitted to $52,000 bail yesterday.

Thoresen

Judge Albert C. Wollenberg, in U.S. District Court, permitted bail after defense attorney J. W. Ehrlish presented a telegram saying assault and bribery charges against Thoresen had been dropped in Las Vegas, Nev., because of lack of evidence.

Thoresen had been charged there with beating a woman in his hotel room Aug. 21 and with offering two detectives $10,000 to forget the incident.

A spokesman for the Clark County district attorney's office said the charges were dismissed Friday after additional police reports showed insufficient evidence. "If no crime was committed in the first instance, no bribery was possible," he said.

The judge set Monday for Thoresen and his wife, Louise, to plead here to charges of illegal possession of arms.

Arabs Kill Briton

ADEN (AP) — A British marine officer died today of wounds received when his patrol was fired on by Arab nationalists last night.

The officer was leading his men through a colony of shacks on a mountainside at Maalla when they came under heavy fire. He was the 56th British serviceman killed in Aden since the emergency was declared in December 1963.

Crackdown On Reds

BANGKOK (AP) — Thailand's government has proclaimed new laws it calls "swift, drastic, surgical strokes" against Communist infiltrators in the northeastern provinces.

Interior Minister Praphas Charusathien announced that suspected terrorists will be arrested and suspected premises searched without warrants. The military can suspend the right of habeas corpus, remove the population from one area to another and try suspects by field courts-martial.

Express Escape

VIENNA (UPI)—The Orient Express, setting for many a movie thriller, provided an escape route for a 34-year-old Romanian fleeing his Communist homeland, Austrian officials said today. The man sneaked aboard the train in Arad, Romania, and spent three days hiding in a water container atop one of the cars before he reached safety in Austria, border police said.

'Second Vietnam'

ORAN, Algeria (UPI)—American black power advocate Stokely Carmichael told a news conference in this provincial Algerian town that American Negroes "must provoke a second Vietnam in the United States." Carmichael was returning to Algiers today where he is a guest of the ruling political party in Algiers.

Car Price Hike May Affect Detroit Talks

DETROIT (AP)—An increase in car prices was a new factor n auto labor-management relations today as negotiators prepared to resume bargaining between the struck Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers.

Chrysler Corp., citing increased costs of labor and new health and safety items required by federal law, yesterday became the first of the four major U.S. automakers to announce a price increase. It said 1968 models would cost an average of $133 or 4.6 per cent more than 1967s.

General Motors, American Motors and Ford are also preparing higher price listings on new models but it was not immediately known when their prices will be announced.

Ford and the UAW have agreed to return to the bargaining table Friday in an effort to end a six-day-old strike by 160,000 Ford workers.

The union has rejected nearly identical offers made by the Big Three. One GM official estimated the original offer would add $4 an hour to the $4.70 an hour in wages and fringe benefits the average worker now draws.

The Big Three offers included raising the current average straight time hourly rate of $3.41 an hour by 13 cents the first year and by 2.8 per cent each successive year.

The strike is not expected to delay Ford's price announcement since the company has 85,000 new models ready for introduction by dealers Sept. 22.

Teen-Agers Deny Murder Accusations

UKIAH (AP)—Two 18-year-old accused killers have entered pleas of innocent and innocent by reason of insanity to a six-count indictment charging murder, attempted murder, kidnaping and rape.

Thomas E. Braun and Leonard E. Maine, both of Ritzville, Wash., made their pleas in Mendocino County Superior Court. They are expected to go to trial Nov. 6. Judge Wayne P. Burke set that as a tentative date and said he would rule either then or shortly before on the request by defense attorneys for separate trials.

Braun and Maine are accused of shooting to death Timothy Luce, 17-year -old son of the Lake County district attorney, on Aug. 21 and the abduction, assault with intent to kill, and rape of 16-year-old Susan Bartholomei.

Luce was found shot in a vineyard near Ukiah, and Susan was found beside a Sierra foothill roadside, east of Sonora, after she had been driven 200 miles to the scene, shot several times, and dumped down a roadside grade.

White Hostility Halts Milwaukee Marchers

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Negroes and whites marched in separate bands last night and met in a tense but brief confrontation on the nearly all-white south side.

Angry whites rained bottles and rocks at the 500 Negro open housing marchers led by a white Roman Catholic priest, the Rev. James E. Groppi. There were a number of injuries among the marchers, none serious.

A white man was killed in a shooting incident three blocks from where Father Groppi's demonstrators marched. Police said they believed the shooting was unrelated to the demonstrations which have gone on for 15 nights.

At least 13 persons, most of them members of a group of 1,500 "white power" counter-demonstrators, were arrested. Police stopped the whites, most of them teen-agers, at the fringe of the Negro inner core on the north side.

The predominantly Negro open housing group crossed the long 16th Street bridge into the heavily Polish south side and walked several blocks before turning at the request of police and going back to their headquarters, St. Boniface Roman Catholic Church on the north side.

Halfway into the south side, whites, separated from the marchers by a cordon of police, threw rocks and bottles. Two large store windows were broken.

"If we had gone any further, they would have killed us," Father Groppi said. "The police couldn't control them. We will go to the south side again tonight."

While the marchers gathered at St. Boniface, hundreds of whites rallied in Humboldt Park on the far south side.

Theodore Kolodzyk, 25, organized the white power rally and said he wanted no violence.

India, Red China Continue Tibetan Border Clashes

NEW DELHI (AP) — Intermittent firing continued through the night between Indian and Red Chinese troops on the mountainous border between Tibet and Sikkim, a Defense Ministry spokesman said today.

The spokesman said he was unable to give any reason for the clashes which India claims were provoked by the Chinese. "It is perhaps part of the frustrition in the wake of the so-called cultural revolution," he said.

CHINA GROWLS

Peking accused India of starting shooting yesterday and threatened "crushing blows" against any invasion.

Recalling the defeat Chinese troops administered to Indian forces in their border war five years ago, a Chinese government note delivered to the Indian Embassy in Peking said: "Do not misjudge the situation and repeat your mistake of 1962."

MEETING ASKED

India proposed an immediate cease-fire and a meeting of the local military commanders "to reduce the tension and prevent the situation from assuming a very serious aspect."

The clash occurred at Nathu La Pass, a Himalayan ridge about 20 miles from Gangtok, the Sikkimese capital where the former Hope Cooke, an American socialite, reigns with her husband the Maharajah Palden Thondup Namgyal.

Red China said 36 of its frontier guards were killed or wounded in the clash, the second outbreak of fighting at the pass in five days.

Unofficial accounts in New Delhi said eight Indians were wounded and a lesser number killed.

Detroit Fire Chief Defends National Guard

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Detroit fire chief has defended the behavior of National Guardsmen during his city's big July riot.

Charles Quinlan, 60, who took over as chief less than two months before the outbreak, told the 2,000 members of the International Association of Fire Chiefs at Civic Auditorium yesterday that 84 firemen were hospitalized, one killed by a sniper and another electrocuted while under fire.

MEASURES ASKED

Quinlan said he wants national guardsmen riding on his trucks in case "heaven forbid") of a future riot, and he also said firemen should have "flak suits," more protective helmets, and bullet-proof glass on their vehicles.

He also called for a federal law making it a felony for anyone to interfere with a fireman in his performance of his duty. He also called on the government to launch a $1 billion program for emergency fire and communications equipment which could be called in at times of riot and disaster.

But Quinlan drew the line at proposals that firemen carry firearms. He's against that idea, regardless of what provocation firefighters face.

LYNCH'S VIEWS

Calif. Atty. Gen. Thomas Lynch meanwhile urged the nation's fire chiefs to join local police in long-range community relations programs.

Lynch credited the "cool smmer" which San Francisco enjoyed to the city's police-community relations program.

Reagan Suddenly Replaces State Public Works Chief

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Samuel B. Nelson, a Los Angeles engineer, today assumed the $25,000-a-year post of state Public Works Director.

In a surprise move, Gov. Ronald Regan yesterday fired John Erreca, a Democrat and a Brown appointee.

The abrupt dismissal came as a "shock" to Erreca.

Erreca told newsmen he learned of the dismissal in a note from the governor he received yesterday morning.

"He just thanked me for my services," Erreca said. "I would say it was quite a shock."

But Paul Beck, the governor's press secretary, said the sudden firing of Erreca was "normal procedure with any department head" who serves at the governor's pleasure and not for a definite term.

How to unlock the secret power in your mind!
Amazingly effective new teaching methods now enable you to achieve a computerized memory and remarkably fast reading speed. No gimmicks involved. Tested and proven with thousands of students by Maximilian Spurlock, noted teacher and lecturer, who has earned the title of "Max the Memory Man."
Astound your friends with a "magical" demonstration of newly unleashed prowess!
In a few short weeks you can entertain friends by quickly scanning a list of words, numbers, or tray of objects, and recall them with a high-speed "Photographic memory." Within a short time you can boost your reading speed and comprehension enormously.
Yes. You can do it!
The methods developed by Max Spurlock were originally devised to help deprived persons and school dropouts in the anti-poverty program. Known methods were simplified and improved. Many students were advanced one full grade level per month in reading ability alone! Years of practice, refinement and success stand behind the new methods used by Max Spurlock. Learning is so natural and logical that children only twelve years of age can benefit from these unique—and exclusive—courses.
Why delay? Your first lesson is absolutely free!
You don't have to invest a penny until you've actually observed these startling techniques in action. Attend the first classroom meeting free. Come and see how Max Spurlock can help you with the 8 week memory course, or 8 week reading improvement course. You will not be obligated in any way, and no high-pressure sales tactics of any sort will be applied. Why hesitate? Now is always the very best time to dramatically increase your own mental capacity. Sinatra Sands Scuffle Called 'Exaggerated'

COMBINED AP & UPI

HOLLYWOOD — Reports that Frank Sinatra's weekend break with the Sands hotel in Las Vegas was marked by a scuffle with hotel executive Carl Cohen after an outbreak of anger on the singer's part, supposedly over gaming credit withdrawal, are "highly exaggerated," says Sinatra's agent Jim Mahoney.

Reports from the Nevada gambling capital said Sinatra lost two teeth in the row.

Mahoney said here last night that Sinatra was "out on the town for the evening and I don't think he'd be out anywhere if he was in the condition that some reports have described him as being in."

Guests at the Sands said that after Sinatra finished his show at the hotel at 1:30 a.m. Saturday he scurried around in an electric baggage cart, ramming it into a heavy cigarette butt receptable and sending the receptable crashing through a plate glass window.

Al Freeman, assistant to Jack Entrater, president of the hotel, said the management "has no comment."

Whatever happened during the weekend, it marked the end of Sinatra's long and lucrative association with the Sands.

Shortly after the last performance early Saturday, a Sinatra spokesman announced that the singer-actor had signed a three-year contract with Caesars Palace, a rival casino and hotel on the Las Vegas strip.

The deal with Caesars Palace calls for two engagements a year by Sinatra for the next three years.

For the past 16 years, Sinatra has appeared in Las Vegas exclusively at the Sands.

Lot Sale Sought In Marin City

Steps to allow sale of 12 lots in Marin City will be considered by the Marin County Redevelopment Agency at 7:30 p.m. today at the Marin County Housing Authority office, 429 Drake Avenue, Marin City.

To allow the sales, the agency must amend its land disposition agreement with California Development Co. The agency will also hear a report on California Development's plans for financing commercial facilities, developing the Marin City high school site and building houses and townhouses in the Marin City redevelopment area.

The agency will re-convene at 8:30 p.m. as the Marin County Housing Authority board. Among items to be discussed is a proposed study of potential uses for the Marin City school site.

Poles Reject De Gaulle Plan For Alliance

WARSAW (AP) — Seemingly weary and disappointed, President Charles de Gaulle of France completed his political talks with Poland's Communist leaders today and left for Paris at the end of his six-day state visit.

Polish officials had rejected de Gaulle's proposals that Poland join France in loosening the rival East-West blocs that dominate Europe.

Polish President Edward Ochab, Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz and Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka saw de Gaulle off at the airport. But there were no speeches.

POLISH VIEWS

A Polish spokesman, emphasizing that his country was fully satisfied with de Gaulle's visit, said French and Polish officials had found agreement in the areas of European security and the Middle East. He said differences about the methods of settling certain problems could easily disappear.

The spokesman said Ochab, in a final, 50-minute session, had told de Gaulle that his visit "exceeded the results we hoped for" and opened a new stage in Polish-French relations.

Gomulka told the French president publicly in the Polish Parliament as well as privately yesterday that Poland's basic guarantee of security is its alliance with the Soviet Union. He rejected de Gaulle's statement that West Germany has "repudiated its misdeeds" and repeated Polish demands for a basic change in Bonn's policies.

DISAPPOINTMENT

De Gaulle's aides appeared most disappointed at Gomulka's reaffirmation of a tough line against West Germany and his sharp rebuttal to de Gaulle's attempts to set up a special Polish-French relationship.

De Gaulle extolled Polish-French friendship and solidarity as "comparable to no other in Europe." But Gomulka said the pre-World War II Polish-French alliance "did not work well and, what is most important, it failed to save both Poland and France from disaster, from defeat and Nazi occupation. It failed to tame the German madness. Poland's destiny was decided on the Eastern Front."

Reports circulated that Gomulka sharpened his Parliament speech at the last moment after de Gaulle's weekend speeches in provincial cities aimed at persuading Poland to rely more on itself and less on Moscow.

Prize-Winning Dogs Reported As Stolen

Albert J. Holzmark of 201 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere, today reported the theft of his son's two prize-winning boxer dogs from 250 Stuyvesant Avenue, Sleepy Hollow last night.

Holzmark said his family was visiting the home of Robert Seale when the theft occurred.

CIO President George Meany and of two nationally known Negro leaders, A. Philip Randolph and Bayard Rustin.

The federation is seeking a salary scale for its teachers of $7,500 to $18,000 a year. A mediation panel recommended a $6,600 to $13,600 scale, which was accepted by the school board. The old contract ranged from $5,400 to $11,950.

Elsewhere in the nation:

In East St. Louis, Ill., teachers ratified an agreement with the school board, ending a dispute that left most of that city's 24,000 school children without teachers for two weeks.

The agreement provides that a three-man panel will advise whether money is available to finance pay raises of from $150 to $900 a year demanded by the teachers.

In Detroit, the nation's fifth largest city, a walkout that has extended summer vacations for more than 300,000 students was reported "not too far away from settlement." But in Paducah, Ky., and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the outlook was bleak for early settlement of prolonged work stoppages by disgruntled teachers.

Baltimore's 8,800 teachers vote today on a new contract approved yesterday by negotiators from the Baltimore Teachers Union. The teachers had threatened a tomorrow walkout if a new pact were not agreed upon today.

well as the swimming pool. Lions should not be included, he said, because it is outside the city limits and is being considered for development by the county. Baget also suggested that the city work more closely with the Novato Unified School District since three park sites are also school sites.

From the audience, William J. Olsen urged the council to decide "what it needs" and "get busy and try to sell the bond issue." Olsen added, "I volunteer by services" and someone replied, "Get his name."

Thomas J. Keena, also in the audience, told the council he owns the 20 acres of land on McClay Road proposed for McClay Park and that its selection was a complete "surprise" to him. "How do you know it's available?" Keena asked, adding he has paid taxes on the property for 57 years. Keena's wife said she didn't think 20 acres is available but that 17 might be.

Minor Injuries In Bridge Wreck

A mother and her two children suffered minor injuries today when her westbound car ran into the center divider on Highway 37 west of the Petaluma River bridge and overturned.

Cynthia Frances Pierce, 20, of 69 Bayo Vista Way, San Rafael, told the California Highway Patrol she swerved to avoid a small animal on the road, causing the accident at 2:20 a.m.

She was treated for a bruised left leg at Novato General Hospital. Her infant son, Garrett, 10 months old, had care for a bump on his head and face cut. Her daughter, Jacquelyn, 2, was treated for a bloody nose and head bruise.

Belvedere Council Meeting To Move

Belvedere City Council meeting originally scheduled for Whitaker Hall tonight, will be in the San Francisco Yacht Club dining room at 98 Beach Road, according to City Mgr. William L. Cavalli.

The council meets at 8 p.m.

Mill Valley Board Hires 15 Teachers

The Mill Valley School District board last night approved hiring 15 new teachers for the 1967-68 school year at salaries ranging from $10,257 to $6,477.

New teachers are Mary K. Rossi, Alto School, $6,477; Helene Parsons, speech therapist, $9,486; Gail Retka, languages, $7,035; Lillian Fong, Park School, $7,212; Lyda Stokes, Park, $8,577; Sharon Jestedt, Tamalpais Valley, $9,312; Juana Halper, Strawberry Point, $7,212; Audrey Furze, Park, $10,257; Martha Luke, Park, $7,035; Gretchen Schaub, Alto, $7,245; Jane Teitelbaum, Homestead, $6,477; Carol Lowitz, Homestead, $7,596; Carol Malkin, Old Mill, $7,596; Judith Williams, Marin Terrace, $7,212; Judith Grubbs, Old Mill, $6,861.

The board was scheduled to sign an architects' agreement for the new middle school with Campbell, Wong and Associates, but postponed the signing until the school site is chosen.

The Mill Valley School District Board also:

HIRING —Hired Gene Stocking as secretary, Thomas Ellerbee as groundsman and Calvin Collins as custodian.

RESIGNATIONS Accepted resignations of two teachers at Edna Maguire School, Mrs. Sylvia Palmer and Mrs. Antoinette de Angelis.

HANDICAPPED —Heard a report by Supt. James A. Collins that the program for educationally handicapped children has expanded this year to two classes at Strawberry Point School. Another 50 students are attending part-time, he said.

TESTS — Agreed to pay the county school department $1,175 to conduct hearing tests for district students this year.

of its budget" on only two administrative positions.

In the letter, Friedman called upon the citizens to "pressure the city council to save face before the bubble bursts."

No member of the council was willing to speculate as to what steps the group would take to reestablish the position after Nelseon leaves.

"Everything is up in the air," Councilman Frank J. Eggar said. "It took all of us by surprise."

Mayor George A. Pagni indicated the council will discuss the matter at its adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. Sept 18. (Other Fairfax City Council stories, page 32.)

Marin City Fire Rash Continues

A rash of grass fires continued for the third day yesterday in Marin City. Seven were reported in 10 hours.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said today the fires were set by up to a dozen unidentified children 12 to 15 years old. None caused any damage, he said.

Fire calls started at 10:12 a.m. when a small grass fire was reported behind an apartment at 59 Cole Drive, and continued to 8:02 p.m. with fires burning from four to 1,750 square feet.

Between 7:14 and 7:50 p.m. three small grass fires were started near the intersection of Cole Drive and Drake Avenue.

Sheriff Deputy's House Is Burgled

Burglars ransacked the home of Sheriff's Inspector William R. Bradford at 17 Hart Avenue, San Rafael, between 3 p.m. Sunday and 8 p.m. yesterday, escaping with clothing, household appliances and more than $2,000 worth of guns from his collection, police said.

Police said the home was entered through a locked bedroom window after a screen was cut.

HEARING

mitted during testimony yesterday that he falsely listed the Pacific Gas and Electric Co., and Harry Bigarani, secretary of Painters District Council 8, as work experience on his application. But Williams testified he found several other bridge painters whose applications listed no previous experience.

Wilkins said he picked up some knowledge of the work and apparently was in no danger of losing his $1,078-a-month job until March, 1966, seven months after he was hired, when the union sent out Haugabook, who had painting experience.

Haugabook was not hired and he filed a discrimination complaint against the bridge management. The Commission called a hearing on Haugabook's complaint and Wilkins was induced by the bridge management to turn in a penciled statement that he had falsified his application.

Wilkins was then fired, but after one day of Haugabook's hearing, the FEPC reached an agreement with the bridge management. Haugabook was to be hired and Wilkins was to get his job back.

A third Negro, Leroy Riley, went to work as a painter. Then on April 28 of this year, Haugabook and Wilkins were fired. The bridge management said it had decided they were incompetent.

Williams testified yesterday afternoon that most of the bridge painters are put on permanent status after six months, but Wilkins and Haugabook were never made permanent. Riley still works for the bridge and has been made permanent.

He testified that the management began keeping work rating sheets on all the painters in March, 1966, and continued the practice until December, when it was halted. Memos on Haugabook's and Wilkins' work continued, however, he said.

Pharmacists Due Drug War Talks

Marin pharmacists will have a chance to hear of the program on drug abuse planned for Marin schools at a meeting Thursday of the Marin County Pharmaceutical Association.

The director of the program being set up by the Marin County Board of Education, Dr. Sanford Feinglass, will speak at the meeting at 7:30 p.m. at Dominic's restaurant, San Rafael.

Others who will speak are Dr. William M. Lamers, author of the booklet "Drug Abuse and the Teen-ager"; Harvey Teague, chief of the juvenile division of the Marin County SHeriff's Department; and David Adler, a senior student at the University of California School of Pharmacy, Berkeley, who will tell of student offers to aid in telling Marin teen-agers of the drug problem.

14-Year-Old Novato Girl Is Missing

Ruth Louise Holdrige, 14 ,of 186 San Carlos Way, Novato, was still missing from her home today after leaving about 7:30 p.m. yesterday, police said.

She left home following a family dispute, her mother, Mrs. Nolan Holdrige, reported to police. Ruth is described as five feet, two inches tall, weighing 130 pounds with brown hair and eyes. When she left home, she was wearing blue pants and a blue sweat shirt. This is the third time that she has run away from home since July 10, police said.

Manual On Agenda

Tomales Joint Union High School District trustees will be presented the rough draft of the district's first teacher's manual at a board meeting to be held at 8 p.m., Thursday, in the high school, Supt. Anthony Matulich reported today.

Haiti Peaks Sap Beulah; Cuba Next?

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Haitian mountain peaks reaching 8,000 feet into Hurrican Beulah tamed the once-mighty storm to 75 miles an hour today but not before Beulah raised its Carribean death toll to 18 and headed for the tourist resorts in Jamaica.

A slight turn to the northwest was forecast. Such a turn could affect Cuba, said forecaster Joseph Pellissier.

Two Atlantic hurricanes, Doria and Chloe, remained far from land.

Chloe, moving west from far out in the Atlantic, was said to pose no threat to land for the next two days.

Doria, a "minimal hurricane" centered 500 miles east of Norfolk, Va., was moving to the east at about 14 m.p.h. She was still kicking up the seas causing heavy surf from Massachusetts to Cape Hatteras, N.C.

Yesterday, 200,000 pople were evacuated to emergency shelters from the exposed Barahona Peninsula on the south shore of Hispaniola, the island shared by Haiti and the Dominican Republic. A report from Barahona said 1,000 were homeless there.

Two deaths were reported from the Barahona Peninsula. A man was killed Sunday in Puerto Rico and 15 others died last week in the Martinique area of the east Caribbean as Beulah was forming.

Damage to the nearly mature crops of coffee, bananas, sugar cane and cocoa on the Barahona Peninsula was expected to be severe.

Council Hires Bianchi On High-Rise Tax

The Larkspur City Council at a closed meeting last night decided to hire San Rafael attorney Albert Bianchi as special city attorney for matters relating to the Tamalpais retirement home, and asked Bianchi to have a report ready for the Oct. 4 council meeting on the legal steps to be taken for action against the Tamalpais.

The council has been concerned that the Tamalpais retirement home may be tax exempt when it opens and that this may be a violation of the center's use permit.

Bianchi is associated with the San Rafael firm of Bagley, Bernt, Bianchi and Sheeks.

Redwood Empire Mill Destroyed

EUREKA (AP) — Fire destroyed the F. M. Crawford Lumber Co. mill at Alderpoint last night.

The California Division of Forestry, which fought the blaze for two and one-half hours until the early morning hours today, estimated loss at $600,000.

Twenty firemen with five fire trucks saved the planer mill, decks of logs and finished lumber.

The mill is near Garberville, 75 miles south of Eureka.

Downtown Plans

Novato city councilmen will receive a report from the downtown committee containing recommendations for the future of downtown Novato at their 8 p.m. meeting today in the community house. Retention of trees in the proposed new Marin Golf and Country Club Estates will also be discussed.

OBITUARIES

MRS. DOROTHY McLAREN

Mrs. Dorothy McLaren, mother of Mrs. Donna Holmes of Mill Valley, died yesterday in a Sebastopol hospital after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. McLaren, 54, was born in Occidental, Sonoma County, and had resided in San Francisco, where for 17 years she was a sales lady and bookkeeper at the City of Paris.

She is survived by her daughter; by her husband, Donald McLaren of San Francisco, and by a sister, Florence Morelli of Sebastopol.

Friends may call at O'Leary Funeral Home Chapel, Sebastopol, until 4 p.m. tomorrow when they may call at St. Philip's Roman Catholic Church, Occidental. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the church. A mass will be recited at 10 a.m. Thursday at the church. Interment will be in Druid's Cemetery, Occidental.

ANTOINETTE FERRARIO

Graveside service for Mrs. Antoinette T. Ferrario of San Rafael will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

Mrs. Ferrario, 84, died Sept. 2 in a local hospital after a long illness. She was born in Italy and came to Marin 61 years ago where she resided in Mill Valley and later in San Rafael, at 1211 Tamalpais Avenue.

She is survived by a niece and grand nephew.

DENSITY

West Marin master plan can be the beginning point for new ideas to be added as the area develops. He saw no need to scrap the plan just because the density is raised to 1.15 units per acre.

Planning Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. pointed out that higher density in the master plan will not necessarily start a trend toward even higher densities. He said experience in the rest of the county, where the standard lot is 7,500 square feet, has been toward larger lots, not smaller. "I don't think we have to be concerned about hard and fast precedents being set," said Schultz.

The group then discussed transportation, with planning commissioner William F. Upton leading off. Dr. Upton said that various new forms of transportation such as water travel should be considered to preserve Marin's environment.

Supervisors Chairman Storer, who has been a staunch advocate of ferryboats, said he cannot see how Marin's environment can be conserved by the addition of a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge and increasing the congestion of automobile traffic.

Supervisor Kettenhofen urged that the county proceed immediately with some agreement on a route for Highway 17 to connect Highway 101 with Point Reyes.

Supervisor William Gnoss predicted that a second bridge from San Francisco to a point north of San Rafael would be the best solution in the long run because the biggest increase in population will come in the Novato and Santa Rosa areas.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY
Natural Marin Beauty
for those who've loved our county

The beauty of Mount Tamalpais Cemetery is typically Marin. Here in a setting of soft, rolling hills and lovely vistas are Marin's native trees and shrubs, accented by beautiful lawns and flowers.

For over 90 years leading Marin families have chosen Mount Tamalpais as a final resting place. One good reason is the substantial endowment fund which assures the care and maintenance of this cemetery in the years ahead.

We invite your inspection of this peaceful site. Our staff is always ready to answer your questions and describe Mount Tamalpais facilities

Tam Trustees Launch Search For Architect

The Tamalpais High School District board last night made a slight start toward choosing an architect for one of the district's three building projects for which architects must be chosen.

Among the building projects which will be financed if the district's $12,315,000 bond issue passes in the Oct. 10 election are addition to Tamalpais High School estimated at $800,000, a fine arts complex at Redwood High School estimated at $470,000 and remodeling of the district office, estimated to cost $60,000. Architects have already been chosen for all other planned building projects.

The board decided to send a letter and questionnaire for screening to 34 architects, for the Tamalpais project, then went into closed session to discuss hiring architects for the Drake and district office projects.

Board Chairman Dr. John C. Siemens said the board made no decision during or after the closed session, so the letter will specify only the Tamalpais project.

Siemens said a decision on selecting architects for the other two projects may be made at the next board meeting Monday. He gave no explanation for the different treatment of the projects, and Supt. Chester G. Carlisle was unavailable for comment this morning.

The Tamalpais High School District board also:

ENDORSEMENTS — Learned the Tamalpais District Teachers' Association, the Tamalpais High School Parent-Teacher Association, the Marin Labor Council and the Leagues of Women Voters of Southern and Central Marin have endorsed the district's $12,315,000 bond issue.

ENROLLMENT — Learned enrollment exceeded estimates at Sir Francis Drake and Redwood high schools but was lower than expected at Tamalpais High. At Drake, spring enrollment was 1,659, the fall estimate was 6,696 and 1,733 actually enrolled. At Redwood, spring enrollment was 2,166, the fall estimate was 2,300 and 2,328 enrolled. At Tamalpais, spring enrollment was 1,758, the fall estimate was 1,825 and 1,715 actually enrolled.

STAFF — Hired teachers Robert L. Sargent at $10,690 a year, Geraldine Lauro at a salary to be set, Valeria V. Gold at $8,045 and Richard P. Fregulia at $8,950, and granted maternity leave to Mrs. Kathleen Schnabel, bringing district teaching staff to a total of 329, 26 more than last year.

BUSES — Approved renewal of a contract with Greyhound Lines, Inc. to provide transportation for students, and decided to explore the possibility of a study of transportation for the planned San Geronimo High School.

SUMMER SCHOOL —Heard a report on summer school programs and learned that 996 students had attended, compared to 990 last year.

66 Per Cent Drop In Measles Cases

Marin County reported 66 per cent decline this year in cases of measles, 26 cases as compared to 76 last year, according to the state Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

A spokesman for the department said measles can be wiped out completely if parents have their kindergarten through second grade children vaccinated against the disease and said information regarding vaccination may be obtained through the county health department or a private physician.

Bolinas Fire District Board Decides Merger Best Policy

The Bolinas Fire Protection District directors last night agreed to seek permission of the Local Agency Formation Commission for merger with Bolinas Community Public Utility District.

Chairman Manuel S. Peters said the application will be made today.

The utility district is itself the result of the merger earlier this year of two utility districts.

If the LAFC approves the merger proposal after a public hearing, Marin County supervisors would hold hearings and order a vote in the districts on the merger. The merger would take approximately three months if all steps went smoothly, according to Deputy County Counsel Thomas Hendricks.

Operation of the district would be cheaper and more efficient if the two were merged, Peters said.

Patrick Firm Accepts $35,000 Penalty Judgment

William Penn Patrick's Holiday Magic Cosmetic firm didn't admit to misleading advertising ing Friday in consenting to a $35,000 penalty judgment in Los Angeles Superior Court.

There was no fraud involved, according to an attorney for the firm. An Independent-Journal story yesterday using the word "fraud" was in error. The I-J carried a United Press International story for Los Angeles which contained the phrase "consumer fraud."

The suit had charged the firm with misleading and false representations in newspaper ads recruiting distributors.

A spokesman for the company told the Independent-Journal yesterday that the firm had accepted the judgment "rather than put a lot of our distributors out of business" during a court trial.

Thomas McDonald, assistant attorney general in Los Angeles, confirmed that "the technical language of the case meant that the firm stipulated to the final judgment of the civil penalty without admitting guilt to the complaint."

Ballet School Plans Classes In Tiburon

The Evelyn Wenger Ballet School, under the direction of Evelyn Wenger Welch, will offer special ballet classes Thursdays at the Tiburon Peninsula Club, open to member and non-members, starting Thursday.

Mrs. Welch, a Tiburon resident, will offer classes for children from pre-school to teens.

Woman Says Killer Made Her Assist

MODESTO (AP) — A woman arrested in Modesto on an Oregon homicide warrant says she and her husband were forced by a transient to help dispose of a slain man's body.

Speaking to reporters Monday was Mrs. Otis Harris, 39, held in connection with the fatal stabbing Sept. 6 in Jackson County, Oregon, of Max L. Wolfe, 70.

She and Allen Lee Long, 23, the transient, were named in first degree murder warrants after Wolfe's body was found Sept. 7 on a roadside near Talent, which is five miles south of Medford.

She said Long stabbed Wolfe in the neck while she was driving the victim to his home at White City, Ore., for which he had offered $6. Mrs. Harris also said she and Long were in a Medford bar when they met Wolfe.

Long threatened to kill her if she did not help him dispose of the body and after they had dumped it went with her to her home, she said. There he repeated his threat, she continued, forcing her husband to help him move the body.

The husband, 38, the wife and Long were arrested after a detective recognized Long and Mrs. Harris from descriptions distributed by Oregon police.

Harris, who lived with his wife in Medford, said: "I was afraid or I would have stopped this long before."

Novato Chamber Plans Workshop

Novato Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday agreed to hold a workshop session at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at Nave's Lanes, concluding with a luncheon to discuss next year's chamber program.

The board has invited Novato Unified School District trustees to discuss the district's expenditures following a report by Jean Anderson, chamber education chairman. No date was set for this meeting.

Transportation will be provided by the chamber, said Andrew Bretz, secretary-manager, to take persons to Beale Air Force Base near Marysville Sept. 18 to celebrate the Air Force's 20th birthday. The tour will leave the chamber office at 8:30 a.m.

Mercedes-Benz introduces the invisible model changeover.

We've pasted half of this year's Mercedes-Benz 250S next to half of next year's 250S. The changeover is invisible.

The "annual model change" hysteria is almost upon us again.

In a few days, the '67 models will suddenly be out of style and out of date. They'll be replaced by glittery new '68 versions with new styling, new names, new optional extras and new slogans to remember them by.

The new '68 Mercedes-Benz models will soon be here too. But they can hardly put the '67 models out of date, because you can hardly tell the two apart.

No new styling, no new names, no new optional extras, no new slogans. This invisible model changeover lacks much drama. But it does have a lot of common sense.

Who wants to feel like a "guinea pig"?

If you own a current or recent Mercedes-Benz, the invisible model changeover means you'll be spared watching your car drop several hundred dollars in value overnight. And you won't feel as if you're suddenly stuck with last year's fashion.

If you buy a '68 Mercedes-Benz, you won't have to fret about spending half your time in repair shops, waiting for "new car bugs" to be ironed out. (It's nice to know you're not being used as a guinea pig for some marketing brainstorm.)

Change for more than change's sake

Instead of lumping all its changes into one big artificial spree every fall, Mercedes-Benz simply adds them to the regular model run whenever the engineering staff declares them ready.

The '68 Mercedes-Benz models underscore the point. They differ from the '67 versions only in a handful of technical modifications. And these changes were made simply to meet the letter of Federal regulations that apply to all new domestic and foreign-built cars sold in the U.S.

That's all. No styling changes to make you think the cars are all-new. No raft of gadgets to make you discontented with your present car.

In short, no planned obsolescence.

A winning combination kept

Every one of the new Mercedes-Benz models carries technical advances that other cars—for all their ballyhooed annual changes—still lack.

Even the least costly Mercedes-Benz sedan rides on a road-hugging, bump-flattening fully independent suspension. Even the least powerful model stops with power-assisted, fade-free front disc brakes (and more powerful models use 4-wheel discs).

Every Mercedes-Benz is equipped with precise, recirculating-ball steering—and a tiny shock absorber is built right into this system.

A tight "unit" body welded in thousands of places forms the heart of every Mercedes-Benz. After 50,000 miles, you may begin to wonder if your Mercedes-Benz will ever rattle.

The Mercedes-Benz engineering staff has earned more than 5,000 patents in developing these much-envied technical advances. No "annual model change" will ever be allowed to chuck them into the ash can.

A word on safety

Safety starts at the drawing board at Mercedes-Benz—and has for years. It's good to know that the company pioneered safety ideas many years ago, voluntarily. That features like dual-circuit brake lines, breakaway inside rearview mirrors, recessed interior door handles, and flexible interior fittings were standard Mercedes-Benz items long before recent mandatory requirements had been drawn.

Work will continue to make Mercedes-Benz cars safer yet.

Visit us soon.

There are 13 Mercedes-Benz models, ranging from $25,785 to $4,284 and from limousines to sports to economy cars. Come to our showroom soon for a thorough test drive—and a firsthand look at the invisible model changeover.

Turkey Research Plan Wins Planners' Nod

A turkey research farm on 200 acres of land between Dillon Beach and Tomales won the approval of the Marin County Planning Commission yesterday.

Lyle Duncan, secretary treasurer of the Nicholas Turkey Breeding Farms, Inc. of Sonoma, announced that he plans to put in some $240,000 worth of buildings on the 200 acres at the intersection of Beach Road and Valley Ford Road. He said the corporation will conduct research on "summer turkey egg production," and the temperatures in the area are ideal for this project.

The planning commissioners approved the request on condition that none of the buildings would be closer than 200 feet from any property line.

The Marin County Planning Commission Also:

CAR WASH — Approved plans for an expanded car wash at 20 Bellam Boulevard, San Rafael, requested by Quentin Smith.

BOOBY'S — Approved a sign and outdoor tables for Booby's Inc. restaurant at 3741 Redwood Highway, next to Wilshire Motel across the highway from the Civic Center, requested by Bob Moher of Fairfax and John E. Johnson of San Anselmo.

RESTAURANT — Granted William Lowenthal the use of a red building at 10 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, for a restaurant on condition that adequate parking and landscaping are installed. The building, used as a church and a meeting hall in the past, will be converted into a restaurant with a seating capacity of 60.

LAND DIVISION — Approved a four-lot split for Dr. John Elloway on McClay Road and Fredson Court in Novato.

ABANDONMENT —Approved the abandonment of about 500 feet of Spring Drive, north of Autumn Lane, in Tamalpais Woods. The request came from Harry Sutecliffe, whose property adjoins the portion to be abandoned.

REZONING — Postponed action on a proposed rezoning of 10 parcels of land on the west side of Merrydale Road between North San Pedro Road and Willow Avenue. A gas station, motel and apartments had been proposed in the location at various times, but owners of the 10 lots have not reached agreement.

Insanity Plea In Gun Case

Pleas of innocent and innocent by reason of insanity were entered in Marin Superior Court yesterday by John Thomas Norton, 25-year-old Muir Beach man accused in a gun-pulling incident June 23.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson scheduled jury trial for the week of Oct. 23.

Norton is accused of felony assault with a gun on Sheriff's Deputy Ronald Spurrell in Tamalapais Valley, and with possession of the sawed-off rifle, and marijuana.

He had a Marin Superior Court sanity hearing, but was ruled able to cooperate with his attorney and to understand court proceedings Aug. 20 .

Bids For Water Project Called

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state Department of Water Resources has called for bids for construction of the Wheeler Ridge pumping plant in Kern County, expected to cost about $9 million.

The plant, 23 miles south of Bakersfield, will lift project water 230 feet through the California aqueduct toward the Tehachapi Mountains, with a capacity of 460 cubic feet per second.

Bids for the work will be opened here Oct. 25.

West Marin Density Brings A Clash

By WAT TAKESHITA

The question of West Marin density sparked a brief clash yesterday before the Marin County Planning Commission, and the matter was put off until the next commission meeting on Sept. 25 for further discussion.

Commissioners also speculated that the matter would probably come up for discussion during a workshop meeting with the Marin County Board of Supervisors this morning.

The major flareup yesterday erupted between Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. and County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker.

DENSITY AVERAGE

The West Marin master plan, now in effect, calls for a density average of .88 to a ceiling of 1.15 units per acre, with the ceiling permitted to developers under a "bonus" system.

Zucker said the "most sensible thing" would be to retain that master plan density as a guide while prospective changes are being discussed. Schultz suggested that changes be made now in the slope policy to allow 1.15 units per acre.

ZUCKER CRITICAL

"I think this is the worst thing the commission can do," said Zucker. "I don't think we should overdevelop at this point."

"Do you think the 1.15 density would yield an unconscionably high density?" asked Schultz.

"It would make a farce of the planning process," replied Zucker.

To say that 1.15 density is too high is "patently ridiculous," Schultz shot back.

"Obviously, if you're going to do that, you don't need any planners," said Zucker.

ORDERS STUDY

The Marin County Board of Supervisors adopted the .88 to 1.15 density, then on Aug. 16 ordered the planning commission to re-open the density question.

Planning Commissioner Margaret Azevedo said she "can't understand what the board's (supervisors) position was." She suggested that a series of questions be posed to supervisors such as:

Do they accept the concept of recreational use of land in a rural environment: If not, are they thinking more along the lines of urban recreation like Lake Tahoe or the Riviera? Do they accept the cluster idea of development? Are they concerned that landowners should get reasonable profit, and if so, should the population density be spread uniformly to give all landowners uniform returns?

TO THE FUTURE

Commissioner Hugh Dougherty said that the development of Highway 17 (from 101 to Point Reyes) will bring spectacular growth, but until then, nothing much will happen. "So I don't look on the present (West Marin) plan to seriously inhibit development for the next five years or so."

Dr. William F. Upton warned against changing the West Marin plan too drastically. "If we modify it too much, I don't think we'll have any plan."

Chairman Eugene R. Trombley continued the discussion of West Marin density until the next meeting on Sept. 25.

The commissioners also disagreed on whether an interim zoning should be applied to the Point Reyes National Seashore now to prevent undesirable development such as subdivisions of 7,500 square feet.

Commissioners Schultz and Walter R. Freitas opposed placing restrictions on the Seashore land. They argued that local restrictions in the area would only serve to delay the federal government from purchasing the Seashore land.

At the suggestion of Schultz, the commissioners decided to continue this discussion with the supervisors at this morning's workshop session.

South San Pedro Road Bids Opened

Road improvements to prepare for the widening of South San Pedro Road in East San Rafael will cost $133,941.

Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael submitted that bid, lowest of seven bids that were opened yesterday by the department of public works.

W. L. Hess, associate engineer for road design, said work will start in 10 days if the board of supervisors accepts the contract today. The job entails drainage improvements, fills, tree removal and construction of retaining walls.

Other bids submitted on the job were Hudson, Brennan and Yee Inc. of San Francisco, $142,459; L. R. Yegge Co. of Los Gatos, $142,693; Joseph DiGiorgio and Son of San Rafael, $145,585; Future Construction Co. of Dublin (Alameda County)l $153,165; O. C. Jones and Sons of Berkeley, $156,811; Halbach of Hayward, $184,000.

Church Vandalism

Vandals Friday night or early Saturday broke into the fireside room of St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church, Marin City, and threw red paint over the floor and walls, sheriff's deputies in Marin City reported yesterday.

Tiburon Delays Action On Yacht Club Policy

Tiburon City Council objected last night to the inclusion of a provision in the proposed zoning ordinance for yacht clubs in the park zone and struck it out as a clerical error.

In a 3-1 vote, Mayor John S. Hoffmire opposed and Councilman Branwell D. Fanning abstained, saying he had not been present at the original discussion in which other councilmen remembered they had disapproved including the yacht club procision.

Matthew B. Weinberg, attorney for the Tiburon Peninsula Co. which owns a portion of the central waterfront property, objected to the council action as being aimed "at a certain piece of property" and hance being confiscatory.

But Councilman Gordon W. Strawbridge said a yacht club would be a "danger to open waterfront."

The discussion on the zoning ordinance took one and a half hours of the council's five-hour session yesterday. After making corrections on its first reading, the council postponed second reading and adoption of the ordinance to Monday at 8 p.m. at city hall.

The Tiburon City Council Also:

CITATION ORDINANCE — Introduced an ordinance giving police officers the option to issue citations, as well as to admonish or arrest persons for violating city ordinances.

"BLACKIR'S PASTURE" — Authorized city engineer Ray W. Foreaker to initiate nuisance abatement proceedings in order to clean a ditch on "Blackie's Pasture" in the Trestle Glen area before the winter rains start. Owner Thomas Connell and Anthony L. Connell last winter did not clean the drain, forcing the city to do it at a cost of $270.68.

SLIDE CORRECTION — Directed Foreaker to abate as a nuisance a slide at the bottom of Rock Hill Drive as the owner, Max Oncina, has not done so.

SIGN DENIAL UPHELD — Supported the decision of the board of design review that a sign on the awning over the door and two other awnings at Home and Land Co. office, 1690 Tiburon Boulevard, be removed, allowing a 60-day stay for a new application.

PARKING RESTRICTION — Approved a no-oarking restriction on the west side of Paradise Drive for 50 feet, opposite 2088 Paradise Drive, to prevent automobiles from encroaching onto the pavement.

Newcomers Plant Book Idea Liked

Tiburon may greet newcomers in the future with a booklet of rules and regulations about landscaping, including a list of desirable and undesirable trees and plants recommended by the city.

The recommendations from Mrs. John Reib in the audience was received favorably last night by the city council, following a discussion of the parks and recreation commission criticism of a proposed tree ordinance.

The commission's main objection was the requirement of a permit for planting trees.

Supt. of Public Works Louis H. Brunini upheld the permit requirement. He said there are quite a few places in the city where large trees have already been planted one foot from the curb and would "soon become a problem."

Councilmen agreed to amend the ordinance so that getting a permit did not seem like a penalty and omitting a proposed fee for permits. Mayor John S. Hoffmire directed councilmen Thomas E. Drohan and Branwell D. Fanning to work out further compromise solutions on permits.

Consideration was given to the idea of welcoming new residents with a list of landscaping regulations.

Probation, Jail Time On Burglary

Robert Alan Gerard, 25, was given 60 days in county jail and placed on two years probation yesterday in Marin Superior Court for burglary.

Gerard, of 7 Excelsior Lane, Sausalito, pleaded guilty Aug. 18 to the Aug. 13 burglary of Oshkosh B'Gosh, Sausalito psychedelic poster shop.

Jail Term On Bigamy Charge

SACRAMENTO (AP)—James Edward Goolsby, 38, was sentenced to jail for bigamy after a probation officer said the man married seven times and neglected divorce at least twice.

Goolsby, a former Sacramento aerospace engineer now living at Seattle, Wash., was sentenced yesterday to six months in jail and five year's probation.

He pleaded guilty before Judge Albert H. Mundt of the Sacramento Superior Court. Goolsby told the court that his marriages came from a desire "to be helpful to other people."

Goolsby married Nadine Chidester, 22, in Sacramento last June. "I am sure that for the first and only time in my life I now have love for someone—my Nadine," Goolsby said.

Arraignment On Marijuana Charge

An 18-year-old Tamalpais Valley youth, James Paul VanSanden, was arraigned in Marin Superior Court yesterday on a felomy charge of marijuana possession.

Plea entry was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Sept. 25. VanSanden, of 600 Northern Avenue, is accused of having three small packages of marijuana in his car in Fairfax Aug. 12.

Specialized Police Services Powers Cut To Drug Abuses

The Marin City-County Services Committee last night limited its proposal for a specialized police services bureau to drug abuse.

Committee members approved a revised joint powers agreement, hoping to gain approval from cities that were cool toward the scope of the original proposal.

The original plan for a bureau to serve the county and cities was broader and could have included central identification and homicide investigations.

The proposed agreement will be forwarded to city councils and Marin supervisors for approval.

Members expressed the hope that coordinated police efforts would be expanded eventually.

"If this works, the next step perhaps could be a central information bureau," said Chairman Michael Wornum, Mill Valley councilman.

Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher of Corte Madera said, "I don't feel this is the end of city-county police cooperation."

Committee Member Douglas M. Merrill, a Novato councilman, said he hoped that the joint police efforts "untimately will broaden."

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen emphasized that the bureau would concentrate on "drug trafficking."

Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, who serves as staff to the committee, explained the name was changed from narcotics to drug abuse bureau because the latter "more accurately reflects what is involved."

Barrows explained that the revisions were made by Usher in conjunction "with the police chiefs in San Anselmo (Raymonde R. Buchignani) and Fairfax (James Orr)."

The revised draft spelled out the role of the police chiefs and the sheriff in relation to the bureau, and called for "law enforcement agencies to furnish all assistance and information required" to the bureau.

Supervisor John F. McInnis, a committee member, was absent.

Plea Withdrawn In Petty Theft

Carol Faye Hernandez of 75-E Red Hill Circle, Tiburon, yesterday withdrew her earlier guilty plea in Marin Superior Court to misdemeanor petty theft.

She originally was accused of felony passing of a worthless $103.50 check to defraud Wonderful World of Wigs, Strawberry Town and Country Village, but pleaded to the lesser count July 25.

No further proceedings was scheduled following yesterday's plea withdrawal pending possible filing of a misdemeanor complaint by the district attorney's office.

Overall Flood Plan Sought For Tiburon

Tiburon City Council reviewed two questions of drainage last night, finally accepting City Engineer Ray W. Foreaker's recommendation to seek an overall solution downtown and stand firm on requiring correction of drainage at Tiburon Lodge.

Foreaker told Councilmen an interim plan would be a waste of money. A previous proposal to run a line to Belvedere Cove would cost $35,000 and not really solve the problem, Foreaker said. A total plan, with a line to Raccoon Strait, would cost about $311,000, he estimated.

Councilman William R. Bremer suggested the city set aside $15,000 for an engineering study to set up an assessment district, asking Belvedere to match the amount.

But Foreaker won agreement that he and City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose set up procedures for action, before the council commits any monty.

Foreaker said Tiburon was "between a rock and a hard place" on the problem of drainage Tiburon Lodge, owned by Frederick G. Zelinsky, which adds to the ponding of flood water at the firehouse.

Chief Franklin J. Buscher urged the council to uphold its directive to Zelinsky to have the drains raised.

Foreaker said a $7,000 dike the fire district plans to build will protect the firehouse, in his opinion.

But the council stood by its former decision and directed Rose to advise Zelinsky the city will have to start abatement proceedings unless the correction is made.

City-County Planning Council Idea Revised

The Marin City-County Services Committee last night approved a revised proposal for a city-county planning council which was re-worked to satisfy cities.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker emphasized that the proposed joint powers agreement doesn't "remove any city powers."

SOME FEARS

There is a fear on the part of cities that the county-wide council would interfere in local affairs, Zucker said. "This doesn't involve any local zoning, subdivision regulations or general plan."

The Marin County Planning Commission and the supervisors would "give up much more" than the cities, Zucker said.

The proposed committee composed of county and city officials would create a county-wide general plan and study regional and state plans that would have an impact on Marin.

COUNTY ACTION

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen warned that there should be action "inside the county" before someone "outside" such as the Association of Bay Area Governments draws up a plan.

Under the proposal, the county will provide all staff, services, facilities, funds and personnel necessary.

There are planning matters that transcend city boundaries, and the proposed council could study such matters as Route 17, Zucker said.

Chairman Michael Wornum, a Mill Valley councilman, said, "a county plan done only by the county, won't work."

The proposed council would be advisory, but would have power to spend public funds.

POWER TO VETO

Zucker noted that the revised version has a termination point, three years, after which the agreement could be extended at the discretion of the county and cities involved.

The proposed agreement also gives either a majority of city representatives or a majority of county representatives the power to veto any proposed action of the council.

Members agreed to forward the proposed agreement to the cities and the Marin County Board of Supervisors, with referral to the Marin County Planning Commission.

The committee afjourned until 8 p.m. Oct. 16 at the Civic Center. Supervisor John F. McInnis, a committee member, was absent.

Student Collects Crash Damages

MARTINEZ (AP)—A University of California student, paralyzed from the neck down when his pickup truck slid off a new freeway, settled his suit against the State of California and a contractor yesterday for $750,000.

The student, Paul W. Shipley Jr., 22, contended faulty road materials and design were to blame Dec. 19, 1964, when his truck slid off the road and overturned.

Shipley had sued for $1.5 million but agreed to the lesser settlement, which his attorney said was the largest out-of-court settlement of its kind on record. The attorney is Bruce Walkup of San Francisco.

The Guy F. Atkinson Co., the contractor, and the state will pay the settlement jointly.

State Mansion Money-Raising Plans Defended

LOS ANGELES (AP) —The treasurer of the fund to build a $550,000 governor's residence has defended a money-raising appeal to lobbyists.

It is "the most effective means" of raising the money, said San Francisco banker Leland Kaiser.

Kaiser said of State Assemblyman Allen Sieroty, D-West Los Angeles, who yesterday asked Gov. Ronald Reagan to use other fund-raising means: "I've been told he's a left-wing jerk."

As for the refusal of former governors Edmund G. Brown and Goodwin J. Knight to lend their names to the money-raising appeal, Kaiser said, "I could not care less."

Sieroty denounced the fund as "repulsive." He later said of Kaiser's remarks that he was "sorry he has to call names rather than speak on the issue."

Mill Valley Hearing Set For '701' Plans

The Mill Valley Planning Commission last night set the first public hearing on the "701" planning study for its Sept. 25 meeting.

The hearing will be on plans for the Miller Avenue commercial area from Willow Lane to Camino Alto and on plans for development of Arroyo Crote Madera Del Presidio.

The commission agreed unanimously that the civic center should remain downtown, built around the present city hall, as recommended in the "701" plan. The commission's view was sought by City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer and Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon for a study being made of future city building needs.

The commission also agreed that the fire station eventually should be located in proximity with surrounding fire districts so the entire area will receive the best fire protection.

The Mill Valley Planning Commission Also:

CAR WASH — Recommended, 4-3, denial of a use permit sought by Ernest Crowley for a car wash at Locust and Miller Avenues. The commission objected to traffic congestion on neighboring streets and a tight traffic pattern on the site.

REZONING — Set a public hearing Oct. 9 for proposed rezoning of property owned by Joseph Santos at Camino Alto and East Blithedale Avenue. Santos sought commercial zoning, but the city council has asked the commission to consider apartment zoning for the area, which is now in professional office zoning.

LIAISON — Named Commissioner Robert E. Burton as liaison to the city council.

Fisherman's Wharf Blaze Is Controlled

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Firemen battled for an hour early today before controlling a $75,000 fire at the end of Pier 47 in the Fisherman's Wharf area.

Destroyed was a one-story frame structure housing a marine fueling station and some of the fuel.

Probation Given

Sue Ann Pearson, 28, of North Hollywood, was given three years probation yesterday in Marin Superior Court for forging two checks totaling $300 in Larkspur last Dec. 2. She pleaded guilty May 31.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Marinites On 'People' Tour

By MOLLY MARIN

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Brahms of Corte Madera recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a 2,000-mile auto tour of England, Scotland, and Wales. As part of a personal "people-to-people" program in which they have participated for a number of years, the couple traveled as Europeans do, staying in Bed-and-Breakfast houses, inns, and private homes. A highlight of the trip was an invitation from the Governor of the Tower of London to attend the Ceremony of the Keys, a centuries-old ritual wherein the Chief Warder and Guardsmen of the Royal Fusilier Regiment secure the Tower for the night. Other interesting experiences included a visit to Thomas A. Beckett's shrine in Canterbury; camping under "Robin Hood's Larder," an ancient oak in Sherwood Forest; a visit to Nelson's flagship "Victory" in Portsmouth, and to Holyrood House in Edinburgh, residence of Mary, Queen of Scots. A final week in Paris included excursions to the city's environs — Barbizon, Versailles, and the palace of the French kings at Fontainebleau.

SPENDING SEVERAL days at Del Monte Lodge in Pebble Beach are the Richard Godwins of San Rafael.

THE DARRYL ROBERSONS of San Francisco are announcing the birth of a daughter, Kimberly Anne, born on Sept. 5 at Children's Hospital. Mrs. Roberson is the former Karolyn Klapak, daughter of the Andrew Klapaks of San Anselmo.

MRS. EUGENE McGEORGE and Mrs. Russell C. Mills, both of Mill Valley, will honor bride-elect Lola Behr at a kitchen shower to be given at 8 p.m. Thursday at the McGeorges' home. Lola, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Behr of Mill Valley, will become the bride of Gerald Martin Haskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Haskins of Tallahassee, Fla., in an Oct. 28 wedding at Christ Church, Sausalito.

DR. AND MRS. FRANK E. ROSSMAN of Sausalito and their son Bruce Rossman, and his wife of Mill Valley attended the 50th wedding anniversary party Saturday of Dr. Rossman's sister and brother-in-law, Col. and Mrs. John H. Brimberry of San Jose. The Brimberrys are well known in Marin. The party was held at the Officers' Club at the Presidio in San Francisco, where the Colonel was stationed during his Army career.

DEBBE JACKSON, daughter of the Robert N. Jacksons of San Rafael, and a sociology major at the University of California in Santa Barbara, will spend this year at the Institute of American Universities in Aix-en-Provence, France.

MADELINE Mary Pennisi, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Pennisi of Mill Valley, has just returned from a two-month tour of Europe. She studied three advanced Spanish courses at the University of Madrid, following which she toured Switzerland, Germany, France, and Italy. "Muffie" will continue her language studies at the University of San Francisco as a sophomore.

Newlyweds To Reside In San Jose

Lt. Robert John Ornellas claimed Joanne Eloise Holmes as his bride at 2 p.m. Saturday at Moffett Field Memorial Chapel.

The bride wore a floor length white silk organza gown with lace bodice and Sabrina neckline. The gown had a short train.

Linda Harrison of Los Banos was maid of honor. Sharon Stebbins of Glendale and Jo Anne MacMahon of Tustun were the bridesmaids. All the attendants wore floor length gowns of pale green chiffon.

Lt. Samuel Young Jr. of Vandenburg Air Force Base, was best man. Clyde Keeley of Novato, Robert Holmes of Berkeley, and the bride's other brother, Kenton Holmes of San Jose, were the ushers.

The reception was held at the Officers Club at Moffett Field.

The bride is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Howard W. Holmes of San Jose. She was graduated from Arundel High School in Maryland, and is a senior at San Jose State College.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ornellas Jr. of Novato. He is the grandson of Mrs. Della Richardson of San Jose and John Ornellas of Oakland. He is a graduate of Novato High School and San Jose State College and is working for his master's degree at the college. He is employed at the Westinghouse Co.

The newlyweds will live in San Jose.

New Opera Action President Formerly In Personnel Work

Mrs. Edmond Campion Ward of Greenbrae has a very busy season ahead of her as the new president of the San Francisco Opera Action in Marin and this year's Grape Festival chairman.

She was a charter member of the year-old Opera Action, whose purpose is to stimulate a wider base of support for interest in the San Francisco Opera. The group is presently concerned with presenting the preview of Mozart's "The Magic Flute," in which Mill Valley soprano Jane Marsh will sing a major role, to be held tomorrow at the A. Barlow Fergusons' home in Kent Woodlands.

Membership in the group is open to anyone who will sell a pair of tickets to one of the 11 different opera series.

Barbara Ward is also active in the Sunny Hills Junior Auxiliary and served as treasurer in 1965.

MRS. EDMOND WARD

A graduage of Mills College with degree in psychology, she was employed before her marriage in personnel work and with investment counselors. She and her husband, an attorney, have lived in Marin since 1959 — he since 1931. They have two children, Gregory, 8; and Elisabeth, 6.

The new president lists as her favorite interests opera, gourmet dining, conversation and meeting new people. She also enjoys doing French and Chinese cooking, tennis and golf, reading non-fiction and history, sewing and traveling.

Other members of the executive board of the opera in action in Marin are Mesdames B. G. Falk, Belvedere-Tiburon sub-chairman; A. Barlow Ferguson and W. Remington Hodgson IV, opera preview; Frank H. Abbott, speakers bureau; Donald Bekins, publicity; Stanton Logan, posters; and E. Paul Atkins and Babcock Smith, special events.

Susan J. Enemark Engaged To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fischer Enemark of San Rafael are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Susan Jean, to Donald E. Warwick of Lind, Wash.

The bride-elect was graduated from Dominican Upper School, College of Marin and is a senior at California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo. She made her debut at the Marin Debutante Ball in 1963. She is the sister of Lee Enemark and the granddaughter of Mrs. Leon H. Enemark of Alameda and the late Mr. Enemark.

The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warwick of Lind, was graduated from Spokane Community College and Kinman Business University of Spokane. Robert M. Warwick of Lind is his brother.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

'I Think My Steady's Overwarned By Her Mother–Can You Help?'

DEAR HELEN:

My steady girl friend thinks I'm crazy when I say that since I don't have much money to take her places or buy her things, I have to show my love through hugging and kissing, sometimes. Or at least holding hands.

She won't kiss me for fear people will see, and I never have a chance to be alone with her. When her parents are in the room, she won't even sit near me. If I put my arm around her when we're walking down the street, she's always looking over her shoulder to see if any body is near. She's so jumpy I can hardly land a good night kiss. Usually it's on her ear.

I think she's been overwarned by her mother. Would you please tell her it's normal to want to kiss the girl you love? . . . And that I'm not a monster? — BUFF

DEAR BUFF'S GIRL FRIEND:

There's nothing sinful in a kiss, and I'm sure Buff expects no more than this normal display of affection between boy and girl. Many more rebuffs, honey, and you'll have no Buff at all!—H.

DEAR HELEN:

I have a problem sister. I'm 13 and she's 12. Last May she stole one of my bra's and wore it to school. I found out she bragged to all the girls that she was "old enough."

Now that she has one of her own, she really acts smartypants. She says she is going to wear nylons to school this year. I didn't get to wear them when I was 12! She acts so big it makes me sick. But Helen, prepare yourself:

My Mom doesn't think she ever does anything wrong because she is her pet! — TROUBLED AT 13

DEAR TROUBLED:

Your sister probably isn't the "pet." It's just that with each addition to the family, parents get a little easier — or maybe a little more tired of saying, "No." Perhaps she acts "smartypants" because she's competing with a girl who makes her jealous — you. Give her a pair of your old nylons, stop treating her like a "dumb little brat" and I think you may soon discover she's as human as you are. At least it happened in our family.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

This seems impossible, but it's true. My parents are jealous of my boy friend! They say he's stealing my affection away from them. So they stopped me from seeing him.

I'm very attached to my family, but it seems like I grew up before my folks did. How can I make them see I won't love them any less for loving my boy friend more? — MIXED UP

DEAR M.U.:

Have you really tried to make your parents see — or are you scaring them green with that marriage-gleam in your eye? We all get a jealous twinge when the first boy/girl-friend shows up, but we get over it when we discover you're sensible about dating.

Prove you are, and if you're still having trouble, I'll concede your folks are immature. — H.

PERSONAL TO DISTURBED OF SAN RAFAEL:

Before you see a lawyer, consult the Family Service Agency of Marin County, 1005 A St., San Rafael. — H.

Crouch-Coburn Nuptials At Notre Dame Des Victoires

A nuptial mass at 2 o'clock Saturday at Notre Dame des Victoires Church in San Francisco, united in marriage Jo Ann Coburn of Novato and Robert Eugene Crouch of Fort Ord.

The bride, the daughter of Mrs. Louis M. Coburn of San Francisco, and the late Mr. Coburn, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Capt. Edward A. Hamilton of Jacksonville, Ark.

The bride's gown was floor lenght of Saki cloth with Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves edged in Venetian lace. Her sister, Mrs. Herman Ritchie of Novato, was matron of honor. Her moss green floor length dress was of Saki cloth. The bride's niece, Deborah Ritchie of Novato and the bridegroom's sister, Denise Crouch, were flower girls.

Best man for his nephew was Fred Gralnick of San Anselmo, with Michael Ogden of Fairfax, Larry Marcone of San Anselmo, and Al Calvillo, also of San Anselmo, assisting wedding guests to their seats.

The reception was held at The Village Restaurant in San Francisco. The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Southern California.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Bettie Crouch of San Anselmo and Roy Crouch of Sacramento. He is the brother of Denise, Debbie, Dina, and Roy Crouch, all of Sacramento, and of David Mathews serving with the U.S. Army in Vietnam. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Max Gralnick of San Francisco.

Jo Ann's sisters are Mrs. Herman Ritchie of Novato and Mrs. Edward Hamilton of Jacksonville, Ark. She is a graduate of Lowell High School. She attended the College of Marin and was graduated from Ctiy College of San Francisco. The bridegroom is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and attended the College of Marin. He is serving with the U.S. Army, where he has been in the Leadership Preparation Course.

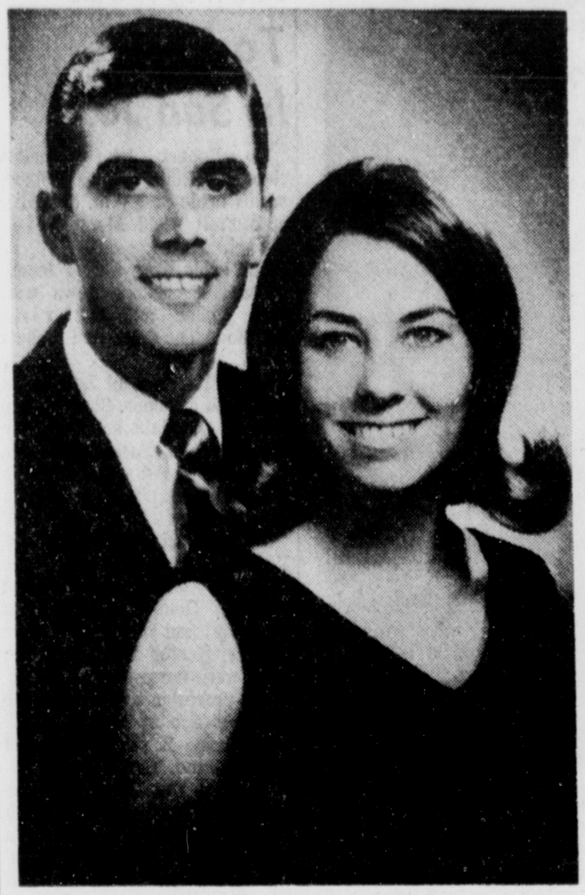
Turrini-Colombo Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Mario A. Colombo of San Rafael are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Ann, to Stephen R. Turrini.

The bride-elect was graduated from San Rafael High School and attended College of Marin. Michael and Robert Colombo of San Rafael are her brothers.

The future bridegroom, son of A. R. Turrini of San Rafael, was graduated from Salesian High School in Richmond and Healds College in San Francisco. Andrew Turrini is his brother and he is the grandson of Mrs. Peter Turrini of San Rafael.

No date has been set for the wedding.



ENGAGED TO WED are Nancy Ann Colombo of San Rafael and Stephen R. Turrini. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mario A. Colombo of San Rafael. (Les Walsh photo)

Elective Officers' Night Scheduled

Elective Officers' Night will be held by the Novato Chapter 609, Order of the Eastern Star on Thursday at 8 p.m. at Druids Hall, Novato. Worthy Matron Mrs. John Hockman has announced that the program is being prepared by the Elective Officers.

Chairman for the evening is Mrs. Lewis Carleson, P.M. She will be assisted by Lewis Carleson, P.P.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Salvner, Nancy Jackson, and Mrs. Raymond Wheeler.

Scrubbing Vases

Narrow-necked vases are hard to scrub. Instead, fill them with a solution of salt and vinegar and let them stand for a few hours. Shake vigorously, then rinse with clean water.

Gobbin-Hall Vows Exchanged In Novato

Beth Hall of Novato became the bride of Stanley Kenneth Gobbin in an evening wedding performed on Sept. 1 at the Novato home of the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. Douglas Johnstone.

The Rev. Lloyd F. Gebhart of St. Francis Episcopal Church in Novato officiated at the 5 o'clock rite. Beth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Kempton of Owensboro, Ky., wore a two-piece costume of ice pink silk and wool with matching velvet bow hat and shoes.

Her sister wore a two-piece costume of powder blue silk and wool as matron of honor. Twin nephews of the bride, Bill and Mike Johnstone of Novato, served as ringbearers.

Her brother-in-law, W. Douglas Johnstone, was best man.

A champagne reception at the Johnstone home was followed by a dinner honoring the couple given in the Burgundy Room of the Lodge Restaurant in Novato by the bride's parents.

The newlyweds, who left on a wedding trip to Carmel, will make their home in Novato in mid-October. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gobbin of Liverpool, England, parents of the bridegroom, sent a traditional English wedding cake for the event.

Beth attended Western Kentucky State College and is sales supervisor at City of Paris in Northgatet Shopping Center. Keith Kempton of Kingston, N.Y., is her brother.

The bridegroom attended Prescott College in England and is an insurance broker with Willson, Loustau and Co. in San Francisco. He is the brother of Mrs. N. E. Simons, F. R. Gobbin and Raymond Gobbin, all of Liverpool.

Presbyterian Group To Meet

The United Presbyterian Women of the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael will meet in Canole Hall at noon on Thursday for a luncheon and program meeting.

The program "Never Say Sayonara" will be presented by Mrs. T. Royal Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Scott retuned Sept. 4 from Japan, where they were adult advisors for a group of seventeen young people from several confessional churches. The trip was sponsored by the Office of Youth Relations and the 1967 Japan Christian Youth Exchange.

Mrs. Byron Jones is arranging the musical program for the day.

Hostesses for the luncheon will be members of the September circle with Mrs. H. Raymond Thayer as chairman and Mrs. John Young as co-chairman. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Thayer of the church office.

House Of Dior Opens New Ready-To-Wear Department

PARIS (AP) — The House of Christian Dior today opened a ready-to-wear department, called Miss Dior, designed to give quick, quality service to foreigners who can't wait for numerous fittings.

The opening was considered a major event in the fall season for several reasons.

CONFIDED Henri Fayel, the right arm of financier Marcel Boussac who owns Dior: "We now have the only store of its kind in the chic Avenue Matignon area. It is part of the Dior premises, and a Dior operation. Everything is made in our own workrooms at Orleans. It has taken six months to train the workers in mass production methods, but now they have grasped it."

Disclosed Jacques Rouet, Dior general manager and director: "Our main objective was to keep up the standards of Dior's quality. Another is to retain the traditional Dior spirit — young, 'sans ridicule,' always Parisian and chic."

THE MISS DIOR Collection lives up to all expectations in styling quality and price. Designed by Philippe Guibourge, once in charge of the Dior London boutique, the clothes are what every woman needs and wants — particularly in Paris where tourists want things in a hurry.

On-the-racks models are arranged according to sizes and colors. Ajudstments in hemlines are made practically instantly. Minor alterations to neckliines and sleeves are done in the matter of hours.

Cocktail ensembles run around $200, coats around $100 and suits around $125.

Stump Jumpers Set Saturday Hoedown

The Novato Stump Jumpers Square Dance Club will give a hoedown on Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at IDESI Hall in Novato sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation Department.

Guest caller will be Hugh Burns and club caller Dave Milano of Novato will be on hand. Hosts for the evening will Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Dutra, Ernie Jerrue, Bob Cornelius and Mrs. Mary Balensiefer.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Here's One Initiative We'd Like On Ballot

We think general election ballots in California get cluttered up with too many initiative proposals, but one we would like to see at next November's election would be for repeal of the newly enacted night horse racing permission.

We do not believe that $13 million in additional pari-mutuel funds for the state (the amount estimated to be gained by night racing) is sufficient reason for extending legalized gambling in California.

No other reason has been put forward.

THE BILL LEGALIZING night horse racing was introduced in the Assembly by 16 members, among whom was Marin-Sonoma Assemblyman William T. Bagley. It passed the Assembly 55-11.

By the time it reached the Senate, there was pressure because of imminence of the deadline for setting up next year's racing schedule. So the Senate added an "urgency clause," to make the bill effective immediately on signature by the governor. With this clause, it passed the Senate 30-7.

It then re-passed the Assembly, with the urgency clause included, by 56 to 20. That was on July 7. It was enrolled and presented to Gov. Ronald Reagan at 3 p.m. on July 10. He signed it the same day.

THERE WAS AN AWFUL lot of hurry in those closing days to get the act into immediate effect. Apparently, that was for the convenience of the horse-racing people in setting up their racing schedules.

The California Supreme Court was asked to declare the urgency clause unconstitutional and authorize a referendum which would have held up effectiveness of the act until next year's election. Petition for this was entered by Roger Kent's law firm on behalf of Thomas Gray, a San Francisco banker; Rev. Harvey N. Chinn, of the First Evangelical United Brethren Church of Sacramento, and Frederick C. Jones, an Inglewood city councilman. The Supreme Court turned it down.

Now, the three petitioners, plus others reportedly representing sports and theater interests — who see in the expansion of horse-race gambling unfair competition to their own businesses — are discussing an initiative campaign to repeal the act. The firm of Whitaker and Baxter, "old pros" at this sort of thing, have been approached regarding such a campaign.

ASKED WHY HE ALLOWED his name on the bill, Assemblyman Bagley said that (1) it was needed for the benefit of the horse race industry, and (2) he saw no difference between night racing and day racing, which was already legal.

Horse racing and draw poker occupy privileged positions as the only legalized forms of gambling in California. But the records indicate the people of the state want no expansion of such legislation. They turned down legalized greyhound racing in 1946, legalized gambling in 1950, and a lottery in 1964 — all by overwhelming majorities.

We think they should have a chance to turn down legalized night horse racing too. We hope the initiative campaign is carried to fruition to give them that chance.

The Biggest Farm

Marinites live right next to the world's largest farm, potentially capable of supplying the high-quality protein needs of the world's rapidly exploding population. We refer, of course, to the vast Pacific Ocean.

It becomes more and more clear that countries such as India cannot continue on an American wheat dole forever. With new processes, fish can be converted to a tasteless white powder, which can be made into soups, curries, breads or what-have-you.

This way lies sanity and self-respect.

It may be a long time before Americans need to draw their food supply from the ocean. Perhaps other advances of science will preclude that need. But American scientific investigation in the ocean's depths may help solve the food supply needs of less fortunate countries.

The sea may be farmed in ways no one yet suspects.

RESPONSIBILITY STARTS WITH YOU

The origin of the word "responsible" may interest you. It is derived from the Latin terms "re" (again) and "spondeo" (promise).

An individual, then, is regarded as responsible who proves repeatedly that he keeps his promises.

Or as the dictionary puts it, responsible means "having a capacity for moral decisions and therefore accountable . . . answerable, legally or morally, for the discharge of a duty, trust, debt, service or obligation."

John Henry Newman declared: "If there is any truth brought home to us by conscience, it is this, that we are personally responsible for what we do."

See in every challenge to work for the good of your fellow man an opportunity to honor God and enrich your own life. Then you will cheerfully accept responsibility rather than avoid it.

Show by conscientious performance that you can be counted on to live up to your duties — personal, family, job, religious and civic.

"Imitate us . . . with toil and labor we worked night and day that we might not burden any of you."
(2 Thessalonians 3:7, 8)

Thanks to You, Father, for Your confidence in me.

The Wrong Solution

(Reprinted from Wall Street Journal)

Three years ago the operations of Federal administrative agencies had become so time-consuming and confusing that Congress decided to do something about it. The decision has proved to be much easier to make than to implement.

True, the lawmakers did authorize establishment of an Administratie Conference composed of 75 or more members drawn from other Federal agencies and the public. It was empowered to investigate complaints from the public and to formulate proposals for procedural changes to enhance efficiency.

Up to now, though, the conference that Congress envisioned exists only on paper, with no money, no members and no staff. Perhaps most significant, the White House has been unable to find anyone to head it.

The trouble presumabably does not lie with the job's $23,500 salary, which is respectable by the standards of Washington and most other places. More likely, some of those asked may have given thought to the fact that the new agency would have no power to compel anyone to do anything. Certainly it would have no power to stop, or even slow, Congress' constant creation of new bureaus, commissions and the like—or the assignment of overlapping chores to agencies new and old.

Nor, for that matter, could the Administrative Conference end the Congressional habit of defining duties so vaguely that eager administrators can, and do, push deeply into areas that the lawmakers never had in mind. The officials are by no means deterred in their endeavors by a backlog of work that grows ever larger by the day.

A thorough administrative overhaul is surely long overdue. But, as some of the potential council chairmen may have realized, that task calls for more than merely setting up just one more agency.

Violinist Rebuts Writer's Contentions

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In regards to your recent letter "Symphony Needs Local Conductor": I have been raised in this town and I have played the violin since I was nine. I have been in all the organizations Mr. (Vlado) Kolitsch criticized, and have been associated with the people mentioned. Mr. Kolitsch is relatively new to this community and, his uninformed remarks show a superficial assessment of the situation.

First, the Marin Youth Orchestra is not a duplication of the high school orchestras. It is composed of the best high school talent in the county. It affords the serious music student the opportunity to perform more difficult concert music in a more serious atmosphere. This is an opportunity many students in other areas are denied.

Secondly, Mr. Kolitsch's unwarranted criticism of the performances of this orchestra are wholly erroneous and unjustified, unless of course, he expects a performance of professional calibre.

Third, Mr. Kolitsch's accusations of Mr. Charles Meacham are entirely unfounded. Mr. Meacham does not promote his students; if they are in the Youth Orchestra it is because they have earned it. If the number of Mr. Meacham's students in the orchestra seems distressing to Mr. Kolitsch, may I put his mind at ease? Mr. Meacham is an excellent teacher, and has many talented pupils.

I would suggest that in the future Mr. Kolitsch make a deeper study of the situation, instead of continuing his unsubstantiated condemnation of Marin County's fine music program.

County Saving Plan 'Glimmer Of Hope'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

There was a short article in last evening's (Sept. 4) Independent-Journal that brought a bright glimmer of hope to this irate taxpayer. I refer, of course, to the small piece about Mr. Joseph B. Leach, our new data processing director for Marin County, and his plan to actually save we taxpayers approximately $55,000.

The less affluent taxpayers in this area should certainly take a brief moment to say "thank you" to this remarkable man!

Let us hope that he never becomes brainwashed by our present county supervisors into thinking that Marevelous Marin is inhabited only by the wealthy. We might also hope that our worthy supervisors accept Mr. Leach's plan with alacrity!

Reader Corrects Council Vote Report

Editor, Independent-Journal:

May I correct an error in the I-J's Sept. 6 report of the Mill Valley City Council's vote on use of the city hall by outside groups, such as Vietnam Summer.

The council's vote was not 4-1 but unanimous on the first three conditions: availability of the hall, priority given local groups, and rental fee under some circumstances.

The 4-1 vote came on the fourth condition, which was divided into two parts. First, "groups must not advocate the violent overthrow of the U.S. or other duly constituted governments." To this restriction, Mayor (Albert E.) White alone voted "No."

The second part — "must not advocate other illegal acts" — brought a 3-2 vote, Councilman White and (Roderic L.) Robinson dissenting.

Thanks for setting the record straight.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

A psychiatrist once braced Steve Allen with, "The only two really instinctive fears in man are the fear of loud voices and the fear of falling. What are YOU afraid of?" Answered Steve, "I have a great fear of making a loud noise while falling." And when a movie producer once asked, "Who was it who made 'Helen of Troy?' " it was Allen who replied, "Fellow named Paris."

To illustrate the point that a ham actor simply cannot help exaggerating, Abel Green, wily editor of Variety, cites the story of the old star who found himself involved in one of the most disastrous flops of the season. The second night, after the horrible reviews had been digested, the box office took in exactly 11 dollars. The star realized there was no use trying to conceal the facts from his pals at the Friars' Club, so he decided to put on a bold front. "I think our take tonight must have been the lowest gross in history," he confided with a hollow laugh. "Just think! Only TWENTY-TWO bucks!"

Romney May Have Opened Pandora's Box On Vietnam

By WILLIAM T. PEACOCK

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Romney may have pulled the plug for increasing political debate in the months ahead over the Vietnam war.

The Michigan governor, an active if undeclared candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, may not have had that in mind in complaining he had been "brainwashed" about Vietnam.

But it probably will be one result. And it flies counter to hopes of some Republican strategists as to timing.

MONTHS AGO Congressional Republican leaders, assessing the political implications of the war, concluded that careful restraint in criticism was advisable for the time being.

They thought it was much better to let Democrats carry the ball in criticism of a wartime Democratic president.

After all, it is more than a year until the election. Why get painted into a corner this early in the game?

There was no lack of Democratic critics.

The long list was topped by such eminent ones as Sens. J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Wayne Morse of Oregon, a committee member.

Then there were such Democratic senators as George McGovern of South Dakota, Robert F. Kennedy of New York, Frank Church of Idaho and others.

TO BE SURE, there have been Republicans all along unhappy with Johnson's course. But these, such as Senators John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and Mark Hatfield of Oregon, have not been so vocal as many Democrats.

Now Romney has stirred things up. To many, Romney's own course on Vietnam does not appear wholly consistent.

Last April, he delivered a major speech at Hartford, Conn., which was widely interpreted as pretty much backing Johnson's policies. The President himself viewed it that way.

But Romney, along with saying he was brainwashed, also says the interpretations of his Hartford speech were wide of the mark.

If there has been a shift of his views, it comes at a time when many political figures think there is a discernible increase in voter opposition to the war.

Morse and Church profess to finding such a trend.

A DEVELOPMENT of importance in the Republican camp on the war issue was a recent pronouncement by Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky that "I was wrong" in thinking increased bombing of North Vietnam would bring the Communists to the negotiating table.

Morton, a former GOP national chairman, said if a Republican is to be elected president in 1968 "he's got to come up with a real program on Vietnam which will attract the voters, which shows some hope of disengagement."

Romney's brainwash pronouncement set him up immediately as a target.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said the governor must be "blind to the truth" in accusing the Johnson Administration of giving out inaccurate information on the war.

Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey rushed out a couple of statements rapping the governor.

Henry Bellmon, top manager in Richard M. Nixon's undeclared presidential race, declared Romney had revealed weaknesses as a campaigner which would prove damaging in a contest for the White House.

Bellmon, a former governor of Oklahoma, also said he was in Vietnam in 1965 with Romney and didn't feel "we were misled or brainwashed in any way."

NIXON HAS HIS differences with Johnson's strategy, but those close to him say he is deeply convinced U.S. security requires an American effort in Vietnam.

It may be that a major Romney Nixon debate over the war is shaping up when—and if—they clash in next year's presidential preference primaries.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Foreign Aid Opposition Points To Further Slash In Funds

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON — There is a strong possibility the House Appropriations Committee will slash the foreign aid budget to around $2.5 billion.

That would be a record low in the 20-year history of this gigantic spending program that has cost U.S. taxpayers more than $130 billion. Last year, after protracted wrangling, Congress finally voted a low of $2.9 billion — $485 million less than the $3.385 billion sought by President Johnson.

This year he proposed a so-called "bare bones" budget of $3.126 billion. The Senate approved a $2.6 billion authorization bill, and the House $2.8 billion — after the measure barely survived outright defeat by eight votes, 202 to 194. It's anticipated the two chambers will split the difference and compromise on approximately $2.7 billion.

Rep. Otto Passman, D-La., chairman of the appropriations subcommittee in charge of the foreign aid budget and a long-time foe of such large-scale spending, is bent on even more drastic axing.

If he has his way, it will be stripped to $2.5 billion or less. Passman would like to hack as much as $1 billion from the President's $3.126 billion proposal.

On these aims he has considerable bipartisan support in both his subcommittee and the full Appropriations Committee. Indicative of the sentiment prevailing in these key committees are the following significant background factors:

THE 30 DEMOCRATIC committeemen split squarely down the middle on the authorization bill — 15 for, 15 against. This is the first time that has happened. Of the 21 Republican committeemen, 18 voted against the bill, 3 for it.

Rep. George Mahon, D-Tex., chairman of the full Appropriations Committee, who previously has generally supported the White House on this issue, is now sharply critical and known to favor drastic "economizing."

Republican members of the Foreign Affairs Committee disclosed more than $6 billion in "unexpended balances" from previous foreign aid appropriations is still available. This startling contention has gone unanswered.

There is clearly evident in the Senate a strong bipartisan majority bent on heavy pruning of the foreign aid budget. This is a complete reversal, as in the past the Senate has provided the principal support for it.

CATTLE AID — India's vast numbers of "sacred" cows are having a very definite impact on the sweeping change in congressional attitude toward continued large-scale foreign aid spending.

Press reports have ignored this. But in both the House and Senate debates on the authorization bills, there was caustically indignant discussion of it. Legislators voiced outrage at the huge quantities of grain consumed by these countless roving cattle, while the U.S. is shipping millions of tons of wheat to avert famine in India.

Republican members of the Foreign Affairs Committee, headed by Representative E. Ross Adair, Ind., devoted an entire section to this subject in report.

THEY OWE U.N. — A strong impression was also made on the House by Rep. Richard Schweiker, R-Pa., with the charge that 56 countries receiving aid from the U.S. are more than $61 million in arrears to the United Nations for dues and assessments. He cited the following examples:

"Afghanistan received $40.4 million in American aid in fiscal 1966. At the same time it owed the United Nations around $122,297. Brazil received $415.7 million in aid from us in fiscal 1966. Its U.N. arrearage now is $1,673,140. Chile received $124.5 million in aid from us in fiscal 1966. Its U.N. arrearage is $574,488.

"Countries receiving our aid are at the same time letting their obligations to the United Nations pile up unpaid."

Few Sit On Front Porches Now, When Hippies Dig The Grass

The other day we walked to Cain Lane in Novato to interview Mrs. Marjorie Balmer about her front porch.

"Do you get much use out of it?" we asked. "Not many people have porches any more."

"Yes," she replied, "we sit out here quite a bit in the evening"—speaking of herself and her husband, Lupert, a house painter. "I like to read and do crossword puzzles on the porch," she added.

"The only thing," she continued, "is people don't sit on porches much any more and sometimes I feel somewhat conspicuous . . . people seem to us their back yards now."

Mrs. Balmer said she and her husband actually have two porches—one in front, one in back. "The back porch is for my dog, Tina."

Balmer is a camper and outdoorsman. "He has a green thumb. He likes petunias and I like roses. The only thing I do," said Mrs. Balmer, "is pick the roses he grows."

IN SAN RAFAEL as Saturday "swing man" for the I-J a week ago, we met Ernie Lopes, garrulous keeper of the flora at Courthouse Square.

He was complaining about hippies digging potholes in the lawn. "They pull big gobs of grass up. That's what hurts me," he said. "I tell them: 'Why don't you keep it the way it's supposed to be?' "

Ernie said he likes to eel fish and plans another trip "when the tide is low."

IN THE FISH STORY line, we think you should know about what all those people are fishing for on the banks of Stafford Lake near Novato—bass, perch and blue gills.

En route back from Point Reyes Station the other day, we stopped at the lake and met Mrs. F. Delabahan of San Francisco. She and two others were fishing for blue gills, using worms. Looking out from under her sunbonnet, she said: "They say there are some bass in here, but I don't know; we're not getting any."

Around the lake and past a lot of cocklebur bushes we met four people, two from Oakland, two from Vallejo, who seemed to be pulling in fish as fast as they could de-fish their hooks. One woman, with a sackful in the water, said: "Oh, I don't like to eat them. I just like to catch them." Another fisherman lamented: "This lake closes Sunday."

A few yards down the beach under a beach umbrella we found Beatrice Durio, from Oakland. "She explained: "It's just fun. I just love to catch them."

John Dutton, 11, of Novato, said: "I got five, but threw them back . . . usually I come with my brother, Jamie." Asked how he felt about fishing, he said seriously: "It's my hobby."

LATER, TALKING to Sgt. Bill Williams of Hamilton, we learned he is looking for a tadpole lure to fish with in Nicasio reservoir. The reason, he confided, is that he caught a bass there and, opening it to see what it eats so he could provide that bait, he found a tadpole.

Baseball champs and new teachers were given a good show this past week by the Novato Chamber of Commerce. First, the champagne reception, where all the teachers seem so much younger than they used to be and music teacher John Enders told us that this year he plans to teach music "from Dixieland to what you hear on the radio." Second, the welcome home luncheon for Babe Ruth All-Stars and their younger sidekicks. Good show!

So long! you funny Novato hills with the dry, greasewood smell and all your funny people who live on them and in the valleys between. Here's to life!

Five New Hotels Forecast By 1971 In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Five new hotels will be built in San Francisco by 1971 and major additions are planned for three others, according to the Francisco Convention & Visitors Bureau.

The new facilities will add between 3,000 and 3,900 hotel rooms to the city, the bureau said.

The two biggest projects will be a 765-room hotel planned for Embarcadero Center and a 750-room hotel in the International Trade Center development.

In addition, new hotels are planned for Cninatown, the Japanese Cultural and Trade Center and Nob Hill.

The San Francisco Hilton plans a 600-room addition; the St. Francis plans a 300-room tower; and the Mark Hopkins has a 250-room wing on the drawing board.

Illness Fatal To Quentin Inmate

San Quentin inmate William J. Morris, 64, of Los Angeles, died at 9:45 p.m. Sunday at the prison hospital after a lengthy illness.

Morris entered the state prison system in January, 1965, after conviction of selling heroine and was serving a five years to life sentence.

Prison authorities report he had an arrest record dating back to 1923 which in the last 30 years consisted primarily of narcotics convictions.

Disposition of the body was awaiting a decision of relatives.

Wheels Stolen

Ramon W. Jenkins, 36, of 35 Laurie Drive, Novato, reported to police that, on Saturday night, someone jacked his 1965 Ford up on wood blocks while it was parked in his driveway and removed two wheels and tires valued at $80.

Registration For Night Adult Classes Slated

Registration for adult education classes at Redwood High School will be on the first night of classes at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 18 or 20.

Featured courses this year include "Man in Space," a non-technical study of America's space programs, and a workshop in publications and publicity for newletter editors and club publicity chairman.

Other classes offered this year are humanities, practical law, swimming, a college planning workshop for parents, needlecrafts, art, jewelry and physical conditioning for women.

Further information may be obtained from the school's administration office.

MORRIE RYSKIND

Once We Were All Americans; Where Has That Unity Gone?

In the antediluvian period of my schooldays — before Progressive Education, the UN and the Great Society had bestowed their blessings — our teachers concentrated on such trivia as the Three R's and a generally glowing account of American history, studded with alleged heroes we were urged to emulate.

Even in out later classes, patriotism was stressed. When we got around to reading Scott, we could all quote — with flamboyant gestures — the passage in "The Lay of the Last Ministrel" that begins:" Breathes there the man with soul so dead/Who never to himself hath said/This is my own, my native land!"

THIS RESULTED, inevitably, in a blatant chauvinism on the part of the young fry. The kids on my block were, ancestrally, a polyglot crew of varied backgrounds, religions and folklore, but we had a firm bond that united us: Russian Jews, German Lutherans, Irish or Italian Catholics or third-generation Wasps, we were all flagwaving Americans, fiercely proud we had been born in God's Country and so were kin to George Washington, Abe Lincoln, Teddy Roosevelt — and the New York Giants.

We couldn't understand why Teddy's birthday wasn't a national holiday on which we didn't have to go to school. For he was in the authentic tradition of 1776 — hadn't he led his Rough Riders up San Juan Hill, sweeping the Spaniards aside and proving for the umptieth time that any American could lick a hundred of any other nationality?

HAPPILY FOR YOUNGER generations, such patriotic poppycock has long been abandoned. Many eighth-graders now get their American history from "Land of the Free," a left-oriented textbook that ignores many of the Founding Fathers and concentrates instead on the manifold virtues of the Welfare State, as seen by three eminent scholastic southpaws.

It's a little late in the game for me to go completely mod, but I do try to keep up with things and I have at least learned not to be guache. I still hang out the flag on the 4th, but I get up early to do it, lest a curious crowd gather and begin making crushing remarks about super-patriots.

BUT IT SUFFERED. I will confess, a little regression this last week. I had lunch with a young Israeli lass who had served in the recent war — and she struck some visceral vestiges of patriotism in me when she began spouting much the same sort of nationalism that my generation used to voice about the U.S.A.

She didn't claim that Israel was right on all counts. Her attitude was, rather, Stephen Decatur's: "Our country! In her intercourse with foreign nations may she alwasys be in the right; but our country, right or wrong!"

She realized the dangers Israel still faces, but she was supremely confident — even cocky — about her country's ability to meet them. The metaphoric flag she waved bore the same inscription as that of one of our original colonies, "Don't tread on me!"

Not that all Israeli are united on every point. After all, I hail from an argumentative, stiff-necked tribe of whom it has been said, "The only thing you can ever get two Jews to agree on is how much a third ought to give to their favorite charity."

THERE ARE EVEN strong anti-Zionists in the Israeli Parliament, and their leader, Uri Avneri, bitterly contends that "the pan-Judaism of Zionism feeds the anti-Zionism of pan-Arabism."

They fight, in other words, like Democrats and Republicans, like liberals and conservatives — but not like hawks and doves. For, when the chips are down, they stuck together against the common foe.

Maybe — I say maybe — the Israeli have something that we, alas, seem to have lost.

TRIO AT NEW THEATER

The George Duke Trio will open this season's concert-lecture series at the College of Marin at 8 p.m. Thursday. It will be the first use of the college's new theater in the $1.9 million fine arts complex. Members of the jazz trio (from left) are John Heard, Pete Magadini and George Duke, all Marinites. Tickets will be available on a no-reservation basis beginning at 7:15 p.m. Thursday at the fine arts building box office.

Star Boosts Ballroom For Hippie Area

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Dame Judith Anderson, the Shakespearean actress, testified yesterday in favor of rock 'n' roll dances in the Straight Theater in the Haight - Ashbury District.

The theater is before the city Board of Permit Appeals protesting Police Department denial of permission to hold such dances in the theater.

Dame Judith, who now lives in Santa Barbara, said her stepson, Luther "Spike" Green, was a partner in the theater.

Asserting she saw nothing wrong with luring hippies with rock 'n' roll and then feeding them Shakespeare later, Dame Judith said: "They must be given the kind of food that they can digest."

She made it clear that she is not a hippie cult fan.

"I went through the Haight-Ashbury. I didn't see any happy faces, though I saw some fascinating faces. But I saw lots of sick faces and hideous behavior and I was appalled by all that dirt and by all those people sitting on the sidewalk, doing nothing and I asked myself what we're going to do about them . . ."

A decision was postponed for two weeks.

Greeks Hit Rulers

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) —Expatriate Greek seamen have formed an organization to combat the Greek government by fomenting strikes and boycotts aboard Greek merchant ships.

"When this organization is complete, the purpose will be to establish a general strike aboard all Greek ships outside Greek waters," said Manolis Pitharoulis, president of the United Antidictatorial Syndicalist Movement of Greek Seamen.

Art Show Plans

The third annual art show will be held at the Novato Fair Shopping Center from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sept. 23, show director Vicki Nichols said today. Monday is the closing date to apply to enter the show and judges will be William Grant Sherry of Corte Madera and Charles Bell of Mill Valley. Applications are available at the center.

Lagunitas Grading Bids To Be Opened

Bids for grading the site of the proposed Lagunitas School 10-classroom addition will be opened at 3 p.m. tomorrow, and Lagunitas School District trustees will hold a special meeting at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the school to award a contract.

Supt. Marshall J. McCuniff told the board last night that negotiations for purchase of the 12-acre site adjacent to the present school are "almost completed." The board voted $360 for engineering fees to straighten out a survey line error made several years ago. Voters passed a $235,000 bond issue last spring for the land and new construction.

Virginia Thomas was hired as the district's first full-time librarian to start work immediately at $8,300 per year and enrollment for the first day of school was reported at 494, a drop of five from the first day last year, McCuniff said.

Painting Display

Paintings, landscapes and seascapes, by Mrs. Gertrude Jorgensen of Tiburon will be on display at the Corte Madera branch of Crocker-Citizens National Bank through September.

Indian Mound Digging Deadline Is Extended

The county public works department has extended the time needed by archaeologists to complete excavation of an Indian mound at the end of Blackfield Drive, Tiburon.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said yesterday the time would be extended for whatever time is needed to finish the work.

He said the public works department would today ask the board of supervisors to extend the completion date on the excavation and grading permit for Lytton Savings and Loan Co., so the developer of Reedland Woods Unit No. 2 will not be penalized as the work proceeds.

Behr was confident approval would be given by the supervisors.

He said the head archaeologist, Prof. David A. Frederickson, had made a commitment to the developer to finish the excavation last weekend, so bulldozers could start grading Monday. But this was before "the full extent of the findings was made," Behr explained.

During the weekend, a dozen "whistles" made of Elk leg bones were found at the site, each about 14 inches long, according to Frederickson. He said the ancient whistle had a "deep mooing sound like a bull moose." The whistles were used either for ceremonial music or for hunting calls, Frederickson thought.

Another unexpected find was a clay floor two feet down in a new digging, with post-holes, indicating a rather large Inidan building had been there, Frederickson said.

Frederickson will lecture and show a movie of excavating another site to school children and the public Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Del Mar School, it was announced today by Mrs. June Buckner, board member of the school parent-teacher club, which will sponsor the event.

Wins A Horse

Bruce Maxwell, 12, son of Mrs. Miriam Maxwell of Kentfield, was awarded a registered quarter horse Sunday at the Atherton School of Riding Horse Show in Novato. The prize was awarded on the basis of Bruce having accumulated the most points in riding, horse theory and stable management over a three-month period.

Every once in a while a phone needs fixing.

We could go on and on about the millions of telephones that give trouble-free service year after year.

But if one phone goes dead and it's yours, you couldn't care less about all the other phones that don't.

We know how important your phone service is. That's why our men are constantly checking equipment and lines for what might happen; our aim is to prevent trouble before it affects your service.

But if your phone ever does go haywire, just call our Repair Service. (The number is in the front pages of your phone book.)

And there's never any extra charge for fixing your phone.

It's part of good service.

Fog Free Glasses Won For Giants' Ron Herbel

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ron Herbel's glasses weren't steaming, but Willie Mays' bat was.

Herbel shut out the Dodger on eight hits and Mays, who always seems to rise to the occasion against the Dodgers, scored the first run and drove in the second.

San Francisco's bespectacled pitcher threw his first complete game since May of 1965 last night as the Giants shut out the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-0.

It was Herbel's first shutout win since June of 1964.

"I was surprised I got the start," he confessed. "I thought Herman Franks would go with lefthanders against this club. The real reason I won was because my glasses didn't fog up.

"There was a breeze out there tonight."

Willie McCovey had a home run and a single off loser Don Drysdale, (10-15) and Mays had two doubles.

The Dodgers gave Drysdale his usual support—hardly any. In his 15 losses this year, they have provided him with only 15 runs. Last night was the fifth time this season they have failed to give him even one run.

McCovey's home run traveled over the centerfield wall, more than 410 feet. The two hits raised his lifetime average against Drysdale to .360.

His 41 hits, in 141 at bats, include 12 homers off Drysdale.

The home run, his 25th, completed a cycle for McCovey this season. He's hit a round-tripper in every park in the league.

Mays doubled with two out in the first inning and scored the game's first run on McCovey's single. In the third, Mays doubled again, driving in Jesus Alou , who had singled to open the inning.

After going to third on a wild pitch, Mays was caught off third on McCovey's roler to shortstop Gene Michael. Mays was finally tagged out by Michael after a rundown involving John Roseboro and Bob Bailey.

Don Sutton, a four-time loser to the Giants this year, will mound tonight. Sutton is 10-14 for the season, Sadecki 8-6.

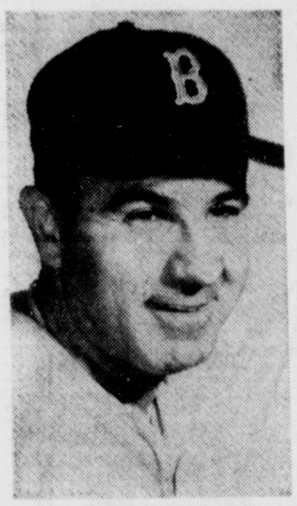
Confident Young Man That Ron Cerrudo

SPORTPOURRI — San Rafael's Ron Cerrudo has a bundle of confidence included in his golf bag of tricks. About to embark on a life-long ambition — to become a touring golf pro. — the personable 22-year-old Cerrudo estimates, "A professional tour would cost you about $10,000 in expenses per year. I think I can do better than that right now."

As an amateur this summer Ron played in only four pro tourneys but would have earned $4,100 on his finishes. Instead, as a simon-pure, the tour cost him $1,200.



CARL ANACLERIO

Don Ham, stadium announcer at all Stanford games, will lend his vocal talents to the local prep football scene this fall. He'll handle the P.A. at all of Terra Linda High's home games.

Pro football will invade the San Francisco Playboy Club. Each Thursday during the luncheon period, starting this week, filmed National Football League games will be screened for the benefit of key holders and their guests. The NFL "Game of the Week" also will be shown when the 49ers are featured.

Well, the Playboy Club seems like a good place for the 49er films for they have been playing like Bunnies lately.

An official scoreboard to keep tabs on this week's America's Cup yacht races has been set up at San Rafael's Northgate Shopping Center, between the Emporium and Roos Atkins. Provided by Qantas Airlines, the scoreboard honors the Australian Cup challenger, "Dame Pattie." A full display of the "Dame" is featured at Northgate, including garb worn by her crew. . .

A Racy Affair In Fairfax

Fairfax Festival this month will be a racy affair with AAU-sanctioned walking race on Sept. 23 and bike races Sept. 24. Many top AAU walkers will compete, including Fairfax resident Bill Ranney, holder of several records.

I like the motto of the U.S. National Senior Golf Association, to wit: "The game of a lifetime. You don't stop playing beacuse you grow old; you grow old because you stop playing."

Or, life begins at fore tee?

Yes, ye olde I-J will resume its annual fall feature, "Fearless, Peerless Pigskin Prognostications," every Friday.

Our fearless staff has been out on the training fields doing mental gymnastics and will be ready to start batting the crystal ball this week.

Defending co-champions Bob Dinsmore and Bob Alvarado can expect tougher competition this fall. I'm gunning for them.

New Job For Ex-Tomales Coach

Carl Anaclerio, former College of Marin star athlete who coached baseball at Tomales High the past six years, has accepted a position as a consultant for guidance, counseling and curriculum in a Federal Educational Project with the Pittsburg Unified School District.

Carl did an excellent job at tiny Tomales, his 1962 team winning the North Bay League II champoinship and his last four clubs finishing no lower than third place. Some of his Tomales stars who have gone on to college are Fred Rodoni, Phylos Tobler and Mike Alberigi at College of Marin, Bob Franceschi and Tim Furlong at Sonoma State and Ray Valconese at Marin and San Jose State.

New Look Ahead For Officials

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The new American Basketball Association may start a sports fashion trend this fall.

Commissioner George Mikan said today that during a press conference here Saturday "we will introduce what we believe is the new look in basketball dress for officials."

Mikan wouldn't elaborate on the new look.

A Laugher For Twins, 17 To Go

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The talk turned to streaks. As befits the manager of a club that has just won a laugher, Minnesota's Cal Ermer made a joke. As befits the manager of a club whose pennant hopes were damaged by a defeat, Chicago's Eddie Stanky did not.

"If we win 17 more, we're in," said Ermer, whose Twins, in first place in the American League by a game, have 17 games left to play. The Twins murdered Washington 13-5 yesterday so Ermer had a right to indulge his whimsy.

"That makes a winning streak necessary now," said Stanky, whose White Sox, in fourth place 2½ games behind the Twins, lost to Baltimore 6-1. "We can't afford to stagger any more."

Boston and Detroit, in second and third place respectively in the close race, were idle yesterday as were Cleveland, Kansas City, California and New York.

In the National League, Cincinnati clipped Pittsburgh 4-3, St. Louis took Philadelphia 5-1, Houston outhit Chicago 11-10 and San Francisco blanked Los Angeles 4-0. Atlanta and New York were idle.

Minnesota's Dean Chance gave up five unearned runs in the first inning, but the Twins came back for seven runs in the fourth and four more in the fifth to win their third straight game.

Harmon Killebrew had three hits and drove in two runs and Bob Allison had three hits and three RBI as the Twins ganged up on five Senators' pitchers. Rich Reese hit a key two-run double, his fifth pinch hit in his last eight tries.

Chance, knocked out after three innings, may see some action in the bullpen during the next couple of days, according to Ermer, who gave a lot of his players half the game off when the big-scoring innings were over.

The White Sox fell victim to three runs batted in by the Orioles' Frank Robinson, who homered and doubled. Jim Hardin stopped the Sox on four hits as only 4,048 turned out to see the home-town contenders.

"That's twice that young man has beaten us," said Stanky. "And I guess Frank Robinson is going after that second batting title. I hope he clinches it when Baltimore plays Detroit and Boston."

Cal's Steakhouse Leads Rec League

Cal's Steakhouse upped its record to a perfect 6-0 by whipping the winless San Rafael Jaycees in the San Rafael Recreation Department's 16-inch Slow Pitch League last night at Albert Field.

In other games, Dexter Pontiac whipped the Harding Gophers, 7-1, and E and E Chevron blanked Fairchild, 8-0.

CONSTANTINE

King Has Close Call On Intrepid

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The bear-trap on the stern of Intrepid, the United States defender of the America's Cup, claimed its most distinguished victim today just before the 12-meter sloop left its dock for its race against Dame Pattie of Australia.

King Constantine of Greece, stepped on a small plastic covering that gave way over an open section of the deck.

The King was unhurt and saved himself from a spill by clutching the backstay.

A look of surprise on the King's face gave way tto laughter. Skipper Bus Mosbacher and his crew joined in the merriment and assured the King no damage had been done.

To save a few precious pounds of weight, a plastic covering was used instead of planking on a small area of the stern deck.

The King, an avid sailor, was a gold medal winner in the Dragon Class of the 1960 Olympics. He had stopped briefly to wish Mosbacher and crew well. Mosbacher's wife, Pat, who witnessed the mishap assured the King "only the best people fall in there."

Water Ski Tournament At Bel Marin

Some top-flight, champion-style water ski talent will be on hand for the Third Annual Bel-Marin Keys Open Water Ski Tournament at Bel-Marin Keys Saturday and Sunday.

Entered in the lists are 1967 World Champ Mike Suyderhoud of San Anselmo, senior women's champion Thelma Selmas of Novato, Chuck Stearns of Salton Sea, and '67 Master Slalom champ, Kris LaPoint of Castro Valley.

A special novice slalom and jump event will be held Sunday for skiers entering their first tournament.

Tickets for a special banquet honoring Suyderhoud Saturday can be obtained at the tournament site.

Admission for the tournament is free.

Businesswomen Golf Meet Winners

Mrs. Rae Purdy and Mrs. Robert Keller tied for top honors in the Indian Valley Businesswomen's Golf Club's 18-hole tournament Saturday with identical scores of 95-26—69.

Second was Miss Audrey Mullins with a 98-24—74, followed by Mrs. Arthur Sears with a 96-19—75.

'Progress,' Says Eckert

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert, attempting to hammer out a compromise agreement between owner Charles O. Finley of Kansas City and the A's ballplayers, said "the parties continued to make progress" after a hearing in the dispute ended this morning.

The hearing resumed at 9:15 a.m., EDT, after a 12-hour meeting yesterday attended by Finley; Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Players Association; Joe Cronin, president of the American League; Jack Aker, Kansas City pitcher and player representative, and lawyers representing several of the interested parties.

"The parties will report back to me later today and I hope to have a report at that time," Eckert said after the meeting today which lasted about two hours. "I don't think there will be another meeting in this office tonight."

BATTLE

Eckert had called the session in the wake of the fight between Finley and his players that had left pitcher Lew Krausse suspended and then reinstated, first baseman-outfielder Ken Harrelson traded and Manager Alvin Dark fired.

Miller has filed an unprecedented unfair labor practices charge against Finley with the National Labor Relations Board and Eckert's avowed purpose was to end the feud before it got as far as that non-baseball body.

"I can't say if the meetings will be concluded," Eckert said at the end of the meeting yesterday. "Our purpose is to bring the parties together to reach an agreement."

DRINKING

The origin of the fight between the volatile club owner and his players occurred last month when Finley suspended Krausse after an alleged drinking incident on a plane.

The players, incensed at Finley's action, issued a statement criticizing him. That in turn led to a lengthy meeting during which Finley fired Dark and released Harrelson, who later signed with the Boston Red Sox.

Krausse was reinstated when he issued a statement saying Finley was justified in fining him $500 and suspending him. Later, though, Krausse charged Finley had coerced him into making the statement, saying, "He's through scaring me."

Miller then filed his charge with the NLRB, stating Finley "threatened individual employees in an attempt to coerce them into withdrawing their pending grievances."

The players and Finley both appealed to Eckert to help resolve the dispute. Eckert refused to say exactly what had been discussed at the meeting yesterday or if the two parties were close to a settlement.

Stretch In Briles' Arm Doing Job For Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The stretch in Nelson Briles' arm is taking the stretch out of the National League pennant race.

The front-running St. Louis Cardinals stopped the Philadelphia Phillies 5-1 last night and cut the number of wins they need to win the pennant to eight. But Phillie Manager Gene Mauch doesn't think it will go that far.

"If they win three or four more, they'll win more than anybody else will."

The Cardinals got a big lift just at the time their pennant hopes looked like they would go down the drain. Briles came out of the bullpen in July when starter Bob Gibson was sidelined with a broken right leg.

As a starter, Briles is 8-2 (he's 12-5 over-all) and he has seven straight victories. As a starter his earned run average is 1.59.

"My arm has stretched out," Briles said. "The muscles have stretched out. When you're in the bullpen you don't get the elasticity to go long distances. You have strength, but not stamina," the 24-year-old right-hander went on. "After three or four game you are alright."

Briles lost two of his first three starts this year and was unable to finish a game until he beat the Giants in San Francisco on Aug. 22. Now he has pitched a complete game in four of his last five starts. He went eight innings the other time.

But Briles wasn't satisfied with himself. "I just wasn't in a good groove all night. I couldn't get my breaking ball over. But it came out all right."

Catcher Tim McCarver, who had four hits including one that started a three-run burst off loser Chris Short, 7-10, in the fourth, went along with Briles. "He kept on falling behind, but he came back. Yes, he was having trouble getting his curve over."

Terra Linda Has Versatile High-Powered Grid Offense

(Last in a series on Marin County Athletic League football prospects.)

By GARY TISCHLER

Terra Linda High School has all the ready-made ingredients for a champoinship team — except the one ingredient that helped it to share of last year's Marin County Athletic League.

The Trojans have a capable "new" old coach in Don Lucas, who is about as new to Trojan football as a landmark. They have another swift stable of running backs, a better-throwing quarterback, two all-league performers, another traditionally tough front wall on offense, another all-league material at one linebacker spot.

And somewhere, line coach Jess Payan, is going to have to mold a defensive line, from tackle to tackle.

A great defensive line helped the Trojans demoralize some pretty high-powered offenses last year, and more than made up for a sometimes spotty offense in a 7-2 season.

Lucas, a young, enthusiastic fellow who was the Trojans' top aide last year, isn't predicting titles but he does figure a more high-powered, versatile offense will help shore up that one little old weakness, which is not really much of a weakness.

The Trojans will have Dave Edson throwing the ball and Lucas considers him a bit better at chucking the ball than was Chris Bowman, a fine field general and runner, last year.

The flock of backs that will be toting the mail includes Rod Powell, a chunky solid 185-poinder, at fullback. To go with him are Marc Buckley, Ken Murray, Gary Trono, to name a few, all of them experienced, fast and good for the big breakaway.

DEFENSIVE STARS

The Trojans may have trouble up the middle and out deep defensively but there won't be too many runners going around and past the line to far, not with Powell at one linebacker and all-MCAL defensive end Bruce Kilby manning his usual position.

Kilby helped make mish-mash out of the finest quarterback talent in the league last year, helping to force 500-yard Steve Woodward of Tamalpais and all-league signal caller Bill Joost of San Rafael into their worst nights with aggressive, hands-up charging.

BEST LINEBACKER

Both Lucas and Payan consider Powell the best linebacker they've had, which is saying a lot when you consider they had a fellow named Jim Sherbert last year, who was no slouch at that spot.

"As a whole, we're about the same size," Lucas said. "We'll again be using a lot of backs. The defense is pretty strong although perhaps not as a strong as last year."

The same size is somewhere between 180-200, something that is getting to be a Terra Linda tradition of fast, chunky, hard-hitting linemen.

Payan, who does have another all-leaguger in offensive tackle Greg Barker, still isn't sure about the line.

BOTH WAYS

"There's no way we can really platoon," he said. "We'll be trying a lot of boys both ways. We really don't have the overall linebacking strength. Our defensive line is unsettled but the offense is real good."

To help out on that offensive line are people like returning starters John Weekley (guard) and Larry Collins, and tackle Bill Saleme in addition to Barker.

A tough schedule that includes San Francisco Poly, and South San Francisco, the 10th-ranked high school team in the state, could make the Trojans even tougher.

The South San Francisco game could be a crucial one. The Trojams face Drake right after that one.

Still, it would seem fool-hardy to bet against the Trojans. There are enough Trojan horses to make another serious run for the MCAL title.

NOVATO GOLFER LEACH HONORED BY MAGAZINE

Golf star Ray Leach of Novato has been named "Teen-age Athlete of the Month" by Sport Magazine in its October issue.

The award, presented for outstanding achievement in athletics, sportsmanship and citizenship, went to the 17-year-old who twice came within just a few strokes of qualifying for the U.S. Open.

The magazine noted that Leach maintains a B average at Novato High School where he is a senior and ". . . refuses to go overboard with golf at the expense of his studies."

Sport also listed Leach's junior golfing titles, including the California state, the Marin County, the California Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Southwest Classic and the Fresno City championships, among others.

Expansion Plans For Baseball

NEW YORK (AP) — A four-man committee has been named by Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert to study the expansion of major-league baseball to include two 12-team leagues.

Named to the committee were Calvin Griffith, president of the Minnesota Twins; Judge Roy Hofheinz, president of the Houston Astros; Lee MacPhail, vice president and general manager of the New York Yankees; and Charles "Chub" Feeney, general manager of the San Francisco Giants.

Eckert told the committee to "recommend the earliest feasibility and merits of expansion."

Purdue coach Jack Mollenkopf has coached the Boilermaker football team the last 11 seasons.

Channel Attempt

DOVER, England (AP) — Nitindra Roy, a 27-year-old Indian, set off from Dover yesterday night hoping to swim the English Channel to France and back. He planned to do the round trip in 27 hours, with just a three minute rest on the French side.

Five-Day Horse Ride Slated For Marin

About 75 riders from throughout the Bay Area will join in five days of riding horses over West Marin hills beginning Sept. 20 in Olema.

The Frontier Boys, a men's riding organization, will go out on separate trail rides each day, camping out at night at the Boyd Steart ranch at Olema, said trail boss, William B.

Tennis Needs More Appeal For Amateurs—Billie Jean

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Billie Jean King, queen of the tennis world, said last night steps should be taken to make the game more appealing for amateurs.

"Personally, I feel we have to go to open tennis," she said in an interview between matches of an exhibition appearance with three Wightman Cub teammates.

"It's funny, everything is going pro in this country," she said. "Just look a golf in the last 10 years. More people play tennis than golf, but you'd never know it."

Mrs. King, Wilmbledon champion the last two years and fresh from he straight-set victory Sunday over England's Ann Haydon Jones for the U.S. title, said it seemed most parents want their children to play football or baseball "because of all the money involved."

"This," she added, "is the reason I think we're going to have to make it (tennis) more appealing."

Late Deer Season Opens Soon; Tips On Preserving Trophies

STEVENS

One-half before sunrise on Sept. 23 will be zero hour for the start of the late deer season. (Refer to booklet 1967 Hunting Regulations for detailed areas). Some big mule deer will be killed during the late season, and judging by the number of queries, a number of deer heads will be preserved for the taxidermist, and a number of skins sent to a tannery outfit to be made into leather jackets, moccasins, golves, handbags, rugs or trophies to be mounted as a reminder of your skill as a big game hunter.

Also, it's almost a certainty that the meat of the beastie will be spoiled by careless handling of the carcass, and apropos of the above, a recent release from the office of Leslie Foods, Inc. 505 Beach St. in San Francisco, by Nancy K. Reynes, is timely Here is that release:

"DO YOU want a leather jacket, moccasins, gloves, handbag, rug or trophy to remind you of this year's hunting trip?

"Then follow directions spelled out in Leslie's Sportsmen's Guide to Care of Trophies, Hides and Meat.

"There will be thousands of deer downed during the season, but unless hunters take at least minimal care of their kill, thousands of pounds of venison will be spoiled, few hides will ever become leather, and hundreds of heads will be found unsuitable of mounting.

"YOU CAN have, free of charge, a booklet on the care of deer carcasses by merely sending a self-addressed legal-size envelope to Leslie Foods, Inc, Dept. 33, P.O. Box 364, Newark, California.

"If you have made a clean kill and wish the hide tanned into leather for the above items, or would have the head mounted, bear well in mind the following suggestions: Don't drag the animal. Clean the flesh side of the pelt thoroughly and cover with salt — use about a half pound of salt per pound of pelt. Leave to dry in open air, away from the sun. Re-salt and roll (don't fold or crumple) when ready to start home. Get hide to tannery as soon as possible."

FOLLOWING ARE a few names and addresses of taxidermist-tanners. In East Bay the Nordquiat Taxidermy Studio, 23800 Hesperian Boulevard, Hayward, or the Outer's Taxidermy Shop, 2543 Seminary Avenue, Oakland.

In the San Francisco area, there is the Frank Tannery — Leather Tanners, 149 California Street, and the Legallet Tanning Co., 1099 Quesada Avenue.

Baseball Divisional Playoffs Proposed

At their recent meeting in Chicago, National and American League baseball owners wound up shouting at each other. Not all of them. Horace Stoneham never shouts. "Holy Mackerel," is the strongest epithet Stoneham ever uses and then always softly.

However, Arthur Allyn of the White Sox had some heated words with Francis Dale, the new president of the Cincinnati Reds. And there were other exchanges that resulted from a divisional playoff proposal preceding the World Series.

Warren Giles, president of the National League, felt the proposal by Joe Cronin, president of the American League, would not enhance the World Series, particularly if a couple of No. 3 finishers won the playoffs and wound up as baseball's representstives in October classic.

The prospect of any playoff this season certinaly would not get the endorsement of St. Louis fans whose beloved Cardinals made a runaway of the National League race this year. And any playoff in the American League this season surely would be anticlimactic to what is going on there now.

NEVERTHELESS, divisional playoffs in both leagues ultimately will come with expansion to 12-team circuits which William D. Eckert, commissioner of baseball, envisions.

Western and eastern divisions in the National and American Leagues will be mandatory with expansion. Six-team divisions could be handled practically. One 12-team league would present serious scheduling problems.

ECKERT NAMED a four-man committee the other day to study expansion and its merits. He directed the committee to report to him the earliest feasible expansion date. He made no mention of the inevitable divisional playoffs expansion will make necessary.

Eckert's predecessor, Ford Frick, predicted in 1962 that the major leagues would expand to 12 teams each "within the foreseeable future." And Frick frankly acknowledged at the time, expansion would logically lead to divisional playoffs to determine who would meet in the World Series.

"IT WOULD be much the same as professional football, except we would have two leagues," said Frick.

In 1962 the National and American Football Leagues had their differences. But now their title winners of divisional playoffs meet in the Super Bowl, pro football's answer to baseball's World Series.

The four-man committee appointed by Eckert will hold its first meeting after the 1967 World Series. Its members are Calvin Griffith of the Minnesota Twins; Roy Hofheinz of the Houston Astros; Lee MacPhail of the New York Yankees, and Charles Stoneham Feeney of the San Francisco Giants.

FEENEY IS acutely aware of the divisional structure that expansion involves. He may be expected to insist on one very important point—that the Dodgers and Giants be bracketed in the same division, not just on geographical grounds but because of the way baseball's oldest rivals usually pack in the customers despite this year's dropoff in attendance at Giant-Dodger games.

Rams Deal McDonald To Falcons

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tommy McDonald, a pint-sized pass catcher who seldom stands still on the football field, is on the move again— off the gridiron.

The 5-foot-9 speedster with sure hands that have caught more passes than all but three National Footbal League players in history, was bouncing toward Atlanta today after the Los Angeles Rams dealt him to the Falcons for a high draft choice.

The former Oklahoma hero, moving into the twilight of a glory-filled NFL career, was a victim of cutdown day as teams jockeyed to reach the 40-player limit yesterday.

Another veteran, middle linebacker Vince Costello, who anchored Cleveland's defense through many a winning season, also felt the bite as the Browns sent him to the linebacker-starved New York Giants, also for a draft choice.

ACTIVE GIANTS

The Giants, easily the most active of teams a week before the NFL season opens, also picked up defensive end Bruce Anderson from the Rams and safety Dave Hathcock from Green Bay for draft picks.

To make room for them, the Giants sent veteran tackle Jim Colvin back to Dallas because of a bad knee, placed third-string quarterback Tom Kennedy on injured waivers and dropped defensemen Ted Holman, Joe Siesel and Bob Trygstad.

The Browns obtained end Ron Duncan from Philadelphia for a draft pick in another deal.

Dallas gave offensive guard Curtis Marker and end Sims Stokes, its fourth and sixth-round draft choices ,their walking papers.

Detroit cut veteran center Mike Alford, Pittsburgh dropped veteran Gene Breen and Philadelphia axed defenseman Jim Kearney among others.

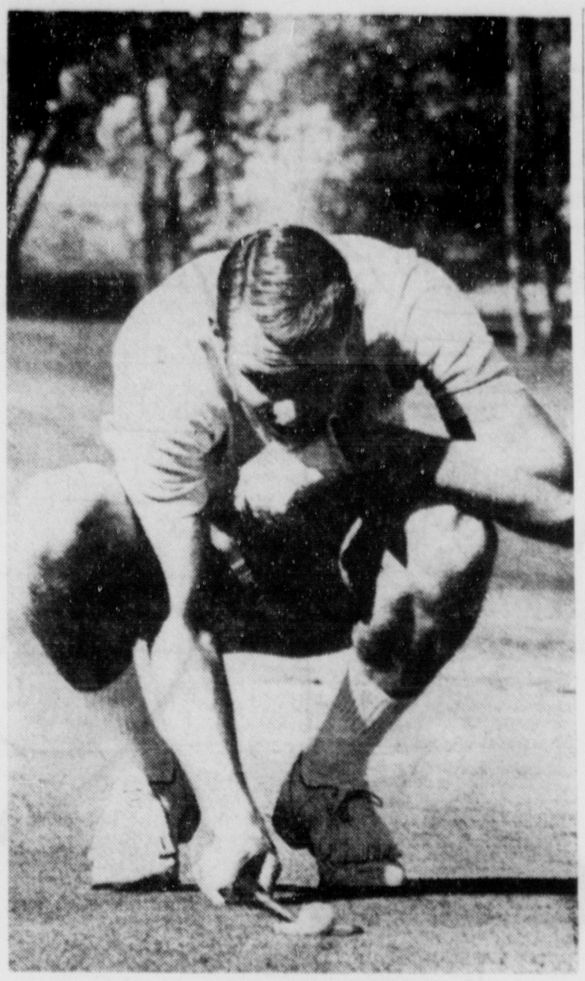
SECOND TO BERRY

McDonald, whose 455 receptions rank second to Ray Berry of Baltimore among active players, built a reputation for his spectacular long-distance catches and the way he bounced quickly to his feet after each catch, regardless of how hard he was hit.

The 175-pound, 33-year-old flanker, entering his 11th NFL season, caught most of his passes in seven years with Philadelphia before moving to Dallas for one season. He spent the last two years with the Rams and hauled in 55 passes last season. But Los Angeles used him in only one preseason contest this year and he managed a single reception.

Costello, a 35-year-old who spent nine seasons with the Browns, most of them as a starter, lost the regular job this year to younger Dale Lindsay.

The Giants, looking for immediate help, hope he can fill a gap left by injuries to three linebackers in 10 days with two of them out for the season.



HE'LL SIT THIS ONE OUT

After telling newsmen he would not return to play for the San Francisco Warriors, National Basketball Association scoring champion Rick Barry relaxed in the Willow Park golf course in Castro Valley yesterday. Barry said he will sit out the 1967-68 season with the Oakland Oaks of the new American Basketball League. He signed with the Oaks last June but was restrained by a Superior Court judge from playing with anyone except the Warriors until his San Francisco reserve clause expires Sept. 30, 1968. Boccabella Has Grand Minors Finale

San Anselman John Boccabella ended his stay in the Pacific Coast League on a rousing note before being recalled by the Chicago Cubs last week.

Boccabella rapped out 12 hits in 36 at bats for a .333 pace last week, a spree that included three homers, a triple, a double and eight runs batted in.

The grand finale left him with a mark of .281 for his stay with the Tacoma, Wash., club. He wound up with 55 hits in 196 at bats, good for 12 doubles, two triples, seven homers and 31 runs batted in.

For Ben Burch, it was not so hot a week.

Burch, former Marin Catholic star, made only one appearance for Batavia, N.Y., in Class A play, hurling five innings, allowing four hits and six bases on balls and ballooning his season earned run average to 4.63.

Ron Cole of Mill Valley appeared in four games, allowing 11 hits in 12 innings. Cole struck out 13 batters in that span. His season ERA is 3.45.

Getting Crowded

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Tourist reservations for lodging during the 1968 Olympic Games now number 39,000 with 30,000 more expected in the next few months, according to Ramon Alatorre, director of the Olympic Committee's office of lodging control.

Christiansen Says He's Eager To Trade

The San Francisco 49ers, 2-3 in the pre-season grind, are willing, if not eager, to make trades.

"I'd trade any draft choice for a good player," Coach Jack Christiansen said yesterday. He said he was especially looking for pass receivers, but he added glumly "so is every other team."

Christiansen has Dave Parks at split end and Dick Witcher has replaced the injured Kay McFarland at flanker. But there is nobody to back these men up.

The Rams yesterday swapped flanker Tommy McDonald to Atlanta, but Los Angeles and San Francisco rarely trade with each other, apparently because of the fear an ex-Ram or ex-49er will murder his old team during one of the three annual meetings between the California rivals.

Los Angeles rolled over San Francisco 34-7 Saturday night, but Christiansen said yesterday he still felt his team could be in contention for the Coastal Division title if it stays healthy.

San Anselmo Youth Is Big Grand Slam Star

Fourteen-year-old John Loane of San Rafael took top prize in his age group by a big margin in the North Coast Persona Grand Slam Baseball Contest held at Golden Gate Park Sunday.

Loane outdistanced the second-place winner by 136 points, amassing 580 points in competition in the baseball throw, base running and hitting.

Eight-year-old Mark Carli of Terra Linda took first in his division and his brother, Matt, was runnerup in the nine-year-old division.

The victories may make Loane and Mark Carli eligible for national competition in Washington, D.C., depending on the accumulation of national composite scores.

At stake in the national competition would be scholarships worth up to $5,000.

Terra Linda's Boosters Meet

Terra Linda High School's Trojan Boosters Association will hold its first general meeting of the year tonight, 8 o'clock, at the school cafeteria, President Bill Saleme announced yesterday.

"Our basic purpose is to give support to the school's athletic endeavors," Saleme explained, "and if we can capture only part of the spirit exhibited by the students, the Boosters should have no trouble at all in swelling our ranks to the 500 figure." There are presently 200 members, Saleme said.

Tonight's meeting will include plans for football season and further discussion on proposed golf contests, a pancake breakfast and an awards banquet for the fall sports participants.

BIFF BUFF

"For Pete's sake, the Giants have two on, two out and a 3-2 count in the last of the night. How can you think of food at a time like this?"

Bears Prepare For Oregon

BERKELEY (AP) — Coach Ray Willsey is drilling his California Bears today on plays they can expect to see when they open their football season against the University of Oregon.

The coach moved Greg Hatfield from offensive tackle to defensive tackle.

He also said Dennis Bugbee would be moved from offensive to defensive tackle, although Bugbee will miss Saturday's game because of a knee injury.

Stanford Has Injury Problems

STANFORD (AP) — The season hasn't even started and already Stanford's Indians are having injury problems.

Quarterback Chuck Williams suffered a hip pointer and flanker Bill Shoemaker a sprained ankle in Saturday's scrimmage.

Both may miss Stanford's opener next Saturday night at Portland against Oregon State.

Today is Thursday, Sept. 12, the 255th day of 1967 with 110 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn. The evening stars are Saturn and Mars.

French actor Maurice Chevalier was born on this day in 1888.

On this day in history:

In 1609, explorer Henry Hudson discovered what is now known as the Hudson River.

In 1814, American forces successfully defended Baltimore against the British in the War of 1812.

In 1958, the U.S. Supreme Court rejected an appeal from Little Rock, Ark., to delay the integration of Central High School, later the scene of racial violence.

In 1966, America's Gemini II docked in space with Agena and 14 died in an Anchorage, Alaska, hotel fire.

A thought for the day — Napoleon Bonaparte said: "Unite for the public safety, if you would remain an independent nation."

TIME AND TIDE

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE
By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Even A Novice Sometimes Can Come Up With Correct Idea

A beginner sometimes wastes his trumps by ruffing in his own hand. He runs out of trumps, loses control of the hand and causes his partner to make uncouth noises. All very sad, but this doesn't mean that declarer must never, never ruff in his own hand.

FIRS TTRICK

The average experienced player would win the first trick with the ace of hearts, take the ace of clubs and give up a club. He would later ruff a club in dummy and try to draw trumps. Too late he would discover that West has a sure trump trick and that he must also lose a club and two diamonds.

The beginner and the expert would start the hand properly. At the second trick declarer must ruff one of dummy's small hearts.

South's next step is to give up a low club. East wins and returns a trump to South's ace. South cashes the ace of clubs, ruffs a club in dummy and then ruffs another heart.

TESTS TRUMPS

Declarer can now afford to test the trumps by leading out the king. When East shows out, South does not panic. He leads a diamond to dummy's ace and ruffs a heart for the third time.

By this time South has taken nine tricks and still has the queen of spades in his hand. Nothing can defeat the contract.

TRUMP PLAY

The time to draw trumps quickly is when you must prevent the defenders from ruffing your tricks in the side suits. In this hand declarer's aces will take tricks even if he leaves the trumps out. South can therefore afford to take precautions against bad trump breaks. The way to do so is to win the low trumps in the South hand by way of safe ruffs.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ 7 2
♥ A J 6 3
♦ 5 2
♣ A Q 8 5 4

What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass.

This is a borderline opening bid, and most experts would open it with five hearts and four diamonds but not with four hearts and five diamonds. It is difficult to find safe rebids with the actual hand, and no law compels you to open a borderline hand when you see danger ahead.

Autos Pace Gainers In Busy Market Day

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher today in active trading.

Chrysler was up more than a point. Ford also held a gain of a point or so. General Motors was up a fraction.

Tenneco rode high on volume, keeping a good gain on an advisory service recommendation.

Occidental Petroleum was up substantially again in a follow through to its rally of last week.

Gains outnumbered losers about 7 to 5 in the over-all list. The Dow Jones industrial average held a moderate gain.

Benguet paced the list on volume and was unchanged.

Flying Tiger was active and up about 2 points. Gains of a point or so were made by General Dynamics, Boeing, RCA, Raytheon, Westinghouse Electric, Xerox, United Air Lines and Pfizer.

Harris Intertype lost about 2 points and General Cable a point or more in active trading.

IBM was off 2 and Owens-Illinois glass 1.

Allis-Chalmers posted a gain of about a point in brisk trading. Hazeltine and Magnavox also were active and up about a point.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Airline Record

SAN FRANCISCO — American Airlines chalked up a company monthly record for passengers boarded at San Francisco International Airport during August accommodating 59,079 passengers for an average load factor of 77 per cent on 22 flights a day.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

At 34, Best Bet Is Growth Stocks

By ROGE RE. SPEAR

Q. "I am 34, single and own E bonds, $12,000 savings, Kroger, American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, Brooklyn Union Gas. I would like to round out my holdings by buying a cement, drug, tobacco or any other stock you care to suggest." G. R.

A. I should first like to offer some suggestions about your present holdings, if I may. I believe that at your age and in your situation you should aim for much stronger growth than is represented by your present list.

Bethlehem Steel is a good stock in a cyclical industry where profit margins have been under pressure from rising costs.

Kroger, like other food chains, has been hurt by intensified competiton. I believe you will be better off with Jewel Companies which is in much the same business but appears to be expanding more aggressively.

I would avoid cement and tobacco shares which are faced with problems particular to each industry. I like the drug group for growth and suggest Norwich Pharmacal also Plough, Inc., in drugs and cosmetics; and Georgia-Pacific, a leader in timber products.

Q. "Will you give me your opinion of Kansai Electric Power of Japan? I am retired and have pension, Social Security, annuities and income from blue chips. I am now buying Virginia Electric and Power, Texas Utilities and possibly American Electric Power." K. N.

A. Kansai Electric Power, the second largest utility in Japan, is in my opinion a good holding for relatively high yield, if that is required. Kansai ADR's are subject to a withholding tax on dividends but are exempt from the interest equalization tax if bought from a United States holder.

The shares have some attraction because of stock dividends and rights, but I believe a person in your circumstances will find greater growth and more satisfactory long term performance with American Electric Power, or another good domestic utility.

ITT Sets Up New Divisions

NUTLEY, N.J. — International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. defense-space group has formed two new divisions — ITT Avionics Division and ITT Defense Communications Division.

ITT Avionics Division is responsible for research, development and manyfacturing of systems and equipment for navigation, electronic defense and anti-submarine warfare.

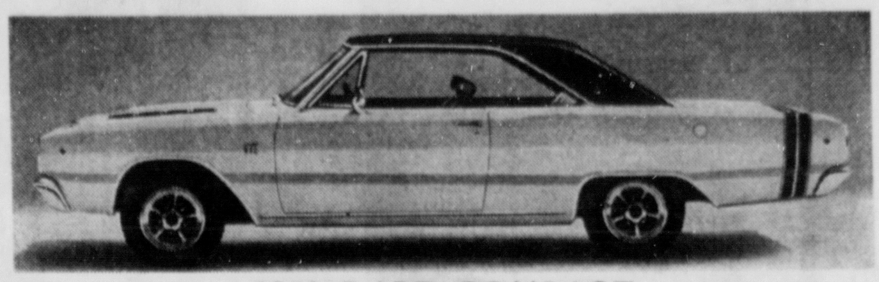
ITT Defense Communications Division conducts research, development and manufacturing of satellite communication systems, computer-based message and circuit switching systems, and tropospheric-scatter and line-of-sight radio communications systems.

Dow Dividend

SAN FRANCISCO — The board of directors of the Dow Chemical Co. has declared a dividend of 55 cents per share on Dow common stock, payable Oct. 31 to stockholders of record at the close of business on Sept. 29.

1968 PONTIAC EXECUTIVE

Executive models include a four-door sedan, four-door hardtop (shown above), hardtop coupe, two-seat station wagon and three-seat station wagon. Standard engine for the series is a 400-cubic-inch V-8 with two-barrel carburetion rated at 290 horsepower. Pontiacs will be shown at Dexter Pontiac-GMC, San Rafael on Sept. 21.



1968 DART COMPACT

There are three sedan, three hardtop and two convertible Dodge Dart models this year, including the above sporty GTS. All retain the 111-inch wheelbase but styling is new and a choice of six different engines is available. Several safety features have been added. Darts will go on sale at Marin Dodge, San Rafael and Nave Dodge, Novato, on Thursday.

New Civil Engineering Firm Opens Office In San Rafael

A new civil engineering firm, Site Engineering, Inc., has established offices at 3562 Redwood Highway, San Rafael.

The corporation was recently formed to carry on the existing business of the late Robert Parlett of Richmond, who died in July. Principals in the firm are Phillip B. Lygren of Terra Linda, president, who has been long established as a practicing civil engineer in the county; Paul Tanner of Richmond, formerly associated with Parlett; and Robert S. Berini of Novato, secretary-treasurer.

All have been engaged in civil engineering work for a number of years.

A NEW State Farm Insurance Agency will open in the Pacheco Plaza Shopping Center, Ignacio about Oct. 1. In charge will be Kenneth A. Leslie of Novato, who has been working out of the Terra Linda office. Lease was handled by the Walter Kieckhefer Co.

ALTHOUGH ANTIQUES will continue to represent a part of their business, Edward and Helene Nowell, who have Novell's at 314 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, are now settling down to one particular specialty — lamps.

They sell them, make them, repair them, plate them, supply missing parts or make new ones to fit. If you have a fancy bottle or water heater or thingamajig you believe will make an attractive decorative piece around the house, they'll illuminate it for you. Antique lamps, custom lamps, contemporary lamps — whatever you're looking for — you may find in their store or shop.

This week they were expecting additional stocks to supplement their extensive supply of lamp shades — all kinds.

A LANDMARK San Rafael business is celebrating another anniversary next weekend — West End Nursery at 1938 Fifth Avenue.

This has been in the same location and same family for 58 years. While Karl and Anne Untermann, the present owners, haven't had it themselves all that time, Karl started to work for his uncle Richard Lohrmann back in 1928, and he and his wife have operated it for at least 12 years. Now sons Dennis and Tom are involved in it, too. Dennis has taken the Best of Show award at the Marin Art and Garden Fair for the past two years, and Tom works at the nursesy when he isn't attending University of California at Davis.

They are celebrating the anniversary Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

THE STATE'S EXAMINATION for the real estate license will be changed Jan. 1, according to information received from the Division of Real Estate by Ed Sabo, manager of the local branch of Anthony Schools.

Sabo reports that a somewhat later change is planned for the broker examination. New examinations won't be any easier — quite the contrary, in keeping with the state's efforts to upgrade license standards. According to Sabo, figures show that over 40 per cent of the salesman examinees and 50 per cent of the broker examinees fail their state tests. He reports that Anthony has a high level of successful applicants to its credit and is developing a revised course to meet the new requirements.

BASALT ROCK CO., Inc., Napa has acquired the Santa Rosa Building Materials Co. and the Santa Rosa Ready Mix Concrete Co. There will be no change in personnel or service at either plant. Edgar Imrie, who headed the building materials firm and was co-owner with Roy Redford of the concrete company, will continue as manager of both plants, assisted by Redford.

MOTORCRAFT, Campbell Bishop Chevrolet Co., Corte Madera, is sponsoring a club called "Camaros of Marin." Membership is open to all Camaro owners in the county. Campbell-Bishop sales executive Stan Wisnes is advisor to the club. Marin Motorsports, Inc., San Rafael, placed third in a competition of almost 200 Honda motorcycle dealerships in the northwestern states. Contest was based on sales volume, operation efficiency and quality and training of personnel.

INSURANCE. Independent Insurance Association of Marin is sponsoring technical seminar at Dominic's in San Rafael Sept. 18. Insurance specialists will give their interpretation, ideas and experience in handling problems of the contractor. Peter P. Cudia and Michael E. Bronk of Novato, representatives of the Novato agency of John Hancock Mutual Life, will be honored as sales leaders at a three-day conference in Monterey this week.

Varian Buys Krupp Company

PALO ALTO — Varian has purchased Mess-und Analysentechnik Division of Fried. Krupp of Essen, Germany.

MAT, a scientific instrument manufacturer, located in Bremen, was purchased for cash. It is an important European developer and manufacturer of high sensitivity scientific instruments used for sophisticated research applications.

Annual sales volume for MAT is running in the $4 to $5 million range.

WE'RE OUT TO BREAK OUR YEAR-LONG SALES RECORD!

McPHAIL'S SEPTEMBER Sellathon

OF FRIGIDAIRE APPLIANCES

Our fiscal year ends September 30th and we're out to break our own year-long sales record (set in 1966). When we asked the boss if we could make special plans, he said "GO AHEAD . . . BUT BREAK THAT RECORD!" We asked Frigidaire to cooperate in this effort and they delivered 2 CARLOADS of hot new '68 appliance bargains. Hottest in our history! Now, you can help us set a new record and CASH IN ON HUGE SAVINGS FOR YOURSELF from a gigantic selection of "just-delivered" merchandise (witness picture above). Including Frigidaire Ranges, Freezers, Refrigerators and Laundry Equipment.

LIKED GI LIFE

CAP Cadet Trio Home From Dixie

One week of military discipline at a Civil Air Patrol encampment in Alabama would seem enough to drive anyone into the Peace Corps, but two Marin CAP cadets who went still are interested in military careers.

"It wasn't rough at all," insisted Brice E. Bennett, 16, a junior at Sir Francis Drake High School. Fifteen-year-old Erik F. Wilkinson Jr. simply commented "yech" when he recalled getting up every day at 4:50 a.m. for a half hour of physical training.

SQUADRON MEMBERS

Brice's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Bennett, 875 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo. Eric, a freshman at Terra Linda High School, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric F. Wilkinson Sr., 1103 Via Horqueta, San Rafael.

The third cadet on the trip was William J. Kelly, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kelly, 20 Rudnick Avenue, Novato. He is a senior at Novato High School.

The three are members of Marin Composite Squadron No. 4 at Hamilton Air Force Base. They were picked from the 28 cadets on the basis of seniority and certain achievement tests.

True to military life, they had to be at Hamilton Aug. 27 at 6:30 a.m. to take a C-124 troop carrier leaving at 8 a.m. It finally got into the air at 10:30 a.m.

After a cold lunch during the 10-and-a-half-hour non-stop flight to the encampment at Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, the cadets were marched off for processing and dinner. Then, before getting to sleep, they had to make their beds — "racks" — tight enough to please an inspecting officer.

BARRACKS COOL

At least the barracks were air-conditioned.

What did they learn during the week? "We learned to make our beds," said Eric. They also had "orientations" at the Air University and War College.

"I spent three hours in a hydraulic section learning how to take apart a brake," Eric added.

"We had one hour left for recreations the whole time we were there," said Brice, "and by the time they got through lining us up at the swimming pool, and reading regulations, we had only 40 minutes left."

ALABAMA LECTURE

But he maintains he still wants to make a career in the air force or army. His father served many years in the army, he noted.

"My father served three years, 11 months and 10 days," said Eric. "But I am still thinking about a military career. And also about getting into the Peace Corps."

The cadets got off base to tour the state capitol. "No, not a tour," said Brice, "instead we got indoctrinated on why Alabama is the greatest state in the union, and why California is one of the worst. We didn't say anything, just smiled."

They did not meet Gov. Lurline Wallace, but did receive CAP certificates of accomplishment at the end of the week.

Seven Burglaries Net $10,000-Plus In Loot

Seven burglaries including looting of a near $10,000 worth of items from a Sleepy Hollow home were reported today by sheriff's officers.

H. Bruce Miniberg, tax accountant residing at 930 Butterfield Road, told deputies Friday someone cut a living room screen that day while he was at work, then removed four screws to lower a window for entry.

He said the intruders took a combination stereophonic and television set valued at $1,300, a portable television set worth $289, a $500 antique clock, a 12-place silverware setting worth $2,000, and a $180 portable typewriter.

Also taken were a $240 battery-operated typewriter, a $500 silver pitcher, a movie projector, camera, radio, two tape recorders, jewelry, an adding machine and 15 bottles of liquor.

NEIGHBORS' DISCOVERY

Home of Lowell W. Price, 528 Midvale Way, Tamalpais Valley, was also burgled: Lory A. Crebassa, 535 Midvale Way, told officers Friday she checked the Price home while they were on vacation and discovered entry was made by prying a bedroom window screen.

The house was ransacked, she said, with a color television set, a woman's coat, and stole taken. No value estimate was given.

A 10-year-old Tamalpais Valley youth told officers Friday that he saw three men burgling the home of Maureen P. Bear and Bonnie DeClark at 704 Bay Road, Tamalpais Valley.

TRIO OBSERVED

He said he was passing the residence when the trio left the house with three suitcases of loot. The youth notified a neighbor, Mike Andrew Shannon of 759 Bay Road, who telephoned Mill Valley police and deputies were notified.

The three, gone on arrival of officers, had forced a window for entry. Loot included a portable television set, a phonograph, and jewelry. Two bedrooms were ransacked, deputies said.

Mrs. Arlene D. Snyder, 322 Ross Drive, Tamalpais Valley, reported Friday that someone took $25 worth of newly-purchased groceries from her kitchen, 13 packages of meat from a deep freeze, and jewelry and clothing from other rooms.

No forced entry was evident, she added.

MARINSHIP THEFT

Burglars apparently slipped a door lock of the home of Mrs. June Leitch, Gate 6, Marinship, making off with an $85 radio, a camera, and jewelry, deputies were told Friday.

John McCreary of Olinda, Shasta County, told officers Saturday his summer home at Dillons Beach was entered by breaking a window. Taken were eight wooden shutters, a rocking chair, a vacuum cleaner, and two pictures, he said.

Bernice A. Crouch, San Francisco, told deputies Friday her summer home in Marshall was entered, also by breaking a window. Four bottles of liquor, four cartons of cigarettes, and a radio were taken.

Pet Horse Dies After Stumble

A pet horse stabled in Marinwood bled to death yesterday after it apparently stumbled and fell on an overturned metal chair in the corral.

Irvin Sousa, an investigator for the Marin County Humane Society, disbelieved a police report the horse was shot with a rifle.

"Flash," a 14-year-old Tennessee walking horse, was owned by Kandy Christensen, 13, of 605 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda.

Home builders nearby spotted the animal stumbling around the corral at Oak and Lucas Valley roads at 8 a.m. and telephoned the humane society. The horse had collapsed through a fence and died by the time he arrived, Sousa said.

Sousa noted a blood-spattered chair leg on which the animal is believed to have fallen, and thought the wound in the animal's right shoulder too large for a bullet.

Mel Morse, executive director of the society, said he is satisfied with Sousa's report on the cause of death and that no autopsy will be performed unless requested by the Christensen family.

Gas Chamber Double Use Is Ordered

Two condemned murderers are scheduled to die strapped side by side into chairs in the San Quentin Prison gas chamber at 10 a.m. October 18.

Both men had gained months of extra life through a court case which sought to stop capital punishment through appeals on constitutional grounds. San Francisco appellate court Judge Robert Peckham stayed executions of Leaman R. Smith, who had been scheduled to die July 18, and William A. Tahl, set for execution July 13. On Aug. 25, Judge Peckham lifted his stays of execution for 58 men on condemned row, allowing stays only for condemned men specifically named in the suit which is still in court.

San Quentin authorities were notified today that an execution date of October 18 had been set by Los Angeles Superior Court for Smith. Tahl's October 18 date had already been scheduled.

Smith was convicted of killing two Los Angeles policemen when they tried to question him about a check he was trying to cash in a store on February 1, 1964.

Tahl was found guilty of killing a San Diego yacht club caretaker and his wife on April 1, 1965.

There have been eight double executions at the prison, the last in 1962, Associate Warden James W. L. Park reported.

Woman Accuses Man Of Battery

Scott J. Kelly, 22, of 11 Marion Avenue, Mill Valley, was arraigned in Marin Muncipal Court yesterday on a citizen's complaint charging battery.

Darlene Messner, of 63 Wreden Avenue, Fairfax, told Fairfax police he forced her door open, pushed her, and she fell during an argument over money she said he owed her and furniture he said was his.

Plea entry was scheduled for this afternoon.

TONY SCLAFANI

FOILS THIEF

Hero Status For Alert Youngster

A 9-year-old San Anselmo boy has won the praise of San Francisco police for his help in capturing a suspected telephone coin box thief.

Tony Sclafani of 304 The Alameda was helping his father, Sal, Aug. 27 at a San Francisco gas station where the father works part time when he heard the alarm go off in a public phone booth.

Tony, a fifth grader at Brookside School, watched a man empty a quantity of change into his car, parked near the station at Lombard and Pierce streets. The boy noted the license number and description of the man. He told his father, a repairman with the San Francisco Municipal Railway, who called police.

The next day, police arrested Frank T. Boblits, 37, of Washington, D.C.

Yesterday, Tony testified before the San Francisco County Grand Jury, which returned an indictment charging Boblits with burglary.

Hub Seminary Offers City Estate Chance

The City of San Anselmo will be offered the 2.68 acre Kernan Robson property at 237 Crescent Road for a park for $22,700, according to attorney Robert Dreher, executor of the Robson estate.

Dreher said today that the San Francisco Theological Seminary, which had first chance at the property under the Robson will, has declined to accept it, and the will provides that it now be offered to the city for the cost of insurance and back taxes, which amount to about $22,700.

Dreher said the city would have three months to decide whether to accept the property. "I don't think there's any question that we will have to get the money and take it," Mayor Arthur W. Smith said today.

City Administrator-Controller Alfred C. Kaeppel said the money could come from $60,000 budget for unspecified capital improvements, from the $25,000 fund set aside for a new fire house or from other sources. He said the money would not be a problem.

$900 Ring Stolen

Beth R. Given, 115 Harn Court, Tiburon, reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday that her antique diamond ring valued at $900 was taken from her bedroom on or before Aug. 25.

Drake High Adult Classes Starting

Adult high school credit classes begin this week at Sir Francis Drake High School.

A credit course in American government will be held at 7:30 to 10 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays and general mathematics will be taught from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Thursdays.

Twenty-six non-credi courses in the fields of art, home economics, business skills, foreign languages, horticulture, driver education, physical education, mathematics and music will begin next week at the high school.

One Insurance Agent Halts School Coverage

The Insurance Company of North America, one of the insurance carriers for Sausalito School District for more than 15 years, last night notified the Sausalito School District board it will not renew its contract this year.

Agent Frank Klineman said the company had "too many losses" in the past to continue its coverage for fire, vandalism and malicious mischief and would not consider continuting the policy even at higher premiums.

NEW FIRM

Klineman has found another company, Royal-Globe Insurance Co., which has agreed to pick up the coverage, which also included protection against smoke damage and damage from "civil commotion."

The decision to drop the school coverage was made by INA's head office in Philadelphia, which Klineman said is reviewing all its institutional coverage.

The amount of Royal-Globe's premiums is not yet known.

Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato said the cancellation was because of the district's proximity to "a target area."

UPS LIABILITY

The board authorized an increase in its liability insurance under another policy to maximums of $500,000 per person, $2 million per occurrence and $150,000 in property damage.

Sausalito School District trustees also:

NEW TEACHERS — Hired Noelle Delore, half-time French teacher for Richardson Bay School, at $4,875; Richard Barfus, mathematics teacher for Richardson Bay, at $6,000; Anita Kinnard, secretary, at $457 a month, and Barbara Cain, secretary, at $435 a month.

STEP — Heard a report from director James Bixler on the Sausalito teacher education project plans for this school year. Two interns, 14 student teachers and 28 teaching assistants, all San Francisco State College students, will be in the program this year.

ENROLLMENT — Learned that first-day enrollment was 972, compared to 1,021 registered students. Last year ended with 885 students enrolled.

CLOSED MEETING — Announced the Sept. 25 meeting will start with a closed meeting at 7:30 p.m. to discuss employment of new non-teaching personnel and reassignment of others. The regular meeting starting at 8:15. Starting times of the Oct. 9 and Oct. 23 meetings will also be 7:30 p.m.

PARENTS MEETING — Announced a public meeting at 8 p.m. Sept. 20 at Bayside School. New teachers will be introduced, Dr. Amity Buxton will speak on the step program, and board president David E. Freedheim will speak on the coming bond issue and the impact of the Marincello development.

Injuries Minor To Four Youths

Four young people escaped serious injury yesterday when the car in which they were riding went off a curve of southside road on Mount Tamalpais.

California Highway Patrolman Frank S. Faris reported that "a carload of hippies coming back from a picnic on Mount Tamalpais" were involved in the single-car accident at 9:35 p.m., one-half mile south of the mountain theater.

The driver, Bruce Daniel Bourton, 17, of Detroit, Mich., was treated at Marin General Hospital for a mild concussion, and his passenger, Shawn Dunlevy, 18, for chest bruises. Another passenger, Julie Edwards, 18, refused hospitalization for minor injuries and Bryan Lee Andregg 13, had no injuries, according to the patrol.

The passengers were from San Francisco.

City-Council Planning Board Proposal Is Hit

The Corte Madera Planning Commission last night approved the principle of county-wide planning but opposed the specific proposal for a city-county planning commission.

The commission objected to having separate entity—another layer of government—created, objected to provisions for veto power in the proposal and wondered how the new agency would be financed.

The commission approved a capital improvement program for the general plan covering capital expenditures through 1972, asked for a $300 study of amending the zoning ordinance to provide for special planned districts and approved sign applications from the Paradise Drive Shopping Center and the Sierra National Bank, 5587 Paradise Drive.

A public hearing on rezoning property between Paradise Drive and Highway 101 was continued to Oct. 9.

Tam Porsche Club Film On Saturday

The Tamalpais Porsche Club will show a film, "The Titans," during its business meeting starting at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Bank of Marin, Fifth Avenue and B Street, San Rafael. The meeting is open to all Porsche owners.

The club is also holding a tour of the wine country Sunday, starting from Burge's Drive-In restaurant, Ignacio, at 10 a.m.

Brookside School Finds Extra Desk

Four-year-old Debra Ann Herrick of San Anselmo went to kindergarten today at Brookside School, which is almost in her backyard, after Brookside officials told her that pupil registration changes made it unnecessary for her to travel about a mile to another school, as she did yesterday.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Herrick of 9 Brookmont Circle had moved into the San Anselmo School District too late to put her on the regular kindergarten registration list, limited to 30 pupils each in two classes.

A photograph in yesterday's Independent-Journal showed Debra Ann looking from her backyard into the school yard of Brookside School, which she could not attend. She was assigned to Isabel Cook School, instead.

Brookside Principal Eugene M. Cochran telephoned Mrs. Herrick yesterday to say that her daughter could attend the nearby school, because some expected kindergarten pupils had not arrived and others on the waiting list ahead of her (she was seventh) had moved or gone to schools outside the district.

Cochran said today that there still are eight kindergarten-age youngsters residing in the Brookside School area who must attend Isabel Cook or Sleepy Hollow schools because the kindergarten classes are again filled. The kindergarten classes at Brookside are the only ones filled to overflowing, Cochran said.

Robert Lebugle Is Candidate For Mayor's Job

Robert Charles Lebugle, San Francisco restaurateur and former operator of the Fleur de Lys Restaurant in San Anselmo, today declared his candidacy for mayor of San Francisco.

"Since the vote for peace is refused on the ballot," he said in a press statement, "as an alternative I present my candidacy." City officials have ruled against a move to put a vote in the Vietnam war on the ballot.

Lebugle said he is "politically independent," and has "no political experience." He called "upon the votes of ladies, youth and all those who want peace."

In a three-point program based on "peace, love and happiness," he urged opposition to the war by wearing "a flower to call for peace, a special vote for citizens 18 to 21 years old, and emphasis on "art, beauty and joy."

"We need a change," he concluded, "let us make the town happy."

30-Day Jail Term For Stealing Boat

A 30-day county jail term and three years probation were given Norman R. Hettman, 24, yesterday in Marin Superior Court for grand theft.

Hettman, of San Francisco, pleaded guilty July 17. He took a 29-foot ketch belonging to Wilbur Hubbinett of San Francisco from Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito Feb. 22.

Stolen Credit Card Abusers Are Arraigned

A couple arrested Thursday after police found over $2,000 worth of merchandise and a quantity of marijuana in their home was arraigned yesterday in Marin Municipal Court.

Accused of using a stolen credit card from Aug. 1 through Wednesday to buy the loot are Karen L. and James R. Detels, who had been living under assumed names at 612 Galerita Way in Santa Venetia.

The couple also is accused of felony marijuana possession. Plea entries were scheduled by Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. for 1:30 p.m. Monday.

San Rafael police said they learned excessive charges were being made on a stolen Master Charge card in San Rafael and Sonoma. The card had been mailed to Helen L. Patterson at 517 Miller Road in San Rafael after she moved, and the Detels, living at that address, moved to Galerita Way about 10 days ago, they said.

Inspector Gerald Souza said search of the latter residence disclosed newly purchased items including clothing, appliances, a pistol and several glassware items.

Thief Takes Woman's Purse

A thief Sunday broke into a Daly City woman's car in a church parking lot in Marin City and stole her purse.

Sheriff's deputies said Mrs. Barbara Ahmed of Daly City was attending the Marin City Art and Music Fair and locked her purse in the car.

She recovered the purse and her wallet with her driver's license, which the thief dropped in the area, but $10, her credit cards and her checkbook were taken.

Washington Grand Jury Has Session With Powell

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell, ousted from his Harlem congressional seat by the House for alleged financial misconduct, was back in Washington yesterday to appear before a federal grand jury investigating similar allegations.

Powell reportedly appeared in response to a subpoena.

Powell is being investigated in connection with sections of federal law dealing with bribery of witnesses, fraudulent or false claims against the government, conspiracy to defraud the government and embezzlement of theft of public money or records.

The House excluded Powell last March after a congressional committee said he made false reports on expenditures and wrongfully appropriated more than $28,000 in public funds to his own use by allowing his wife to draw a salary when she performed no official duties.

He was re-elected in a special election April 11 and has sought court action to get readmitted. He has not asked the House to readmit him.

Powell declined to tell newsmen about his session with the grand jury.

One out of four residents of Washington State owns a pleasure craft of some kind.

Sausalito Parade To Support Library

A volunteer group of Sausalito children will hold a half-hour parade, complete with antique fire engine and calliope, down Bridgeway at 4:30 p.m. Friday to promote the proposed new city library.

The parade will start at the post office, go along Bridgeway to Vina Del Mar Plaza, then to the proposed library site on the waterfront and back to the post office.

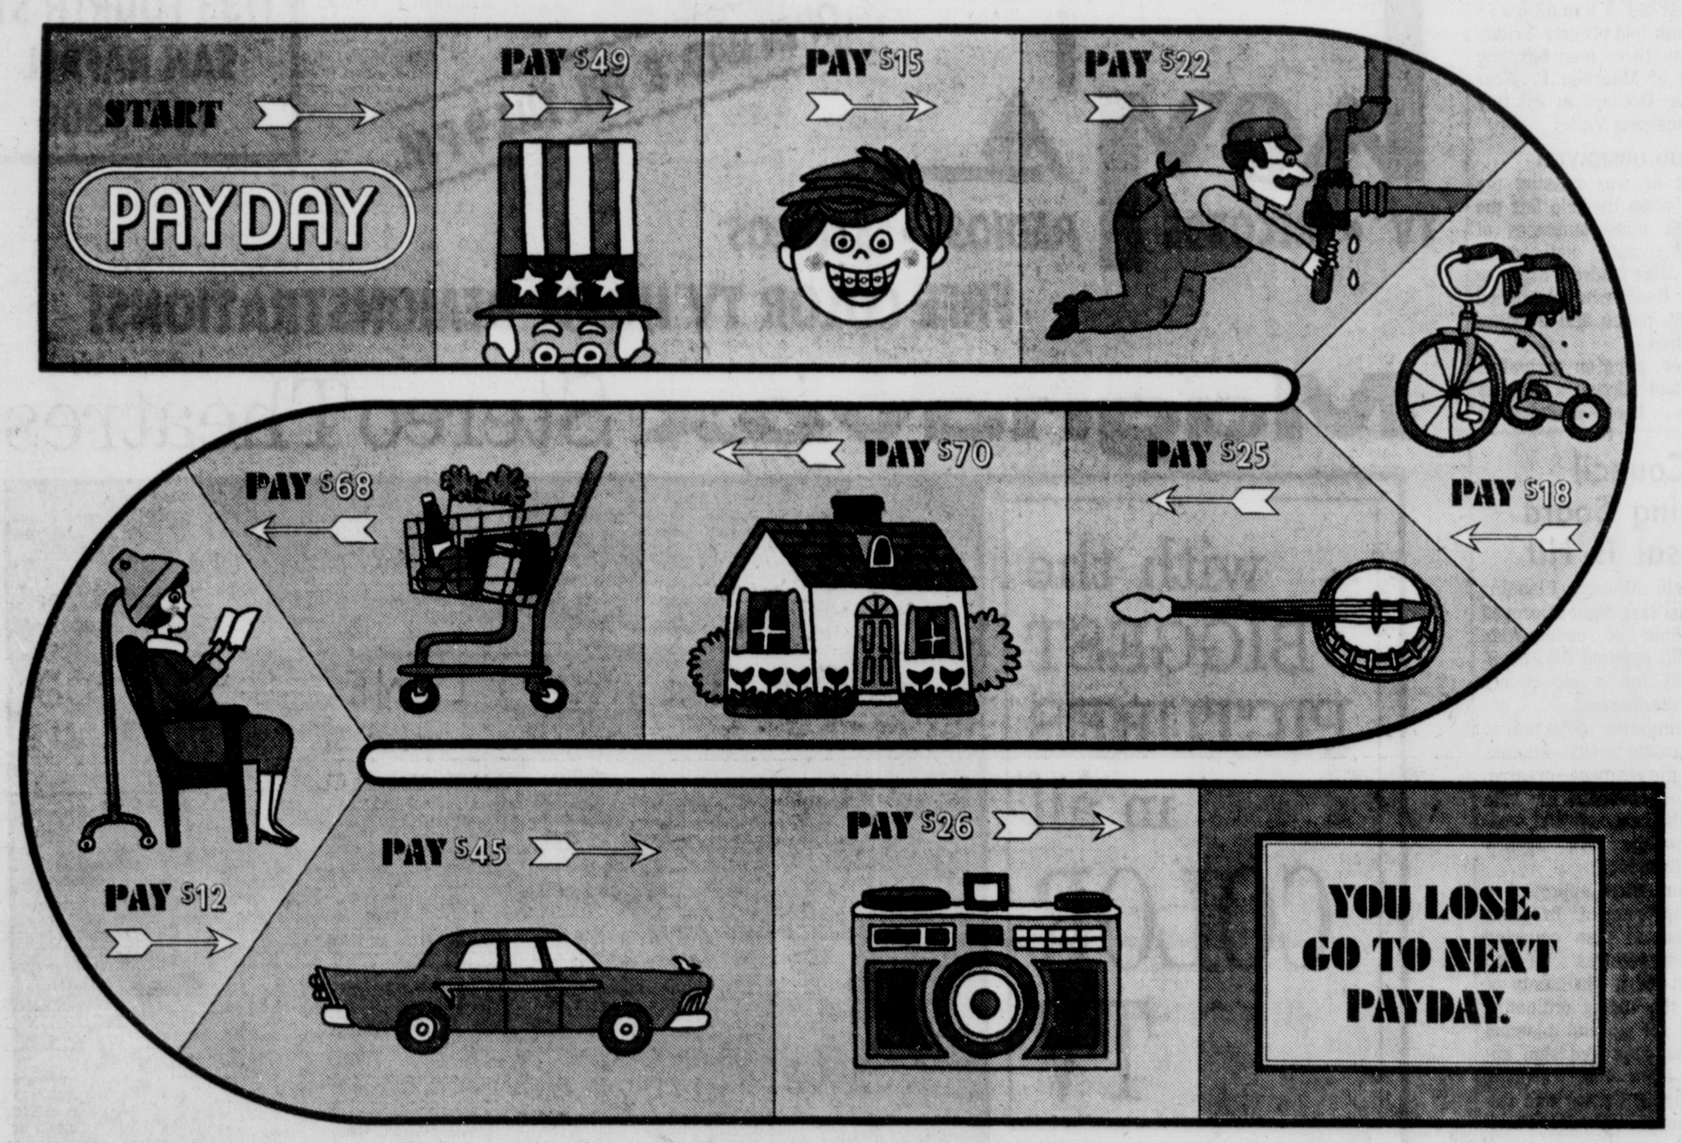
Are you playing a losing game with your paycheck?



You say you'd like to save a little money each paycheck, but you just can't seem to beat the game. Right?

We think there's a way you can: the Crocker-Citizens Layaway Savings Plan. It works like this.

You tell us how much you want to save each payday. Then, when you deposit your paycheck, we'll automatically transfer that amount from your checking to your savings account.

You see now why our plan can work for you: you save before you spend. And when you save regularly, you tend to spend less.

Whatever amount you decide to save—even if it's just a few dollars a paycheck—you can count on us to give you our full attention. We're a big bank. But we're interested in helping you out of your problems. And no problem is too little for us.

So why don't you come in and let us get you started?

We'd like to see you get ahead of the game.

Employment Is Up Again

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Employment in California during August set a record for the month in a row, the departments of Employment and Industrial Relations said today.

August employment was estimated at 7,491,000, up 51,000 from July and 182,000 above the August, 1966, figure.

August unemployment was 384,000 compared to 405,009 in July. The August level, however remained above that of a year ago when 361,000 were unemployed.

Boy, 12, Earns Bravery Award

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Another of Police Inspector William E. Van Laak's children won a bravery award yesterday.

This time it was William J. Van Laak, 12, whose sister won an award six years ago when she was 13 for saving three boys from drowning. The sister is Linda Van Laak.

The brother was awarded a gold medal by the International Association of Fire Chiefs and a $2,500 life policy by the Hartford Insurance Group.

On May 11, 1966, William was making collections for newspapers he delivers in San Francisco's Sunset district when he smelled smoke in an apartment house at 816 Taraval Street.

He told a passerby to call the fire department and then raced inside, banging on doors and alerting residents. He also carried out an elderly crippled woman.

Pesticide Kills Numerous Birds

FRESNO (AP)—Pesticide designed to eradicate the cotton bollworm may be responsible for killing numerous doves, pheasants, quail and song birds throughout the central and southern San Joaquin Valley, says the state's fish and game regional manager, David Selleck.

Circumstantial evidence has been gathered indicating the chemical Azodrin caused the birds to die and some dogs have been affected while hunting in fields sprayed a short time earlier with Azodrin, Selleck said.

Azodrin is registered with the state and federal governments, but is not on the California injurious pesticide list, which places stringent controls on the use of some agricultural chemicals.

Fairfax Council Delays Decision On Pay Hikes

The Fairfax Xity Council last night postponed until Sept. 18 any decision on a proposal for flat rate salaries for department heads.

Both Councilmen Frank J. Eggar and Robert R. Souza said more study is required for the proposal which grew out of a July dispute between City Administrator David J. Sumbardo and City Engineer Richard J. Nelson.

Sumbardo was not granted a 2.5 per cent salary increase and Nelson was.

The Fairfax City Council Also:

ECONOMY — Postponed until Sept. 18 at 8 p.m. a report on economy in city government.

TAXI FARES — Granted San Rafael Taxi Cabs Inc. a 10-cent fare increase on trips from Fairfax to San Rafael, plus an increase from $1.50 to $2 for each 15-minute wait.

MARKER — Granted a special use permit to developers E. J. and H. Garavatti to construct a "Short Stop" marker at the corner of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Kent Avenue, but denied a request to install gasoline pump on the lot.

CARPORT — Granted an encroachment permit to John Keilty and Walter H. Toews to construct a ramp on city property for a carport at 239 Frustuck Avenue.

FEES — Set Sept. 18 for public meeting on changing the conditional zoning and variance permit fees.

FLOOD AID — Passed resolution requesting $17,000 state aid under the flood emergency relief law for last winter's damage.

MEDICAL CENTER — Postponed until Sept. 18 meeting any decision on application for a special use permit from James Johnson for a medical center at 1732 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

LOT SPLIT — Denied a request from Don H. Banks to split his lot at 103 Chester Avenue.

Novato Hilltop Restaurant To Become Nursery School

A use permit for a pre-school nursery school was approved by the Novato Planning Commission last night for the building formerly occupied by the Hill Top restaurant at Highway 101 and Lamont and Hayden avenues.

Plans for the nuresery school call for use of four and a half acres of the 10-acre site on the hilltop, according to Johnnie H. Bunch of Kiddie Land of San Rafael, the applicant.

The application of Henry L. Hicks for a real estate and insurance office at 1683 Novato Boulevard, was withdrawn before the meeting. However, the commission did grant Hicks a use permit for a non-illuminated free standing sign of 96 square feet for that building.

The Novato Planning Commission Also:

REZONING — Gave its approval to rezoning from limited agricultural to light industrial for 1.37 acres adjacent to the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks southeast of Highway 101 and 37 interchange, as requested by F and E Investments.

KENNELS — Approved a use permit for a cat kennels at the home of Claudette J. Kobert at 1201 Yukon Way.

EXCAVATING — Gave Albert P. Tognoli a use permit to remove 130,000 cubic yards of material from the hill south of Reservoir Drive between Oleander Lane and Adrienne Street.

DOWNTOWN — Continued until Sept. 25 the consideration of the Downtown Novato Center master plan as submitted by Gerald Hoytt, developer.

ADMINISTRATION — Voted not to take any stand on the site chosen for the school administration building at Wilson Avenue and Vineyard Road. This action was taken because the planning department had received protests against the school administration site as selected by the Novato Unified School District trustees.

CHAIRMAN — Asked the city council to name a chairman to the newly created plan review committee.

Mount Tam Fire Breaks On Agenda

Directors of Marin Municipal Water District tomorrow will consider recommendations from General Mgr. William R. Seeger to support the state fire warden's plans for constructing fuel breaks on Mount Tamalpais.

The board meets at 1:30 p.m. at the district office, 220 Nellen Avenue, Corte Madera.

In a meeting Aug. 24 with Marin County Fire Chief Louis Bloom, Seeger promised conservation groups the fire protection breaks would not deface the mountain's beauty.

Tiscornia Estate Set: $6.7 Million

The estate of real estate magnate Adolph A. Tiscornia, formerly of Larkspur, was valued at $6.7 million, according to a partial appraisal filed yesterday in San Francisco Probate Court.

Tiscornia, who also owned property in Marin County and was president of a Sausalito iron works, died Jan. 9 in San Francisco at 82.

Of Tiscornia's holdings, about $2 million was in bank accounts, $2.5 million in real estate, and the rest in stocks and bonds, the appraisal showed.

A handwritten will left the income from his estate to his longtime aide and secretary, Alice B. Copeland.

Mother Held In Deaths

NEW YORK (AP) — Detectives arrested a 28-year-old Queens woman today, charging that she murdered her 4-year-old daughter in Queens more than two years ago. Her 5-year-old son also was slain.

Authorities took Alice Crimmins into custody in the early morning hours in a parking lot outside her Whitestone, Queens, apartment.

The indictment charged Mrs. Crimmins with her daughter's murder.

Mrs. Crimmins children vanished from the family apartment—then in Flushing, Queens—in July, 1965. The girl, Alice, was found dead in a vacant lot shortly after her disappearance.

A widely publicized police search failed to turn up any sign of the boy, Edmund, but within a week after his disappearance, a passer-by found his body under a blanket on an embankment overlooking the World's Fair.

The attractive, red-haired Mrs. Crimmins, estranged from her husband, told police at the time she had put the children to bed on the night of July 13 and that, as late as midnight, had looked in on them.

Sometime between midnight and the next morning, the children apparently were abducted, Mrs. Crimmins told police.

Fairfax Citizens Win Back Their Beloved Old Noise

Silence brought the Fairfax City Council its loudest meeting in four years last night.

For the past 41 years, Fairfax residents, like it or not, have been subjected to three blasts from the town fire whistle every morning at 8 a.m.

The custom apparently went unchallenged until the Aug. 14 meeting when Anthony De Voss identified as town newcomer, requested the council terminate the "bone-jarring disturbance."

Councilmembers were quick at that time to comply with the request and voted to turn it off.

But last night, the city council was presented a petition signed by 34 residents, complaining that one of the town's few remaining traditions had been eliminated.

Nearly 50 persons, the largest council meeting attendance in four years according to Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni, were there last night and many of them were long-time residents.

Nelson A. Gamas, who has operated a service station across from the fire house for the past 15 years, seemed to speak for the group when he said, "I don't wear a watch. Now 8 o'clock has been eliminated from my life."

One resident who did not identify herself, stated that although she had not heard all 15,975 beeps, she had grown up with them.

After some consideration, a motion to reinstate the whistle by Councilman Frank J. Eggar, was passed unanimously and a resounding cheer from the audience signified its approval.

A woodcock may consume half its weight in worms in one day.

Assessors Given State Warning

SAN DIEGO (UPI) —County assessors must eliminate scandal from their offices or see the state assume their operations, Controller Houston Flournoy said yesterday.

He said the legislature already has ordered new uniform assessment procedures as a result of the recent statewide assessment investigation which ended with several assessors and their assistants going to prison.

Flournoy said at the 65th annual conference of the Association of County Assessors of California that the state is now watching assessors closely.

Plea Date Scheduled In Bad Check Case

Robert Bruce Lane, 26, was arraigned in Marin Superior Court yesterday on a felony complaint of passing $1,600 in worthless checks.

Plea entry was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Lane, of 256 Cardinal Lane, Mill Valley, is charged with passing the checks in San Rafael, Mill Valley and Corte Madera over a six-week period.

Northgate Turns To Pacific Items

Shopping at Northgate Fashion Mall this week will be like shopping in Australia's famed Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane and South Pacific cities.

Window and interior store displays have added glamor to the mall, and beginning tomorrow, spectacular events will be happening everyday at Northgate.

Wednesday morning will begin with a gardening competition, in which prize flowers and shrubs of the South Pacific will compete. In the afternoon Maori dancers will perform and will remain at Northgate throughout the week.

Travel films will be shown daily at the Emporium and travel information will be available at booths on the mall, where you may enter your name for a Matson cruise drawing. A fishing contest will be the highlight of Saturday. All week visitors may see an Australian art show, an America's Cup Display.

The Emporium is carrying everything from stuffed Koala bears to coat-dress combinations, many of which have been purchased in Australia especially for the occasion. Other Australian merchandise may be found at the City of Paris, Walden Book Store, Roos-Atkins and Pacific Carpet Store. The City of Paris is featuring sun umbrellas from Australia, fringed or valanced, in plaids and contrasting colors.

South Pacific Week is the first shopping center promotion is which the Australian Department of Trade has participated in Northern California.

Army Paint Shade A Divorce Cause

DURHAM, England (UPI) — Mrs. Eva Hovell considered herself a good army wife. But there's a limit to everything, she told a judge in applying for a divorce.

Her husband, an army sergeant-major, used ivory paint on the light green walls of their home during redecorating, Mrs. Hovell said. The result? Barracks cream colored walls. Hovell, adamant, refused to scrape it off. Mrs. Hovell got the divorce on grounds of cruelty.

Quick Thinking Bandit Gets Cash

LOS ANGELES (AP)—James Anderson, apartment house manager here, was en route to the bank with a plastic bag containing $3,000 in cash and checks, ready to be deposited. He stopped at an intersection to light a cigar.

Around the corner sped a car. A man reached out and snatched the bag from Anderson's hand as the car sped away.

Wines Of Australia Tasted During Party

Australian wines were sampled for the first time by Marin dignitaries, buyers and managers of Northgate Fashion Mall stores at an Australian wine-tasting held Monday night in the Gown Salon of the City of Paris.

The Australian Department of Trade timed the event to coincide with the opening of Northgate's "South Pacific Week," where Australian wines will be available for the first time to all Marin residents.

The Seppelts wines have only recently been introduced to Americans. William Barry, the Australian Trade Commissioner, said, "The Seppelts reds, whites and roses are still only being marketed in selected areas here."

Traditionally, Australia has concentrated its export activities on established markets in over 50 countries, exporting two million gallons of wine yearly and about 120,000 proof gallons of brandy.

These exports have won hundreds of awards at the best known centers of wine judging—Montpelier in France, Ljubljana in Yugoslavia, in Hungary and in the Soviet Union. The wines have only been introduced to Americans within the last 6 months.

The wine-producing areas of Australia are among the world's best. Australia's slopes and valleys scattered among snow-capped mountains and rain forests offer a vast range of soil and climate for perfect grape growing.

They are generally warmer and drier than those of Europe. After 10 to 15 inches of winter rain, the dry summer growing period insures a clean, flavor-ripened crop, almost consistently, without drastic "up-and-down" years.

Descendents of pioneer families, who originally planted Australia's wine-growing districts, are still leaders in the industry and they produce award-winning wines of every type, from table wines, ports, and muscats to liqueurs and brandies.

Pioneers originally brought classic vine-cuts from the vineyards of Europe, from the south of France, from Burgundy and the Rhine. Some of the cuts are descendents of the first vines of Palestine and Arabia.

In earlier years, it was traditional for these winemakers to go back to Europe to study the latest developments, but now the practice is frequently reversed and students from other countries come to Australia to learn.

The research facilities of the Australian wine industry rival the world's best. Australian standards are among the highest, and the taste of Australian wine is uniquely different.

Jail Construction Work Is Foiled

SALISBURY, Mo. (AP) — A group worked several days building a two-cell "jail" to be used for "offenders" in a centennial observance here.

Salisbury residents had planned to hold kangaroo court for those who failed to wear centennial "beards." But the night before the centennial was to open, someone stole the jail.

Flowers Of Pacific In Contest

Gardening enthusiasts are invited to compete at Northgate Fashion Mall tomorrow if they grow plants, flowers or trees that are native of the South Pacific.

The competition is in three parts: Flower arrangements, branch arrangements, and container-grown plants. Flower arrangements should contain flowers and leaves that are natives of the South Pacific, and may be either fresh or dried arrangements.

Branch arrangements and container-grown plants, as well as the flower arrangements will be divided into novice and advanced categories. (A novice is anyone who has never won a blue ribbon at any fair). Entrants must determine their own level of eligibility.

Ribbons will also be awarded for "Most Unusual" entry from the South Pacific, Best Container, Best Fresh Flowers, and Best Dried Flowers.

Northgate's South Pacific Week Gardening Competition will be held as part of the South Pacific Week festivities. Entrants must bring their plants, branches and containers to Northgate by 10 a.m. and register. Judging will be from 10:30 a.m. to noon. Plants must be left for exhibit all day, and may be picked up at 9 p.m. at Northgate. There is no limit on entries and there is no entry fee.

Girls Town Being Built In Nebraska

OMAHA (UPI)—A Girls Town aimed at rivaling the nearby Boys Town is being built along the Elkhorn River west of here.

The Home of the Good Shepherd, which previously had its facilities located here, is conducting a fund-raising campaign to provide the home for girls.

Short Cruise Prize Offer

A lucky couple will win an overnight cruise on a Matson liner as part of the festivities at Northgate's South Pacific Week. Winners will get a double stateroom aboard the S. S. Monterey or the S. S. Mariposa as it sails from San Francisco to Los Angeles.

Entries for the Matson cruise will be taken at the travel booth on the mall at Northgate through Saturday. Entrants must be 21 or over, and winner's choice of time must be mutually agreeable and subject to non-displacement of revenue passengers. The prize is non-transferable and good for one year.

Northgate's prize is for people who don't have the time to take a long cruise and want to sample ocean-going shipboard life. Coastal viewing begins as the ship sails from San Francisco on a Sunday morning. As the coast unravels, the ship passes Pigeon Point, Point Santa Cruz, Monterey and Point Sur. Before nightfall winners will pass San Simeon and Santa Barbara. The coastal viewing of the Los Angeles area and harbor finishes off the cruise.

Radio Call Letters Back College Teams

BRYAN, Tex. (UPI)—When an on-campus radio station opened on the Texas A&M College (now University) campus in 1918, the Federal Communications Commission approved call letters that combined a name with some school spirit.

Station WTAW says its letters came from the phrase, "Watch the Aggies Win."

Wide Subject Range In Volumes Available About South Pacific

A wide range of South Pacific books provides armchair travel for South Pacific Week at Walden Books, Northgate Shopping Center. The books reflect both Australian and New Zealand interests from art and music to cooking, sports, history and travel.

Australian and New Zealand books have been popular in the United States for years. Americans are becoming more and more aware of their spiritual, political and economic links with the South Pacific, and they want to savor what some journalists have called the "New Frontier."

The books on display at Waldon Bookstore and the Emporium are selections from the hundreds available. One of the most dramatic, entitled Around Australia on Highway 1, provides a pictorial travelogue of the longest national highway in the world, a highway that almost girdles the whole of the continent — 7664 miles of it! Equally striking with its color photographs is Australia: A Camera Study.

Perhaps there is no better known artist in the South Pacific than Peter McIntyre. Peter McIntyre's New Zealand depicts both Maori and white man with such bold and exciting brush strokes that the whole country comes alive. Dr. Barrow's Decorative Arts of the New Zealand Maori is a living testament to what these creative people can do for a country.

Australian history is treated in a popular and amusing way in Blaikie's two books, Scandals of Australia's Strange Past and Skeletons from Australia's Strange Past. An excellent high school and junior high school series — Australia's Heritage (one volume) and Australia in World History (two volumes) — is very moderate in price for an adult or student audience.

Australian and New Zealand cuisine is featured in recipes in the Graham Kerr Cookbook. Kerr is about the best known food specialist in the South Pacific. His recipes are given in American, French and British weights and measures. Cake Icing and Decorating by Jean Bowring is acknowledged to be one of the best books on the subject published in any country.

The natural history of the Southern Hemisphere needs little introduction. There is an excellent pocket book series on display covering Australia's shells, snakes, butterflies, marsupials, bush birds and spiders. Michael Sharland's Birds of the Sun is a joy for bird-watchers, even though it is improbable that they will spy a lyre bird or a kookaburra when they hike through the Marin hills. For those whose Mecca in travel is the fabulous Great Barrier Reef, Eric Worrell's book on the subject will provide the best kind of armchair travel.

Walt Disney's photographer-correspondents in Australia, Frank and Betty Few, have written and illustrated an authentic book for children on aborigines craft entitled The Boomerang Maker. And no more moving and artistic book on aboriginal children has been written and illustrated that Children of the Dreaming. The author, Brownie Downing, has contributed color illustrations, which make the book popular in modern art museum bookstores.

The Dreamtime, by Charles Mountford, one of the world's greatest living anthropologists, is illustrated with the painting of Australian artist Ainslie Roberts. The reader is soon aware that aboriginal children have a life and legend all of their own.

In the fields of sport and recreation, Australians and New Zealanders excel. Margaret Clarke, a Canadian who migrated to England and then to Australia, has written one of the finest books on the horse and pony for junior riders ever published. It is entitled Care of the Horse and Pony. Helmer's Stag Party takes place in more rugged terrain, the mountains of New Zealand, and is most entertainingly written.

Bedroom Bathtubs Not A New Idea

NEW YORK (UPI)—The bedroom bathtub is gaining favor among home designers and owners, but it isn't a new idea.

Before the emergence of the bathroom as a standard room in homes, says the Tile Council of America, bathtubs were frequently located in the master bedrooms. Chief difference is that the modern version usually is a built-in, ceramic-tiled structure, with running hot and cold water.

Suicide

ROME (UPI)—Luigi Sparapani, 87, wrote a suicide note and prepared to jump from the balcony of his fifth floor apartment. Then, police said, he died of a heart attack.

Candidate Promises To Abolish Office

RULESVILLE, Miss (AP) — A candidate for a $14,500 post as state land commissioner has a campaign plank that is hard to beat. He promised that, if elected, he will abolish the office.

The candidate, Charles Dorrough, says he found out after entering the race that the office was unnecessary. Dorrough currently is mayor of Ruleville.

RARE BIRD

This is a kiwi bird, native bird of New Zealand. Children who draw him and bring their pictures to Northgate Fashion Mall stores by Friday may win a prize. Artists should put their name, address, telephone number and age on the back of each entry. Paper used should be no smaller than eight by 10 inches in size.

Australian Fashions For All Year

Year-round fashion ensembles from Australia — those Merco Davron dresses with matching coats — are available at the Emporium in the Northgate Shopping Center during South Pacific Week.

The Australian ensembles are made of wool mixtures especially for fall and winter. They range from double-backed fabrics and reversibles, highly popular this season, to pure wool worsteds.

Miss Anne Kracha, dress circle buyer for the Emporium stores, said these Australian designs are quality and workmanship at their highest. And the coats used by themselves are desirable additions to any wardrobe.

U.S. buyers fancy the reversible ensembles in colors usch as jungle green, curry and hot pink. Miss Kracha is particularly fond of the two-tone reversible beige ensemble because it helps diversify a woman's wardrobe: "The dress and the coat can be mixed and matched with year-round outfits," she said.

Merco Davron, with 40 years experience in quality women's coats, suits, dresses and cocktail wear, has already established overseas sales in Japan, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands.

Flying Hay Hooks Are Road Hazard

CHESTER, Ill. (UPI)—Add flying hay hooks to the hazards of highway travel.

Russell Strou,, Dix, Ill., was driving his car northeast of here when a hay hook went halfway through the windshield.

A truck just ahead of Stroup ran over the hook and a tire flung it into the windshield. Stroup was showered with glass but escaped injury.

Sea Otters Take Big Bite Of Abalones

SAN FRANCISC O(UPI)—The California Department of Fish and Game is seeking ways to control the southward migration of sea otters who are threatening the abalone industry.

Spokesmen for the abalone industry say the otters are moving out of their usual habitat along the Monterey coast and into the more southern abalone-producing waters.

The spokesmen say otters are eating so many abalones that the industry is being threatened. Sea otters, once near extinction as the result of their slaughter by fur traders in the early 1800s, now number about 500 in California. The otter has been declared a rare and endangered species and is protected by state law.

Women Not Shy

NEW YORK (UPI) — The American woman has lost her shyness about buying liquor and 44 per cent of the average package store's customers today are women, according to a distillery executive. In 1962, less then 30 per cent of liquor buyers were women.

Thieves Have Couple Marked, Followed?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gardner's restaurant in Los Angeles was held up eight times and burglarized three times. Soon after they moved to Hemet (Riverside County), a burglar used a crowbar and broke down the door.

Since then thieves have broken in five more times, tearing down the kitchen door each time. The Gardners have now put a sign on their repaired door, which reads: "Robbers: No crowbars, please. Kitchen window is open."

ACCUTRON®

IT'S NOT A WATCH... But it will always give you the precise time of day

Even the most expensive watch can't keep time as precisely as Accutron. That's because all the mechanical parts that make a conventional watch fast or slow have been left out of it. The Accutron movement is electronic. It's powered by a battery that keeps a tiny tuning fork vibrating 360 times a second, and it comes with the first guarantee of accuracy ever given.

ACCUTRON SPACEVIEW "H" Clear dial shows Accutron movement, steel back, luminous hands and hour markers, sweep second hand, waterproof*, adjustable bracelet. $150.00

GOOD CATCH—This proud angler fished the waters of Lake Okataina, New Zealand—the area the winner of the Northgate New Zealand fishing contest will visit.

Fishermen Angle For Travel Prize

An angling and casting competition, with first prize a trip to New Zealand, will be held at Northgate Fashion Mall in San Rafael, on Saturday.

The contest is open to anyone who wants to try his luck at casting. Interested contestants must report to Northgate by 10 a.m. Saturday and register for the elimination event. Rods will be supplied for those who need them. Finalists from the elimination will compete for the New Zealand prize in the afternoon.

World's casting champion, Jon Tarantino, will conduct the angling contest. He will demonstrate winning casts, and will judge the entrants on distance and accuracy.

Rules for the contest will be explained fully at the registration desk. The contest will be in two portions, accuracy and distance. Accuracy will be cast in the dry fly manner. One cast shall be made at each of three targets, with points scored accordingly. The distance portion will allow five casts, the three longest casts to be averaged and the score stated in yards. Total points in the accuracy portion will be added to the average of the distance casts to determine the over-all winner. In all cases, the decision of the judges is final.

The winner will be awarded two round trip air tickets on Air New Zealand to New Zealand to compete in the international fishing contest in December, and a chance to win $1400. He will also receive a tackle outfit compliments of Garcia Manufacturing Co.

The winner will be flown to Auckland where he will be met by a member of the Government Tourist Office, his host during his stay in New Zealand, and driven to Roturua for the fishing contest. First prize of $1400 goes to the angler who catches the "best conditioned trout." The condition factor means a fish that is heavy in relation to its length, a factor determined from a standard scale of weight-for-length ratios. Other prizes will be awarded during the week of trout fishing in one of the world's best fishing areas.

Pet Imports Stopped

ANDERSEN AFB, Guam (UPI)—Gov. Manuel Guerrero has signed an executive order establishing an embargo on the importation of dogs and cats into the territory. The measure was taken as a deterrent to the spread of rabies on the island.

Joneses Have Own Telephone Directory

CHESTER, England (UPI)—Keeping up with the Joneses has been such a problem for the local telephone company that it has brought out a special directory listing only persons of that name. The directory, covering Chester and North Wales, has 53 columns of Joneses, with more than 5,000 individual entries.

Operators believe the Joneses-only directory will help answer regular queries from persons who know the area where a particular Jones lives but not his initials.

Research

PLOEN, Holstein, Germany (UPI)—The world's oldest institute for research into inland hydrography is the Max Planck Institute for Limnology at Ploen, which celebrated its 75th anniversary this spring.

Sleepwear Styles Varied

When it comes to sleepwear, men really let their individual tastes come to the fore. As a result, there are as many, if not more, styles in this category as there are in clothing.

A man dressed for bed this season may identify with a skier, a yachtsman, a cossack, a gymnast, a bon vivant or an Oriental, depending on his mood. Pajama stylists have borrowed freely from those people to create the colorful current sleepwear.

There are woven cottons, knitted cottons and combinations of both in the new styles and as much thought has been devoted to comfort as to fashion in their designs. For men who dig the luxurious bit, there are pure silks, silk-like fabrics and nylon jerseys. For the practical-minded there are washwear pajamas with permanent press finishes in both all-cottons and blends of polyester fibers and cotton.

Robes for loungewear as well as for those fast morning showers and shaves are loaded with style and comfort. In the early a.m., thick, thirsty terry robes and wrap-around shave coats get the popular vote. Those are made as elaborate or as simple as the individual may prefer. Some are handsome prints lined with terry cloth while others are plain terries reduced to the minimum essentials.

Kimonos, said to be the most comfortable and practical garments ever devised, continue to ride the crest of fashion, with togas creating a new crest of their own.

Wools, wool blends, cashmeres and vicunas find many takers in the cold season and those, too, include plain colors and plaids as well as some stripes in their classic collared robe models.

One simply designed vicuna robe is priced at $650 but, said the shopkeeper, "That includes an embroidered monogram!"

The largest manned balloon ever made was built in 1935. Called Explorer II, it was 192 feet in diameter.

The first parachute jump from a balloon was made over Paris on October 22, 1797, by Andre Jacques Garnerin.

Contemporary, Traditional Suits Have Varied Amount Of Contour

In the wardrobe department this fall, it will be like father, like son. All types of clothes for the junior set will be feeling styling influence from designs for the older boys.

Double-breasted styles with peaked lapels and side vents will be seen in suits and sport jackets for young boys, while the fabrics — twills, corduroys, hopsacks, worsted wools and cottons — are a direct steal for Dad's closet.

Colors and patterns? They're big with the grade-schoolers too. Plaids, checks, and stripes in the new earth tones as well as grays and greens burst forth this fall. Many manufacturers are offering coordinated outfits to take the work out of properly matching these vibrant patterns and colors.

The rugged look continues big in slacks, shirts, sweaters and jackets for school hours and after. Sweaters are burly in popcorn knits, cable stitching and other rough looks in crew necks, V-necks and mock turtlenecks. And chances are that any boy — no matter what his age — is going to want at least one of the popular turtlenecks this fall.

More plaids, checks, and stripes enliven boys' slacks and shirts while cotton knit shirts will remain a great favorite with young boys.

To keep the boy warm, outerwear coats and jackets of corduroy, cotton, and wool will have linings of shearling and pile.

Accessories, ties, and caps will continue with the just-like-Dad theme and will be equally marked by lively color and pattern.

Whether the styles are influenced by Dad or not, the clothes for boys maintain the serviceability traits necessary for this type of apparel. Almost all items of boys' apparel come in the permanent press process. This is not only a great help to Mother on wash days, but increases the life and improves the look of the garment as well.

Hydrogen Bubble Chamber Is Massive

STANFORD (UPI) — A massive hydrogen bubble chamber, comparable in size and weight to a modern locomotive and in accuracy to a Swiss watch, is in operation at Stanford University.

The chamber enables scientists at the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center to "see" sub-nuclear particles in action when hydrogen nuclei are bombarded by high-energy particles from a two-mile long "electron gun."

Golf Ball Flies High As Airplane

LEWISTOWN, Pa. (UPI)— How does a golfer mark his scorecard when he scores a hole in one—in an airplane?

Jacque Kratzer, a veteran flier and flying instructor, said one of his students, while making a landing approach to an airport, crossed over the fifth fairway of the Lewistown Country Club and that's where the hole in one was made.

The ball punctured the plane's fabric and dented the metal frame, but damage was minor. Kratzer said he was curious to know what club was used to get that much loft on the ball.

MEADE, Kan. (AP) — F. C. Frank of Meade lost his billfold Recently Cunningham found the missing billfold while working in the field. Still in the billfold were a $10 bill, two wedding bands and a diamond ring, all in good condition.

Honest Crash

DICKINSON, Tex. (UPI)—An honest man came to Zero's Grill, the Texas Restaurant Association magazine reported. Owner Bill Zero said a motorist smashed into the brick front of the grill one night and, finding nobody about, put $40 in an envelope and left it on the barbecue pit.

New Technique Aids Quick Diagnosis

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)— Paring down valuable minutes in the emergency room, physicians at Johns Hopkins Hospital use a speedy route to diagnose extent of damage in stab wound patients.

Radiopaque materials is poured directly into the wound, then x-ray films are taken immediately. The films show if the abdominal wall has been penetrated.

Inmate Turns Out To Be Good Worker

WEBB CITY, Mo. (AP) — A man arrested for a minor crime was sentenced to work on the city street gang for two weeks.

At the end of that time, he was judged such a good worker that he was hired to remain on the job. Not only that, but he was allowed to live in the jail without charge until he received his first pay check.

Hot Time

MOUNT JULIET, Tenn. (AP) — The chief firefighter here and four of his teen-age assistants have been charged with burning two buildings so they could use their fire engines.

Speech Professor Listens To English Women Talk

Special to the I-J

SANTA BARBARA — The language some British housewives use has an interested audience in a speech laboratory at the University of California campus here.

The listener is Dr. Theodore Hanley, professor of speech, who has recently returned from the British Isles where he recorded everyday conversations of middle-aged women for a study he is making of disappearing dialects.

For his subjects, Hanley chose women over 50 who, with their parents, had lived all their lives in the same four regions. "I chose this age group," he explained, "because it seems likely that their language habits would not have been affected by the pervasive influence of radio and television."

A preliminary investigation of the tapes has revealed "considerable variations" in language patterns between the regions. "The timing is particularly different in the Dorset dialect," he noted, "and the speech is similar in some ways to our own Southern dialect."

Hanley will run the recordings through a series of instruments, each of which will produce a graphic record of some aspect of the tapes.

Hanley says his findings will have historical significance because the dialects are disappearing with the emergence of radio and television. The work also will have implications for linguists and, possibly, for those engaged in the development of voice typewriters.

Loan Sharks

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP) — Loan sharks are nothing new, a professor studying a collection of Assyrian cuneiform tables at the University of Pennsylvania Museum has discovered. In the Assyria of 1850 B.C., annual interest for a loan ran to 190 per cent.

Middle Class Said Anxious About Hippies

Special to the I-J

SAN FRANCISCO — "There's a tremendous amount of middle class anxiety about the hippy movement," says Dr. David E. Smith, University of California faculty member and director of the Haight-Ashbury Medical Clinic.

"Today's middle class society consistently bases its educational, medical and legislative programs upon the premise that the hippies must return to their former middle class mold," notes Dr. Smith, an instructor of pharmacology at the universitie's San Francisco Medical Center.

"People must realize," Dr. Smith contends, "that attempts to resocialize the hippies are actually increasing he cmmuication gap between 'hippy' and 'straight' elements of the community."

The physician believes that society must accept the fact that these young people will never return to the mold. "Then we can proceed with a more creative type of resocialization — not necessarily returning them to their former mold, but at least getting them out of their present state oflimbo."

If we don't "give these young people the opportunity to be constructive on their terms, then they will remain outside the mainstream of society," Dr. Smith believes.

OVATION

Ovation is the name for this contemporary style pump with light, lowered straight-angled heel. It has a big squared bow on the rounded-square toe and is made of supple leather. Available at Kramer's Shoes in the Corte Madera Center.

City Needs Pupils

BLAKENHAM, The Netherlands (UPI)—Mayor G. Groenandaal has told the people of Blakenham they ought "to do something" about the shortage of children in the village. Blakenham needs 50 children in three years to keep the permit for its new public school.

Farming, Selling Aids Mental Patients

ANCHORAGE, Ky. (AP) — The work of mental patients at Central State Hospital's 500-acre farm not only supplies food and dairy products, but has become an important therapeutic treatment.

The patients learn about farming and sell produce and plants at a roadside stand. Work at the stand gives them experience in dealing with the public. Many of them have gone into agricultural work after being released.

All Wet

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — An Atlanta outdoor theater had a production delayed nearly half an hour due to a sudden rain shower, which drenched the cast during the first act. The production was "On a Clear Day You Can See Forever."

Thief Bags Bags

CROMWELL, Ind. (AP) — Somewhere around here there is a disgusted thief. He stole a bulging mail sack from the post office. There was nothing in it except 19 empty mail sacks.
